Bristol Couple Arrested Here Man is Held for Bigamy.

Bristol, Va., Sept. 6.—J. C. Morris, alias J. C. Elliott, a young traveling man, was arrested last night on a charge of committing bigamy, preferred by Mrs. Frankie Moore Elliott of Johnson City, after he had married Sadie Sharrett, a thirteen-year-old girl of this city, which he did to escape further prosecution for abduction. He eloped with the Bristol girl Wednesday, but they were caught at Marion, Va., and brought back. Mrs. Elliott, claiming to be wife No. 1, appeared tonight and swore out the warrant. A dispatch from Roanoke said that Young Elliott married twice while in that city and that his first wife was a young woman from Norwich. Whether they separated or were divorced is not known. It is said, however, that later he married a young woman from Boone Mill, Franklin county. According to those who knew young Elliott, wife No. 2 did not live with him long and she has since married and gone to Canada, where she is now. It is not known whether a divorce was secured from or by this second wife. When the information was obtained last night bearing on Elliott's alleged marital career in Roanoke, it was too late to get further facts from the clerks of Roanoke and Franklin counties where the licenses are said to have been issued.

According to what could be learned, Elliott is not over twenty years old and he is credited—or debited—with having at least four living wives and perhaps others, which seems to be going some.

Mr. R. R. Copenhaver, after spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Ella Copenhaver, left Sunday for Mississippi, where he will resume traveling.—Pulaski Times.

George Washington Dobbins and Miss Annie Laura Dunn were married Saturday, August 30th at Blountville. Miss Dunn is the daughter of the late Jas. Madison Dunn, formerly of Louisville, Ky. They will make their home at Marion, Va.—Bristol Courier.

A severe electric storm visited this section last Friday evening and was accompanied by the heaviest down-pour of rain known in years. Lightning struck a barn on the place of Mac Ryburn near Old Glade and killed horses belonging to Marcellus Wolfe, besides doing other damage. A horse was also killed by lightning on the farm tenanted by W. H. McClellan near Glade Spring.—Glade Spring Vidette.

The total amount of coal handled at the Lamberts Point pier of the Norfolk & Western for the month of August was 424,000 tons. In addition to this probably 30,000 tons were handled from the city pier making a total of 454,900 tons carried by the Norfolk & Western for the month. The pier record for the past month exceeded that of the month of August 1912, by 31,000 tons.

Compulsory Education for Bristol in Effect.

Compulsory education went into effect in both Bristols with the opening of the city schools in September. A special bill enacted by the last Legislature of Tennessee makes the law effective in Bristol, Va., adopted compulsory education in June, under the local option law on the subject.

The Tennessee law requires the attendance upon the public schools of all children of school age, or at least at least eighty consecutive days. A heavy punishment is provided. The school authorities announce that they intend to vigorously enforce the new law.

In Tennessee all pupils between the ages of eight and fourteen are required to attend school regularly for not less than eighty days. All pupils between the ages of fourteen and sixteen are required to attend unless legally employed for a like term.

Washington and Lee University Gets $2,003,002.

New York, Sept. 8.—The largest bequest to an educational institution in the South in years, and the largest recently made to any college, is disclosed in the transfer tax appraisal of the estate of Robert F. Doremus, member of the stock exchange firm of De Copet & Doremus, showing that Washington and Lee University, of Lexington, Va., will eventually receive $2,003,002 under the will of Mr. Doremus. Washington and Lee will receive the entire residuary estate, or $1,903,002, upon the death of the widow, Josephine R. Doremus who has a life interest, and will get $100,000 more upon the death of F. Harrison Doremus, father of the testator. The will provided that if Washington and Lee was not in existence at the time of the testator's death the bequest was to go to the University of Virginia. Mr. Doremus' bequest is only exceeded by the bequest of about $3,000,000 by Ferris S. Thompson to Princeton.

Independence Weddings.

Independence, Va., Sept. 8.—Mr. M. C. Sells and Miss Besie Rose, of Mouth of Wilson, were married Monday afternoon.

Glenn Owens was married to Miss Laura Cruze last Wednesday.

Miss Ruth B. Reeves, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Reeves, was married Tuesday to Mr. Oscar Orton Smith, of Roaring Gap, N. C. Only a few of the nearest relatives friends were invited.

Chilhowie, Va., Sept. 8.—Miss Virginia Holmes Greener, of Chilhowie, has been appointed sponsor for the Sons of Veterans of the Ninth congressional district to the Confederate reunion to be held at Roanoke in September by Gen. S. D. Ragers, of Petersburg, commander of Virginia division, Sons of Veterans.

Popular Couple Elopes.

News of the elopement to Bristol and marriage on last Friday of Miss Eloise Muncy and Mr. Ben Kegley, both of Bland, was received here on Monday of this week. The young couple were at Marion taking in the Smyth county fair when the elopement took place, and the announcement of their marriage was quite a surprise to their many relatives and friends in Bland. The bride is a daughter of the late C. P. Muncy, for many years clerk of the courts of Bland, and the groom a son of the late Gordon Kegley, ex-sheriff of the county, and both are deservedly popular among a large circle of friends and acquaintances. They were married by Rev. Geo. P. Thompson, in Bristol.—Tazewell Republican.

Pretty Home Wedding at Camp.

Camp, Va., Sept. 6.—One of the prettiest home weddings that has ever taken place in Camp was solemnized at the home of Mr. Charles L. Jennings on Wednesday when his daughter, Ethelena, and Mr. Grover C. Worrell were married. Rev. J. A. Early, of Marion, the bride's pastor, officiated, using the ring ceremony. Only a few friends and relatives of the family were present.

The parlor was a bower of golden rod and ferns—the same color scheme being carried out through the entire house.

The wedding party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. S. R. Jennings, of Johnson City, Tenn. Miss Lavinia Jennings, was maid of honor. Mr. Worrell was attended by S. R. Jennings, a brother of the bride.

Miss Jennings is the youngest daughter of Mr. Chas. L. Jennings, a prominent farmer and business man of Smyth county, and graduated at the Farmville Normal School and has distinguished herself as a teacher.

Mr. Worrell was a graduate of the law class of Washington and Lee in 1910 and is located at Athens, W. Va.

What Henry Stuart Does Once a Year.

The current issue of the excellent Southern Planter contains the following:

We note from the press reports that Virginia's "Cattle King" and next Governor, Hon. Henry C. Stuart, has recently exported some 1,000 head of beef cattle, which fetched around $200,000.

This is a yearly performance of Mr. Stuart, and he is to be congratulated, not only on his personal achievement, but also for the fame and prestige he brings to his State for producing the best beef in the world.

This shipment affords a splendid text and a timely one. We must grow more beef. We are pretty nearly facing a beef famine in this country. We have a million less cattle than a year ago, and fifteen million less than in 1909, five years ago.

Not all have the royal blue grass, indigenous to Mr. Stuart's section. All have, however, land on which quantities of roughage can be grown, and which also affords some grazing at least a part of the year. All can build silos, and a silo is really the key to cheap beef production.

Stop vealing heifer calves. Buy a pure-bred bull. Grade up the native stock. Build a silo. When this is done, verily Old Virginia can boast of her cattle on a thousand hills.—Richmond Journal.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 8.—A jury in the Corporation Court on Saturday awarded Mrs. Buelah Boyd $3,000 damages against her stepson, Harry Boyd. She sued for $5,000 damages for slander.

Killed by Boiler Bursting.

Buchanan, Va., Sept. 6.—By the bursting of the boiler at S. C. Agee's canning factory, at Baldwin Station yesterday caused the instant death of Sam Agnor, 25 years old, who was in charge of the boiler, and the serious scalding of Ira McCoy, aged 16. Young McCoy had just driven up in front of the boiler room with a two horse load of tomatoes when the boiler burst with the above results.

Bristol, Va., May Get Postoffice Building.

Washington, Sept. 8.—It is the purpose of Congressman Slemph when the next public building bill is taken up in the House for consideration, to ask for a big appropriation, probably $150,000, for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting a Federal building at Bristol, on the Virginia side.

The recent agitation regarding the question of whether the office at Bristol, Va., should be kept, has convinced Mr. Slemph that now is the time to ask for an appropriation for a first class building. He will take definite action as soon as the bill is ready for consideration, and Bristolians may expect his best work in behalf of the new structure.

333 Aviators Killed.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Eleven aviators have been killed in the army and navy service since experiments were started with heavier-than-air machines in 1908—ten in the army and one in the navy. In aviation the world over, 333 persons have been killed since 1908, 112 during the present year.

Bond Issues for This Year.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—Capt. P. St. Julian Wilson, State Highway Commissioner, reports bond issues for good roads in the following counties since the first of the current year:

Wise	$ 26,000
Rappahannock	30,000
Spottsylvania	100,000
Nelson	35,000
Scott	165,000
Smyth	22,000
Lunenburg	530,000
Westmoreland	25,000
Lee	76,000
Warren	60,000
Russell	150,000
Accomac	50,000
Total	$972,000

In addition to these bond issues, many counties are building permanent highways on the State Aid plan. There are convict camps in twenty-seven counties. During the present year twenty-eight steel bridges have been built in the state.

Washington County Fails to Support Bristol's Candidate.

Bristol, Va., Sept. 8.—Delegates and citizens of Bristol are keenly disappointed over the failure of the Washington county Democrats in today's convention at Abingdon to give the Bristol candidate for the House of Delegates the slightest recognition. Rev. E. C. Buck, incumbent, and A. J. Huff, a farmer of Fleet, were nominated to represent Bristol and the county in the lower house, with Bristol voting solidly for J. L. C. Smith, Bristol's candidate. The county had 72 votes against 16 for Bristol. Bristol sent a delegation of thirty-two leading citizens to cast its vote. Mr. Smith was placed in nomination by Herbert G. Peters. It is said that Washington county's position was due solely to the contest for the Supreme Court Judgeship, the friends of Judge Frank B. Hutton, in the county being in control. They understood that should Mr. Smith be nominated, his election would mean a vote for Judge Jos. L. Kelley, of the Bristol court for the Supreme Court bench. The Bristol delegation was unanimously in favor of Judge Kelly for the Supreme bench and in this position they but reflected the sentiment of the people of Bristol without regard to party, who recognize in Judge Kelly one of the ablest lawyers and jurists in Virginia.

A charter was granted yesterday by the State Corporation Commission to the Emory Land Company, Inc., Emory, Va., $5,000 to $25,000. M. H. Honaker, of Abingdon, president; R. K. Sutherland, of Emory, secretary and treasurer.

Bedford City Gets Home.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The National home for aged members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will be built at Bedford City, Va., instead of at French Lick Springs, Ind., according to an announcement by Fred Robinson, grand secretary of the order, here tonight.

The final count of the vote for the location, taken by mail, showed that the Virginia city had been chosen.

Women Traveling Perilous Road, Says Hefflin.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 8.—Representative Hefflin, of Alabama, flung another challenge to woman suffragists, when in an address here under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, he pleaded for woman's work at the home instead of at the ballot. He declared that "in the mad clamor for the ballot women are hazarding much and entering upon a perilous journey" and warned them to "Stop, Look, Listen."

"Ohio defeated woman suffrage by an over whelming majority," said Mr. Hefflin. "Michigan defeated it by a tremendous vote. New Jersey had woman suffrage and, by common consent of both men and women, abandoned it. The militant suffragettes of England in their rage of wild fanaticism are trampling upon the laws of God and man. They are committing assaults on English officials and burning the churches of the living God."

"Blind," But Now Sees.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 8.—M. J. McCarty, who wore a sign saying that he was "deaf, dumb and blind since childhood" has begun serving 100 days on the municipal farm, and all because he forgot his affliction and stared at an ankle that showed through a slit skirt. J. W. West, a clerk, had just given McCarty a dime, and the mendicant was so absorbed in watching the handsome young woman who wore the slit skirt that West called the attention of a policeman to the beggar's actions.

Will Davis, aged 44, of New York City, died at the home of his father, J. W. Davis, at Galax, last Friday morning at 7 o'clock, of Bright's disease. He was formerly a resident of this place but has for the last few years been living in New York where he was owner of a large livery stable. He has many friends here who will regret to hear of his demise. Interment was at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Galax cemetery.

Social Event.

On Saturday evening, Miss Marie Richardson entertained at five hundred in honor of her guests, Misses Mary Saunders and Ellen Shannon, of Saltville, Va. The card tables were placed on the porch, and after the game an assortment of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and punch were served by Misses Thelma and Ella Richardson. The following guests were present, Misses Mary Apperson, Agnes Maxwell, Clara King, Mabel Smith, Thora Greer, Grace Seaver, Eleanor and Katherine Copenhaver, Louise Miller, Wynona Anderson, Catherine Robinson, of Roanoke Retreat, Messrs Roy Reppas, Sidney Sprinkle, Robert and Richard Campbell, Alex Apperson, Willie Birchfield, Preston Collins, Nathan Dickinson, and James Early, of Hillsville.

Corn Show and School Fair.

Division Superintendent Geo. R. Hufferd will hold a corn show and school fair for Wythe county in November in connection with the Teachers' Institute. Last year a corn show and school fair was held in connection with the Teachers' Institute and was a great success. Those who were opposed to the demonstration work had to admit that much good had been accomplished and the products were far superior to anything they had expected. There has been no demonstration agent in this county this year the products of this fair will be the result of the seed sown the year before. It is to be hoped the school teachers, boys and girls and their parents will take an interest in the matter and give a fair that will be a credit to any county. The products are here if we only take time and expend a little energy and do not allow "knockers" to discourage us. Let each school and community collect the best exhibits possible and try for the prizes.—Southwest Virginia Enterprise.

Democrats Lose for Congress in Maine Election.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 8.—The election of John A. Peters (Republican) of Ellsworth, as Congressman from the Third Maine district, to succeed the late Pores Goodwin, [Republican] was indicated by unofficial returns from today's special election received at 10 o'clock tonight from all but seven of the 184 voting places in the district.

Mr. Peters' plurality over Mayor William R. Pattangall, [Democrat] of Waterville, at that hour was between 200 and 450. His vote exceeded that of M. Lawrence, [Progressive] of Lubec county, about 8,500.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Returns from the Maine congressional election were awaited here with extraordinary interest by the leaders of all parties. The Democrats who had sent Secretary Bryan, Speaker Clark and other notable campaigners into Maine to aid Pattangall, were keenly disappointed when news came that their man probably was defeated. President Wilson waited for the returns until late in the night.

Mrs. J. W. Painter and son James, who have been spending the summer with relatives here, returned to their home in Bristol last week.

On July 22nd, 1913, the little village of Chatham Hill, experienced a very sad shock in the passing away of Lindsey Bowling, Jr., at his father's home, Mr. L. C. Bowling.

He had been working for the railroad company at Williamson, West Virginia, and it was during the very warm weather of the latter part of June that he, in some way, contracted a very severe cold which seriously affected his head, and he had also contracted typhoid.

On his way home he stopped off at Bluefield and consulted a specialist; but instead of obtaining relief it seems that he gradually grew worse. Upon arriving at his own home Saturday A. M., July 5th, he was quite ill. Despite his serious condition his wonderful will power exerted itself and Sunday morning found him in his accustomed place at Sunday school. All his friends were delighted to see him but very sorry to note, from his countenance, that he was ill. His full rich voice was heard in the choir that day for the last time on earth. He taught a class in Sunday school and then remained for church.

He was twenty three years of age and a boy of fine intellect and much promise; always honest and upright in all business dealings and loved by all who knew him.

He was converted about a year ago while attending a meeting in Bluefield—though his whole life has been one of christian character in every respect. His remains were conveyed to Ridgedale church where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mort of Rich Valley circuit, then they were laid to rest in Ridgedale cemetery.

The floral tributes were both numerous and beautiful and the large concourse of sorrowing relations and friends gave evidence of his popularity.

A Question That is Well Answered.

A lady received the following reply from a neighbor in answer as to why she allowed her children and husband to litter up every room in the house. The sentiment will find lodgment in the heart of every home loving person in the land: "The mark of the little muddy feet upon the floor can be more easily removed than stains where the little feet go into the highways of sin. The prints of the little fingers upon the window pane cannot shut out the sunshine half so much as the shadow that darkens the mother's heart over the one who is but a name in the coming years. And if my Joe finds a refuge from care and his greatest happiness within its walls, he can put his boots on the rocking chair and hang his coat on the floor any day in the week. And if I stand it and he enjoys it I cannot see that it is any body's affair."—Pennington Gap News.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says that "Canada is far more Pro-Canadian than the United States." All the more is the reason that this country should not give Canada Free Trade. But Democratic Congressmen are determined to do so. A day of reckoning will come and it is not far away.—Marion (In.) Register.

No one doubts the immediate competitive effect of Free-Trade to agricultural products. The situation with respect to agricultural machinery is very different. There is no assurance whatever that there will be any reduction at all in the price of the "output" of agricultural implements as they reach the farmer.

The farmer, at the best, is taking a certain reduction in the price of all he produces in exchange for an uncertain reduction in the price of articles which do not constitute more than ten per cent of his production cost.

Senator McCumber is right in his statement that the farmer is the "goat" of the Underwood-Simmons-Wilson bill. Not only will he lose out by reason of the decreased price received for what he produces, but he has ahead a prospect of losing the home market which is his nearest and best market. The sophistries of those who stand sponsor for the new tariff bill will not go down with the hardheaded American farmer who knows on which side his bread is buttered.—Muncie (Ind.) State Journal.

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mr. Sarah E. Duncan, of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going in to college. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For sale at all drug stores.

Tariff Bill Passes.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The Democratic tariff revision bill passed the Senate at 5:43 o'clock this afternoon amid a burst of applause that swept down from crowded galleries and found its echo on the floor of the Senate. Its passage was attended with surprises in the final moments of the voting, when Senator LaFollette, Republican, cast his vote with the Democrats and was joined a few moments later by Senator Poindexter, Progressive.
The Democrats had counted throughout the long tariff fight up on losing the votes of Senators Ransdell and Thornton, of Louisiana, Democrats, who voted against the bill today because it would put sugar on the free list. Until the names of Senators LaFollette and Poindexter were actually called, however, no one knew definitely the stand they would take and their votes were greeted with enthusiastic applause.

BEST OF ENGLISH GARDENING

American Parks Show Highest Expression of Natural Style in Landscape Work.

Though many of our citizens abroad rave over the parks and gardens of Europe that are famous examples of formal or architectural gardening, this style has not found lodgment in the hearts of the American people. Much has been said about our not being an Anglo-Saxon race, but our taste in park building is one with that of the English people. Landscape, natural or English gardening, call it what you will, originated with the English people and finds its highest expression in the parks of our country. In Golden Gate park in San Francisco we may see one of the grandest examples in the United States, and it was built by a Scotchman who still continues to mold its present and plan its future.

In the English style of park building the grandest examples may be seen in the simple copying of nature, and its reproduction in places previously laid waste by the hand of man, or in those barren parts where little natural beauty was present, man has practiced "the art that doth mend" nature until under his plastic hand all has become beautiful. One cannot see in such places even a suggestion of the French, Italian or other styles, but will notice that the simple needs of the landscape have been met. That is the general conception of English and American parks, though small formal gardens of the older style may be imposed upon the natural in appropriate spots. In French and Italian parks, especially the smaller ones, the visitor feels the presence of man in the studied scheme, and a conscious effort for effect.
