

Supervisors Set County Beer Licenses

Meeting Monday, September 4th, at the court house in the regular September meeting the Board of Supervisors set beer licenses for the county under the new state beer law. All three members—J. A. Eller, chairman, C. B. Rouse and Rush F. Taylor—were present.

Beer licenses for the balance of 1933 were fixed as follows: Manufacturer's, $500; bottler's, $250; wholesaler's, $75; retailer's $10. There is also a 75 cent fee on each license.

A petition was brought before the meeting signed by a number of interested parties concerning a road near Saltville called the Buckeye Hollow road. C. E. Wiley addressed the board in favor of the road, saying that unless the road was built across the quarry pond the money spent by the Mathieson people in fencing the road would be a total loss. The board ordered the petition approved and ordered the clerk to send a copy to the state highway department.

The board ordered the fee report be published according to the state law and it will appear in this paper.

It was ordered that revenue received from the licensing of beer be put in the general county fund. I. W. Huton, commissioner of revenue, was ordered to have proper license blanks printed.

Regular accounts were audited and paid.

They received an exhaustive audit of all county affairs from Auditor of Public Accounts.

This audit covered all the transaction of the treasurer's office during the fiscal year July 1st, 1931 to June 30th, 1932. The audit was easily made as all records of the county were in good condition and well kept.

The original audit, which is voluminous in detail, is found in the Clerk's office and is open to inspection to those who desire to see it, and is a true picture of the financial condition of the county. The result of the audit, in the language of the auditors, "that the affairs of the county are being conducted efficiently and the records were properly kept."

In Court

Four colored boys—John Spears, Richard Braxton, James Holmes, Ernest Powell—all from the C. C. Camp at Konnarock were arrested in Marion last week charged with being drunk and disorderly. They came up before Squire Henry Johnston, who fined three of them $10 and costs and fourth, Braxton, $20 and costs, it being his second trip before the court.

On Friday, the 1st, the Sheriff and deputies gathered up Arthur Billings, Walt Billings, Charles Blevins, Lee Harris and Ed Doan, all young men living in Cleghorn valley, and all charged with stealing a gun from an old man. They were taken before Mayor Beattie of Chilhowie before whom Arthur Billings confessed the theft. He was given 90 days, $20 and costs and the other boys were freed.

Bill Sprinkle of the Saltville neighborhood was jailed last week. Officers had a warrant for his wife, Lyde Steel Sprinkle, who has been living at Graham, Va., for passing bad checks. They held it and waited. Toward the end of the week Mrs. Sprinkle came to visit Bill. She landed in a cell of her own, where she awaits trial.

A couple of lads, aged 16, were up in juvenile court before Judge Gray, having been caught by a farmer while raiding his potato patch. They got 60 day each.

Council Adopts Budget, Sets Beer Licenses, Defers Levy

It was the regular September meeting, held Friday night, the 1st. Present were Pres. Deacon Horne, Ken Snider, Rich Young, Ralph Killinger, Walt Johnston, Bill Todd and Mayor Greer, Recorder Gills, Treasurer Richardson and Superintendent Wheeler.

Mrs. W. E. Francis led in a delegation of half a dozen ladies to complain once more about the N. & W. whistling, against which council ordered an ordinance prepared a month ago. It was explained to the ladies that absence from the city of Town Attorney Burt Dickinson had delayed the ordinance, but that it would be passed at a special meet this month.

A. L. Wellford, district manager for Appalachian Electric Power Company, having heard of a local movement for a town-owned light and power plant, was on hand to ask if there were any complaints against his company's service and was told that the council had no complaints against the service.

Beattie Gwyn, Wyth Hull Jr., J. P. McMillan and Scott Sprinkle were heard on what would be a fair license for beer wholesalers. They said maybe they would wholesale, maybe they wouldn't.

Mayor Greer reported a big month of fines collected, the total for the town treasury being $338.

Ralph Killinger reported for the cemetery committee that Mr. Severt had asked $1000 for a plot 80x276 feet, adjoining the colored section of the cemetery, which is wanted to enlarge the section. Council instructed the committee to offer $750.

No citizens appear to speak for or against the budget published recently in this paper. It was approved and passed. Action on the levy was deferred. Town license taxes were set at the same as past figures.

Beer licenses for the balance of 1933 were set as follows: retailers, $5; wholesalers, $25.

A petition, signed by about 200 citizens, was received asking the council to get estimates on various building, a new high school, sewage system, water reservoir and town power plant. The petition was referred to a special committee consisting of Ralph Killinger, Walt Johnston and Ken Snider.

The building committee was instructed to get from Eubank & Caldwell, Roanoke architects, plans, specifications and cost estimated on a municipal building.

The light committee was instructed to gather data on costs of a town light and power plant.

Regular accounts were checked and paid.

The council went home to bed.

Q. A. Calhoun Named As Candidate for House

Meeting Thursday afternoon, the 7th, in the county court house, a representative mass meeting of Smyth county Republicans unanimously nominated Q. A. Calhoun, Marion business man and farmer, as candidate in the election of November 7th to represent Smyth county in the Virginia House of Delegates.

"Not for partizan purposes, but for the interests of our whole county, we want a man who will bring to Smyth county an actual realization of the 'new deal' in the way of roads and other much needed improvements, of which this county has in the past not received its just share"—this was the theme of the meeting.

Mr. Calhoun will be opposed by J. Tyler Frazier of Chilhowie, incumbent, who defeated E. K. Coyner of Marion Saturday, the 2nd, in a Democratic mass meeting at Marion for the right to make the race again.

Thursday's meeting was opened by County Chairman Charles H. Funk. George F. Pierce of St. Clair was named temporary chairman and your editor acted as secretary. The resolutions committee consisted of Mr. Funk, Walton Thomas and James W. Carter. They reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

The Republicans of Smyth county, in mass-meeting assembled, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the house of delegates in the election to be held Nov. 7th, 1933, do hereby present the following resolutions:

1st. We approve the state platform, made and adopted by the Republican State Convention, assembled in Lynchburg July 4th, 1933, and reaffirm our faith in the principles of the Republican Party, but:

2nd. Whereas, our Nation has been in the throes of a great depression, world wide in scope, from which our agricultural, commercial, industrial and social welfare is suffering, and:

Whereas, extraordinary efforts are being made by the National Administration to relieve the economic distress of our country at large; and while we may

Clinic Patient Found Dead On Ridge

O. T. Blevins of Sugar Grove, aged about 40 and for about ten years off and on a patient at Davis Clinic, was found dead on Thursday morning, Sept. 7th, on a high ridge on the Hospital Farm to the south and east of the hospital.

His death was attributed to an epileptic seizure, to which he was at rare intervals subject.

He had fallen head downward on the steep slope, bruising his cheek in the fall. He had been squirrel hunting and his shotgun, undischarged, was under him. There were no marks of violence, other than the blow on the cheek.

The body was found by a son of Buck Osborn. Mayor Greer, acting coroner, Superintendent Dr. George Wright, other hospital officials and Sheriff Dillard climbed to the spot and brought the body down. A post mortem exam was being made Thursday afternoon.

Blevins had a wife and son at Sugar Grove and was in the habit of frequently going home at night, so his absence from Davis Clinic of Wednesday night occasioned no alarm.

LOCAL BOY NEAR DEATH FROM BURNS

Frank Vaught, aged about 16, was burned critically Tuesday night, at about eleven o'clock when a five gallon can of kerosene exploded in the kitchen of Virginia Lunch Room on Marion's main street.

The boy, his clothes saturated and blazing, ran screaming into the alley. There he was knocked down by Stuart (Stephenson, who threw a rain coat around him. He was horribly burned. The Morris ambulance took him to Saltville after first aid treatment was administered by Dr. D. C. Boatwright.

Cause of the explosion is undetermined. The Marion fire company put out the blaze in the restaurant.

Young Vaught is given very little chance to live.

Lad Near Death After Car Hits Horse

Bill Glover of Bristol was seriously injured on Friday night, the 1st, and his cousin, Wood Vance of Chilhowie, received minor injuries when a light coupe with Vance driving collided with a horse on the Lee highway east of Chilhowie.

The horse, one owned by Lindsey Walker, was loose on the highway. Wood tried to swerve around the animal when it jumped directly in front of him. The car was badly smashed up.

Young Glover was taken to Abingdon hospital with a probable fracture of the skull. For a day or so his life was considered gravely in danger but later reports are that he has a chance for recovery.

There were several other accidents this weekend.

On Thursday night your editor was on his way back from Wytheville, having gone up there to borrow some ink with which to get out the paper—the editorial ink bucket having been emptied—when, on the way back, a green sedan or coach darted out of the Nick's Creek road and halted in his path in the highway. The editorial coupe took to the ditch to avoid a collision and in coming out turned over on the side without, however, more than curling up some mudguards. The gent in the green coupe stepped on the gas and fled without stopping.

Doc Morris Sechler came back from a weekend trip with some fenders badly dented up, he having been sideswiped by another driver.

Ned Is Head Scratching

Ned Davis, Marion Hi football coach, since Tuesday morning, the 5th, has been doing some tall head scratching up on Wright field as the candidates for this year's Marion Hi football team workout twice daily.

Ned has a neat problem to solve. He's got practically a complete backfield left from last year but only the shreds of a line. And how, and how quickly, Davis can develop a line depends in a large measure on Marion's prospects for a large season.

Prospects are not so bright, Ned says gloomily.

Only five regulars from last year's team are back. They are Rockhead Ellis and Dick Hall, half backs; Harless Wassum, full back; Justin Scott, quarter, and Roger Cook, guard. Fred Dority, another back field man, will likely move to Chilhowie. Ras Scott, last year's center; Fred Newman, guard for four years; Harl Robers, tackle; Allan Sprinkle and Henry Slear, ends and Tody Haines, quarter and half back, are gone by graduation.

Among the contenders for positions on this year's team are Stuart Sprinkle, Bay Horse Totten, Jack Gordon, Jake Cardon, Jake Cassell and possibly Dick Hall as ends; Bill and Doug Wolfe and Brickey and Russell, tackles; Joe Groseclose, Harold Richardson, Archie Groseclose, Fats DeBord, Buddy Shugart and the Murgler brothers, guards; Clark Goolsby and A. B. Graybeal, centers; James Scott, quarter.

Davis hopes to open the season Saturday, the 16th, with Galax at the Galax Fair.

Dr. W. J. Weindel

Dr. W. J. Weindel, a prominent physician of Marion and Smyth County died at his home here Thursday morning at 2 o'clock. Heart disease caused his death. A native of Kentucky he came to Marion sixteen years ago, where he has practiced faithfully since.

Dr. Weindel was a member of Scottish Consistory, Roanoke and Lynn Commandery No. 9 Marion, Kazim Temple, Roanoke and also a life member of the Pulaski Lodge of Elks and a member of the F. I. K. I. fraternity of the University of Kentucky. He was also a member of both the southwest Medical Society and of the American Medical Association.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Pearl Shrader, of Wytheville, and two daughters, Miss Katherine Weindel of Marion and Mrs. Frank Chitter of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Dr. E. A. Shugart of Marion Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. Hugh B. Brown of Big Stone Gap. The body will be shipped Friday afternoon to Petersburg, Kentucky, where interment will take place Saturday. The body will be accompanied by his family and a Masonic escort.

Thousands of Buying Citizens Pledge Selves to Buy Only N. R. A. Products at N. R. A. Stores

A tentative check up early this week of the results of last week intensive county-wide N. R. A. drive showed 175 employers, almost 100 per cent, as signers of the President's Blanket Code or their own Trade Codes, and showed nearly ten thousand signed and pledged N. R. A. consumers.

The county N. R. A. committee, headed by George A. Collins with Q. A. Calhoun, C. E. Wiley, Ed L. Pugh and Mrs. R. G. Goolsby as lieutenants and S. H. Catron and J. E. Thomas working hard as special field lieutenants, made a whirlwind campaign on the last four days of the past week. In the work they were assisted by dozens of men and women and boys and girls who gave their time and efforts whole heartedly. To all of these Mr. Collins, who was called to Washington and New York Sunday at the end of the drive, paid tribute. "They put it over," he said.

There remain, of course, several thousand consumers not yet reached with the President's Pledge Cards. Monday Mrs. Goolsby announced that cards would be placed in all stores, and that all who have not yet pledged themselves as N. R. A. supporters and purchasers are asked to sign a card at whatever store they trade with.

Employment gains and increased sales values for Smyth county retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers have not yet been tabulated but will be announced soon.

Signers of the President's Code, as listed with the county N. R. A. committee, are as follows. This list is almost 100 per cent, a few employers not being listed because their returns were filled out incorrectly.

not approve in detail all the plans of the National Administration, but realizing that these are times of extraordinary emergency, we pledge ourselves to cooperate most heartily with the National Administration in any plan or plans that promise to improve the conditions now confronting the agricultural, industrial, commercial and social life of our nation.

3rd. We pledge to the nominee of this convention our loyal support, not for partizan reasons, but because we place the interests of our county above the interests of our party. We realize that this is a day of liberal thought and that thought and action must progress with the necessities of government. We therefore invite the voters of Smyth County, irrespective of past party affiliation, to assist us in electing a delegate, who will represent the interests of Smyth County, and who will bring to Smyth County an actual realization of the "New Deal," in the way of roads and other much needed improvements, of which this county has not received its just share.

Mr. Calhoun was placed in nomination by Ralph L. Lincoln of Marion, who described the nominee as "a man with the real interest of the county at heart, with no partisan or private interests to serve—a man of likable personality, level head, a successful business man and farmer, a fighter for the things that will benefit his own people."

Mr. Calhoun's record of service in the World War, in which he fought in France and was wounded, was mentioned by Mr. Funk in seconding the nomination. "In these new days it behoves all of us to get together, put our shoulders to the wheel and push for local as well as national benefits," he declared.

Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Funk and Mr. J. L. C. Anderson were named a committee to notify Mr. Calhoun of his nomination. They did so, and brought Mr. Calhoun into the hall.

"All I've had in my vocabulary for the past few days in 'no,'" Mr. Calhoun smilingly stated, "but if it is the dictate of this meeting that I shall make the race, then I shall, solely so that I can, if elected, do my best to get for Smyth County what is rightfully hers in the Commonwealth of Virginia."

"City of Marion" Lost In Wreck

The epic voyage of the "City of Marion," John Anderson's 14-foot skiff which cast off from Jackson's Ferry several weeks ago on a trip down New River, the Kanawha and Ohio to Cincinnati, ended this week in some rapids about 10 miles below Hinton, W. Va., when the good ship smashed up on the rocks and was lost.

John Anderson, captain, crew and cabin boy, rescued his equipment and postcards back that the voyage is being completed "on the thumb."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mynes, all of Roanoke, Va., were visitors over the week-end at the home of Mrs. Franklin's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Neitch, of Marion.

Trouble Again

Along about August 16th Henry Martin, connected with the Idle While Tea Room on Marion's Lennox Ave., was one of three who paid fines of $100 each to the town of Marion after a raid which netted about 12 gals of the milk of the gods in several houses.

This week Henry was back in trouble.

It seems that a rather ragged colored man dropped in at the Idle While and wanted a pint. Henry sold it to him. The colored man took the bottle and then felt in his pants.

"I do believe I've lost my money," he said. "I thought I had it right here."

He felt around for a minute. "I'll just get some from the boss man," he said.

He went to the door and beckoned to the "boss man." The boss man came in. But he didn't bring any money. The "boss man," unfortunately for Henry Martin, was Prohibition Officer McGavock of Wythe county.

So Mr. McGavock got a warrant for Henry and he was promptly pinched by Sheriff Dillard and fined $50 and costs and given 90 days in the cooler by Squire Johnston.

Man Shoots Self Accidentally

John Delp is in Abingdon hospital suffering from a revolver wound in his right leg. Mr. Delp is an employee of the Kenneth Killinger farm. He had been bothered by chicken thieves recently and early Thursday morning, the 31st of August, he heard a disturbance among his chickens. He got up to investigate and while he was dressing he put his gun on a chair. It fell from the chair, exploded and shot him through the right leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis G. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith of Morristown, Tenn., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and Mr. R. L. Smith at Chilhowie.

Dr. Thomas C. Sexton Celebrates Ninetieth Birthday At Chatham Hill

How much do you suppose would the average man of fifty give to be assured that he would live to be ninety, and, at that age, be in the enjoyment of excellent health, still active and alert, and retaining in full measure a quick and active mind and an accurate memory? We will let the men of fifty answer, but we can register an accurate guess just what the answer would be.

On the 24th day of August, 1843, at his ancestral home near Chatham Hill, Smyth County, Virginia, Dr. Thomas C. Sexton, for the last sixty-five years a resident of the state of Nebraska, was born. Just ninety years ago.

On the 24th day of August, 1933, at the same old brick home, now owned and occupied by his youngest and only surviving sister, Mrs. R. M. Gaddy, with nearly one hundred of his relatives and friends about him, he celebrated his ninetieth birthday. Hale and hearty, and full of spirit and good humor he was the center of interest and attention, and entered into the enjoyment of the occasion with the zest of a school boy. The old home was full of joyous chatter and laughter, and Dr. Sexton, in a reminiscent mood, revived and animated by the spirit of the occasion, related many interesting incidents concerning people and occasions of his childhood, and early manhood days of Chatham Hill, prior to, during, and immediately following, the Civil War, citing also, many interesting experiences of his trip to the West, and his adventures in the pioneer settlements of Nebraska where he had cast his lot, made his home, and built his fortune. Besides his only living sister, Mrs. Gaddy, he has one living brother, Edward L. Sexton, also of Nebraska, but who was not physically able to accompany him to Virginia, as had been planned, for this occasion. Dr. Sexton's devoted and attractive wife, whom he married in Nebraska more than sixty years ago, and a grand-daughter, Miss Billie Byars, came with him to Virginia, and added much interest and pleasure to the birthday party.

After a bountiful and most delightful dinner had been served, a large birthday cake, commensurate with the size of the crowd, made by his niece, Miss Jennie Sexton, was his niece, Miss Jennie Sexton, was carried out on to the lawn. The ninety candles upon the huge cake were lighted while the guests gathered around. Dr. Sexton, and his interesting wife on one side and his happy sister on the other, were seated around the table, while the guests stood massed in the rear so that kodak pictures could be taken. Dr. Sexton was told that he must extinguish every candle with one blow, he promised that he would do his best, at the same time exhibiting a large palm leaf fan, with which he easily performed the otherwise impossible feat. He then, with some emotion, expressed his thanks and appreciation for the warm hearted greetings of relatives and friends, and for their presence, and then recited the poem by Thomas Moore, "The Light of Other Days." After the candles had been removed from the cake, and distributed as souvenirs, he proceeded to cut the cake which was offered to the assembled guests, and which proved to be most excellent.

The day was bright and warm, and will always linger as a pleasant memory in the minds of those fortunate enough to be present.

Dr. Sexton received, with a happy smile, the congratulations and good wishes of his guests, and the suggestion was made, and unanimously approved, that another such celebration on August 24th, 1934, would be in perfect order.

Mrs. Sexton also, in a few well chosen words, expressed her appreciation for the friendly greetings and the presence of so many of Dr. Sexton's relatives and friends to do honor to her husband on his birthday. She said that she also was a Virginian, that her father was a native of Frederick County, Virginia, where Dr. Sexton's grandfather lived before coming to Chatham Hill. This grandfather was Thomas Campbell Sexton for whom Dr. Sexton was named.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Sexton, Fremont; Miss Eleanor Byars, Fremont; Mrs. Nannie Gaddy, Misses Mabel and Jennie Sexton, Mrs. Nannie Taylor, and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Buchanan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buchanan and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Buchanan and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCarty and family, Misses Gray and Helen Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Saltville Sports Column

Notes of The Damascus Lebanon Stir

Allow us to state that Messrs Core and Holm put up about the best class of arbitrating that we have seen on the local diamond. They both knew their business and performed admirably.

Yes, all the old fans were there. Sam Hendricks was present with his well-known selections. Buck Owens also was there. Deputy Sheriffs seem to like the game. They do not pay as they enter. Well known sports from both towns came and blended their fog horns with the tear down. And Saltville furnished a crowd that was generous without partiality.

Mr. Cahill did a fine clean up on the grounds. (Not that they needed attention, but it made such a fine appearance.)

We think that most of the Saltville and North Holston teams attended the battle and to hear them talk about how it ought to be done. They will each one have a chance on Saturday September 2nd to show the Saltville people just how it ought to be done. Someone is going to be wrong.

This has been a most enjoyable season for the Saltville ball fans, now turn out to this last game Saturday and help Pete with the box receipts.

Saltville Eagle Rocks Offer Double Header To Saltville Fans On Labor Day

On Monday, September Fourth the Eagle Rock Baseball team will be at Saltville and engage the locals in a double header. The first game to be called at 2:00 p. m. and the second follow immediately after finish of the first. This will be a great game as the Eagle flock have a most enviable reputation for their seasons work. Saltville will have a good line up and will let the eagles know they are in a ball game.

Again on Saturday, September 9th the strong team from Gary, W. Va., will come to Saltville for a double header. First game called at 2:00 p. m. Gary claims an unbeaten season turn the trick. Turn out and see what happens.

BLUEGRASS BASEBALL LEAGUE FIRST HALF WON BY DAMASCUS

Damascus and Lebanon Stage a Pitchers Battle and Slugfest At Saltville and Damascus Wins Out

Before a crowd of baseball fans estimated to number more than five hundred, Damascus won out in the play off game to settle championship of the Bluegrass League first half season play. The first two innings of the game looked like big league stuff, then Damascus destroyed the calm by ripping out six runs in the third inning. Lefty Miller had good control of his delivery but was not so hot on temperament. He seemed to resent the attack on his delivery in this inning. The game dropped to normal then until Lebanon pulled out four in the fifth, which, added to their one in the fourth almost evened matters but this condition was not acceptable to Damascus and from the fifth inning on, it was almost any mans game. Rooters for both sides kept the gallery in an uproar till the last man was called out in the ninth. It was a good ball game. It was an even game. Each pitcher we have charged with fifteen hits. Lefty Jones struck out nine men and donated 4 walks while Miller struck out 7 and gave 2 bases on balls. They are both good pitchers. About the best in the league and while Damascus won the game, it was partly due to errors on Lebanons part. They failed on seven chances and Damascus on three.

Saltville was glad to play host to the two teams and the crowd. Mr. Sam Cahill, for the Mathieson Company had prepared the grounds till the place looked like a garden. The diamond was freshly trimmed around the edges and perfectly scraped for the game. New lime lines were laid and the crowd, while noisy was good.

And now comes the final chapter in the first years history of the Bluegrass League. On Saturday, September 2nd the last scheduled game was played. We do not know of any postponed game to be settled and then we may look to see Tazewell, the winners of the second half lock horns with Damascus in the final struggle for the championship.

As Saltville is central to both places we would like to see the game or games play here. The grounds are the best in the league, arger doubtedly be greater and the neutral territory combined with friends from each town would make a much larger audience than could be expected at either of the two towns of the contestants. Lets hear more about this and lets have the date and details of the contest published in time for fans to know whats going to be done about the "Little World Series."

The Bluegrass League has proven an undoubted success in this, their first year of existence. Let the friends of the league turn out to the final settlement and show their willingness to stand back of the league for another year.

Follows the score by innings of Wednesday's game:

Table with columns H, R, E and rows for Damascus, Lebanon, Batteries, and individual players like Jones, Miller, etc.

Tazewell Defeats Lebanon To Score of 3 to 1 and Clinches the Lead Here's the Final Second Half Standing

Table with columns W, L, Pct. and rows for Tazewell, Lebanon, Saltville, Damascus, Meadowview, N. Holston.

Tazewell, September 2nd Tazewell garnered 10 hits, made six of them count for four runs and won the second half championship of the Bluegrass League here this afternoon by defeating Lebanon, close contender, 3 to 1.

The victory gave Tazewell the chance to meet Damascus, first half winner, in a playoff for the league title. The first game of the title series, the "Little World Series" will probably be played early next week.

A crowd of 200 watched today's game in which Guy Brawley struck out 12 Lebanon batters to run his strike out total of 11 games to 131. Brawley allowed five hits while Tazewell collected 10 from Harding who struck out six men.

Tazewell counted first in the third inning. O'Keefe being safe on a drag hit, stealing second and coming in on Humphreys single. Lebanon tied up the count in the sixth. Gilmer had reached third and the Tazewell catcher, McCall signed for a pitch out. In the subsequent attempt to run Gilmer down on the base line, the ball hit him between the eyes and he scored while the ball rolled away.

The initial season of the Bluegrass League was, from an on-lookers point of view, an undoubted success. What the treasurer will report may be something else, but we say, lay your plans for next year when everything after the N. R. A. game is finished will be apple pie and beer. Lets go.

The final run counted when Scott who doubled, came in from second on Gillispie's single.

Saltville, September 2nd

For their final encounter of the year, Saltville and North Holston put up a half hearted game in which Saltville proved a winner by the score of 5 to 1.

The first three men up in Saltville half of the first inning hit for singles to right field. This netted Saltville two runs. Saltville squeezed the three runs through in the 5th, 8th and 9th innings. North Holston made their one lonely in the third on a single and some strategy. Hurt allowed only three hits off his delivery and Vrenshaw, who did not measure up to his usual gait let eight hits get him. Six strike outs for each pitcher, four walks by Hurt and three by Crenshaw tells the story of a rather tame game. The only high spots were two rather clean double plays by the North Holston infield.

Meadowview, September 2nd

Meadowview defeated Damascus here today in their final game of the Bluegrass games, 3 to 2. Albrecht pitched a beautiful game for the locals, limiting Damascus hard hitters to four hits, while Meadowview nicked Rosenbaum of the visitors for nine hits and a run each in the first, sixth and ninth innings. Hutto and Maiden led the local batters.

Notes of the Games

Bob Patrick, center fieder for N. Holston suffered a dislocated knee in a collision in the Saltville North Holston game Saturday. This will throw him out of his pay as Half Back on the Rich Valley High School foot ball team.

As we go to press Saltville is trying conclusions with the Eagle Rock team. We are hoping to get this game in this issue at the last moment. See further.

On Saturday next, September 9th, comes the Gary team for a double header. The Gary team is a winner and as Speedy Sullins promises us an extra strong team we are looking for a good game.

Saltville will try to get one or more of the Little World Series games. The contenders will do well to head the invitation. Saltville will give them the best grounds available and very likely the best gate, which by the way ought to be an inducement that can't be turned aside.

The initial season of the Bluegrass League was, from an on-lookers point of view, an undoubted success. What the treasurer will report may be something else, but we say, lay your plans for next year when everything after the N. R. A. game is finished will be apple pie and beer. Lets go.
