THURSDAY, OCT. 14, 1886.

Entered the Postoffice at Marion as Second Class Matter.

MAJ. R. R. HENRY IN A TIGHT PLACE.

WITH AN ICEBERG BEHIND HIM
AND A SIMON IN FRONT OF HIM.

He stands with one foot on the iceberg, (National Democratic platform), blowing cold. The other foot on the Simon, (Wytheville platform), blowing hot, and swears by Morrison and Randall that the Republican party shall live no longer.

The National Democratic platform declares expressly and explicitly, without prevarication or evasion:

1st.—Against the protection of our raw materials.
2.—Against the Fair School Bill and every measure like unto it.
3d.—Against the repeal of the Internal Revenue.

The National Democratic party at Washington, accordingly, has fought:

1st.—Against the protection of our raw materials.
2d.—Against the Blair Bill and all other similar bills.
3d.—Against the repeal of the Internal Revenue.

Major Henry, in accepting the nomination at Wytheville, made use of the following language:

"I understand that the convention has adopted some resolutions that I have not seen. I take it for granted, however, that they are in entire accord with the State and National platforms; upon which I squarely stand."

Platform of the Democratic Convention adopted at Wytheville Aug. 4th, 1886:

1st, Whilst we cognize the necessity for such a revision of the tariff as may be necessary to correct its inequalities, yet we are opposed to any reduction in the rates of duty upon foreign imports that will injuriously affect our own industries or tend to a reduction in the price of labor, and especially are we opposed to putting raw materials on the free list.

2nd, We are earnestly in favor of repealing the entire system of Internal Revenue laws.

3rd, We recognize it to be both the right and the duty of the General Government to aid in educating its citizens and we are therefore in favor of the Blair bill or some other similar beneficial measure.

4th, Resolved that our delegates be and they are hereby requested to present the above resolutions of the Democracy of Wythe county to the consideration of the Congressional Convention.

Fifth, We are in favor of the continued college of silver.

Sixth, That, after the demands of the government have been met, any surplus money that may be left in the Treasury of the United States be applied to the reduction of the National public debt, thereby stopping the interest.

Figures

The Democrats, in their Campaign Hand Book, are trying to make it appear that Republican administrations were more corrupt than Democratic, but the official record finally and forever disposes of that question.

The greatest pro rata loss on amount handled by any administration was $11.71 on each $100 collected, and that was under Martin Van Buren. The next largest was under Andrew Jackson $7.52 on the $1000. James Buchanan lost $3.81 on the $1000. The smallest loss was under the administration of Chester A. Arthur—one and one tenth mills on the $1000.

The average loss from Washington to Lincoln was $5.21 on the $1000 collected. The average loss to and including Arthur's administration, was 39cts on the $1000.

Put these figures in your hat, for they are official.—Southwest Republican.

A Protective Tariff

Spirit of the Valley,

In beginning an article upon the subject of the tariff, we confess we are somewhat appalled at the immensity (if we may use such an expression) of the subject.

Even a hasty discussion of the general principles of a tariff which is protecting, and one which is laid for revenue only, would consume very much more space than is usually devoted to the whole editorial department in any one issue of our weekly newspaper.

The ground, too, has been gone over so often that the same ideas must necessarily be advanced to a great extent. All that can be done by the ablest is to present some of the arguments pro and con in a different dress, and to appeal to the "inexorable logic of events" for the proof or disproof of the theories advanced.

We shall waste no words over the power of Congress to lay duties with a view of protection, without regard to its effect upon the amount of revenue raised; for that question seems to have been answered so effectually by a large majority of the great men of all parties in favor of the right of Congress to protect American industries, and guard the interests of American workmen, that it seems to be more than a waste of time to go into any argument upon that branch of the subject.

The only question then seems to be, is a tariff on foreign importations so adjusted as to protect our home laborers, and encourage a diversity in our industries beneficial to the country?

A tariff is the amount which is levied on foreign goods and wares which are brought into this country, and it may be such an amount as will produce considerable revenue without affording any protection to American manufacturers, or it may be such an amount as will afford protection and at the same time produce revenue sufficient to meet the expenses of the Government.

One of the reasons why a tariff for protection, as contradistinguished from a tariff for revenue only is required in this country, is that labor is higher here than in Europe, and consequently our manufacturers can not compete with manufacturers in Europe without cutting down the wages of their employees, unless the Europe manufacturer is compelled to pay such a per cent. for the privilege of selling his goods here, as will cover the difference in the cost of labor in this country and Europe.

We lay down these propositions, viz: First, that a protective tariff helps the laborer.

Second, that a protective tariff prevents the decrease of the wages of the laborer by preventing competition with the underpaid labor of Europe.

Such a tariff helps the farmer by supplying them with a home market, thus enhancing the value of their farm products, by saving the additional cost of transportation. That protection serves to increase and diversify manufactures in this country no man will be bold enough to deny. The more factories there are the greater will be the demand for labor, and the greater the demand for labor, the higher prices it will command.

This seems to be theoretically correct but there is something which speaks upon this subject with a hundred fold more force than any amount of theory, no matter how plausible it is, and it is this: that in this country where protection prevails the wages commanded by our laboring classes are higher than in any other country in the world.

The fact is, it seems to us, unanswerable. In an article of this length, a comparison of wages would take up too much space, but that wages in this country are higher than in any country of Europe is a fact which is indisputable and consequently undisputed. Therefore it seems clear that a protective tariff helps the laborer.

How does a protective tariff help the farming interests?

All will admit that a protective tariff serves to build up and increase manufactures and to diversify our industries. Of course then the number of men who consume farm products as contra distinguished from those who produce them is increased and thus a home market is provided for the farmer.

A vast number of men who consume farm products are thus provided, and what is more the ability to pay good prices is secured.

If by the lowering of tariff duties our manufactures are destroyed or even seriously crippled then an immense number of men who are now consuming the products of our farmers would be turned out of employment, and either have to leave the country or have to become producers of farm products instead of being consumers.

That this would ruin the farming interest is patent to every one with any sense at all.

It is a well established fact of political economy that the person seeking a market must bear all costs, such as transportation, commissions &c., &c.

If wheat was worth as much here as in Baltimore then the farmer would save the amount which is now paid out as freight, commissions and the wastage.

Thus wheat is worth 85 cents in Baltimore. It will then bring about 75 cents here, thus proving conclusively that the farmer pays or rather loses all this cost of transportation, commissions &c.

Of course then any policy which tends to bring the market closer to his door is a great advantage to him by saving cost of transportation, pay of middle men, &c., &c.

Figures to show conclusively that the farming interest has prospered under a protective tariff, could be given, and may be given at some future time, but this article is already too extended to admit of any production and comparison of figures.

Republican Prospects in W. Virginia.

Congressman Nathan Goff, of W. Virginia, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, who is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, is enthusiastic over the Republican prospects this fall and in 1888.

"The real issue between the two great parties," he said yesterday, "is the tariff. The free trade talk of the Democrats is having its effect and the people are losing confidence in them. Even the possibility of passing such bills as Morrison and Hewitt introduced had the effect of paralyzing trade in many parts of the country for the time. Coal, iron ore, lumber and wood are among the principal products of my State and the liability that these would be put on the free list caused a temporary stagnation in business. Capitalists are afraid to make investments which if the Democrats have their way, can only result in ruin."

"The Democrats talk about protection making articles of necessity unnecessarily expensive. That is the sheerest nonsense. The prices of staples are being reduced and the wages of the working men are increasing. The people are learning the advantages of protection and will give expression to their feelings at the polls. It is not at all improbable that we shall have a good working majority in the next House, and the administration will again be entrusted to the keeping of the party of protection in 1888 by a splendid majority. The great body of working men are discovering that the best interests are conserved by the Republican party and will rally to our standard."

Cure for Flux.

Many deaths are occurring daily all over the country from bowel trouble, but particularly from flux. It seems to be almost an epidemic. The best remedy we know of is Lytle's Elixir. It seems to hit the case exactly, and we have yet to hear of the first case where it has failed, if used in time. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician, who used it himself in a large practice. Lytle's Elixir ought to be in every home, where it can be resorted to at once upon the first appearance of trouble with the bowels.

Maryland's Pet Volcano.

Some excitement was created in Maryland during the past week by reports that since the earthquake of August 31st volumes of smoke had been seen issuing from crevices in the neighborhood of Chimney rock, near Mechanicstown, Md., on the Blue Ridge range.

The summit of Chimney rock is very difficult to reach. It is one of the steepest and wildest of the Blue Ridge chain. The summit is 1,200 feet above Mechanicstown, and if Chimney rock should ever turn into a Vesuvius that would be the last of the charming village in which so many Baltimoreans now find their summer home.

At the height of 1,100 feet a tornado is reached. After proceeding about fifty yards along the plateau the progress of the tourist is blocked by a perpendicular wall of bare limestone known as table. This wall arises from the plateau fully 250 feet on each side like the ramparts of a great fortress. By perilous climbing the top of Chimney rock is reached.

There are many curious fissures in the rock. These are of an unknown depth. From these fissures columns of smoke have been seen to rise from time to time within the last two years. Landlord Miller and many others have seen this smoke, and it was plainly definable from the intense blue smoky haze that always covers the Blue Ridge peaks. It was a dense, black smoke, forming a strong contrast to the blue haze.

Mr. Miller says that when he first noticed the smoke coming out of the mountain, two years ago, it seemed to start up like a jet of high-pressure steam, as thick as the trunk of a big tree and with a crown like the spreading foliage of a mountain pine. The investigators made an effort to gauge the depth of the fissures, but without success. Many of them were partly filled with timber and huge stones, which had been cast down by inquisitive visitors, but whenever the view was unobstructed it was easy to see that they extended far below the visible base of the table rock itself, and probably hundreds of feet into the depths of the mountain.

Volcano or no volcano, it is plain that active geological changes had been at work on Chimney rock within quite a recent period. The attention of geologists has been called to Chimney rock and its queer phenomena, and since the recent earthquake disturbances, which somewhat enlarged the fissures, the residents of the valley have not been a little agitated over the idea that the top of Chimney rock may prove to be a crater.—Baltimore Cor. New York Journal.

NINTH DISTRICT NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

TARIFF. Whilst we denounce the abuses of the existing tariff, and subject to the preceding limitations, we demand that federal taxation shall be exclusively for the reduction of the public debt, and that no tax shall be levied for any other purpose.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is in favor of repealing the entire system of internal revenue laws.

INTERNAL REVENUE

The system of direct taxation known as the "Internal Revenue" is a war tax and so long as the law continues, the money derived therefrom should be sacredly devoted to the relief of the people from the remaining burdens of war, and be made a fund to defray the expenses and care of our soldiers disabled in the line of duty in the republic and the payment of such pensions as Congress may from time to time grant to such soldiers, a like fund for sailors having been already provided; any surplus should be paid into the treasury.

EDUCATIONAL.

Resolved, We recognize it to be both the right and the duty of the general government to aid in educating the citizens and we are therefore in favor of the Blair bill, or some other similar beneficial measure.

Resolved, We are in favor of continued collection of silver.

Resolved, That after the demands of the government have been met any surplus money that may be left in the Treasury of the United States be applied to the reduction of national public debt, thereby stopping the interest upon any pretext.

Resolved, That the General Government into a machine for collecting taxes to be distributed among the citizens thereof.

EDUCATIONAL.

We are opposed to any proposition, which stopping the interest upon any pretext, convert the General Government into a machine for collecting taxes to be distributed among the citizens thereof.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS

9th Congressional District,

Hon. Henry Bowen,

OF TAZEWELL COUNTY VIRGINIA.

THE PROTECTED AMERICAN FARMER.

It has been usual for the Democrats to make a big fuss about the injustice and inequalities of the protective system inaugurated by the Republican party, claiming that it only builds up the manufacturer and injures the farmer. Before this can be proved to be true it will be necessary for the asserters of such a doctrine to show that while the manufacturing interests of the country have been progressing agriculture has been going backward. The statistics, however, show precisely the reverse. Under the operations of the Morrill tariff the manufacturing and agricultural industries of the American Union have advanced hand in hand, and with phenomenal strides. The manufacturer has increased his productions, has given employment to a largely increased number of hands and the number of factories have been increased in such a great ratio that the farmer has been furnished with home markets adequate for the sale and consumption of his surplus products. Not only is this so, but competition among the manufacturers of the country has become so sharp that the farmer now gets manufactured articles at one-half, or less, what they cost him in 1860, under free trade Democratic government. And strange to say the reduction in the price of manufactured articles was not attended with a similar reduction in the prices of farm products; but on the contrary the farmer has received, all the years the Republican tariff has been in operation, better prices than he got in 1860.

The increase in the number of farms, farm-areas and production from 1860 to 1880 was truly astounding. In 1860 the number of farms in the U. S. was 2,944,077, in 1880 the number was 4,093,907. In 1860 the improved acres were 163,110,720, while in 1880 they amounted to 284,771,042. It will be seen that under the protective system of the Republican party, which the Democrats said was so ruinous to the farmers, the number of farms and the acres improved about doubled in twenty years. Is it reasonable to suppose that so many men would have gone into agriculture if it was not a good and paying business? In 1860 eight hundred million bushels of corn were raised in the country, in 1880 one billion and seven hundred millions, an increase of more than 100 per cent. In 1860 the production of wheat amounted to 173,104,924 bushels, and in 1880 to 459,483,137 bushels, an increase of 165 per cent. All the other farm products were correspondingly increased under the protective tariff of the Republican party. The old farmers of the country all know how much better prices they have gotten for their products since the protective tariff was put in operation. Our farmer friends also know how much cheaper manufactured goods are. They can buy anything that is made from iron for one-half, or less, what it cost them in 1860, they can get cotton goods and woolen goods, everything in fact, for much less than they had to give in 1860.

A distinguished Democrat, who lives in one of the New England States, and is opposed to free trade, in a speech in Congress in opposition to the Morrison horizontal reduction Tariff bill made this declaration: "There is not a single article bought in the South, from the wagon that draws the farmer's cotton to the markets to the pin that his wife uses, that is not a per cent. cheaper than it was fifteen years ago. No matter how wrong the principles of protection may be, that is a fact."

What more can the farmers of the country desire than cheap manufactured articles that they have to buy, and high prices for what they produce and have to sell? That is precisely what the Republican tariff gives to the farmers. Will they be foolish enough to permit the Free-Trade Democratic Party to deprive them of such benefits? We think not.

THE DIFFERENCE!

Republicanism and Free Education for all the people.

Democracy and restricted education.

Republicanism and Federal aid to the cause of popular education.

Democracy and no money to be paid from the Federal Treasury to help educate the children of the country.

Republicanism and the absolute repeal of the Internal Revenue.

Democracy, founded upon slavery and at war with the name and form of our government.

Republicanism and humanity and liberalism.

Democracy and proscription.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE!

We take the following from the Richmond Dispatch:

MR. WILLIS, OF KENTUCKY.—Last Saturday a primary election for a Democratic candidate for Congress took place in the Louisville (Ky.) district. It resulted in the defeat of Hon. Albert S. Willis by a large majority. We deeply regret Mr. Willis' hard fate. But why was he defeated? Read the cause as stated by the New York "Times": "It would be more decent if Democrats in Washington and elsewhere would avoid boasting that the defeat of the Hon. A. S. Willis in the Fifth Kentucky district was due to his fidelity to civil-service reform. It undoubtedly was due to that and to the money of his opponent, but that is not a matter for Democrats to be proud of. They ought rather to be ashamed of it. Moreover, their party loses in Mr. Willis one of its able and most experienced men in Congress, and the party is not so rich in such men that it can afford to welcome the loss."

We take it that there was something else that contributed to the defeat of Mr. Willis by his own party besides his adherence to civil service. He was the author of what was known as the Willis bill, which was introduced by him in the House of Representatives at the last session of Congress after the Blair bill had been killed by the Democrats of the House of Representatives. The Willis bill was similar in its provisions to the Blair bill and was referred to the Labor Committee, which refused to report it to the House, killing it as the Blair bill had been killed by the Education Committee. We have no doubt that one of the reasons why Mr. Willis has been defeated for a re nomination is that he was a friend of the Blair bill. The Democracy of Kentucky, as well as the Democratic party of other States, is not friendly to the Blair bill or any who favor it. Mr. Willis was bitterly opposed by the Louisville Courier-Journal, and that paper is the implacable foe of the Blair bill, and an ardent exponent of the doctrine of free trade.

Maj. Henry is no doubt a gentleman, and a clever, good fellow socially, but he is certainly out of place on the stump.

Are the people enjoying the benefits of the Blair bill, which the Democrats promised us they would certainly pass? No!

No one can vote against Capt. Bowen on the grounds that he is no speaker, and then vote for Maj. Henry because he is one.

Did not the people expect from the pledges made by the Democrats one year ago that we would have had free books for the little boys and girls of Blair county before this time? This promise like many others, was not fulfilled.

Have the Democrat promises of better times been fulfilled? Are we having better times "than ever known before"? The Democrats deny that they are in any way responsible for the hard times, but have never dared deny that their promises of better times have failed to be fulfilled.

The Richmond Whig, a Democratic paper, replies to the continued twaddle of the Democratic press of this district about Bowen being no speaker, and says that it would be better if we had fewer speaking members in Congress.

We deeply regret to learn that our esteemed friend and patron Sam Johnson, who lives near this place is painfully suffering with an affliction thought to be flux.

Our farmers after at last getting consent of their minds to sell their cattle at the present prices are disposing of them rapidly. The way to make money in the cattle trade is to buy under Democratic rule, and sell under Republican rule.

We do not say this in a spirit of brag adocia, but it is true nevertheless, that in our commingling with the people and reliable gentlemen, we have never seen a time when the political changes from one party to another were so numerous and so general as the case this fall and these changes are from Democratic ranks to those of the Republican ranks. We have to break down a Democratic majority of something over 1,000 in the entire district, which will require about an average change of 109 votes in each of the counties composing the district. In Washington county, if reports are reliable, we will wipe out Trigg's majority. In Scott we shall certainly increase our majority. Lee is set down for Bowen by a small majority or a tie off at the best. Wise is set down certain for a Republican majority. Russell is on a boom for the farmer candidate, and may give her best recorded Republican vote. Wythe county is put down for Bowen, which will be a radical change and gain. Smyth county is also claimed for Bowen by a few hundred majority. In fact, there are but five or six counties claimed as certain for Henry, and one or two of these may give a vote against him. It is also a fixed fact that Henry cannot make a break in Tazewell county—indeed, it is claimed by well informed men that Bowen will carry that county by 1,200 or 1,300 majority—a decided increase in the Republican vote.

Captain Bowen will probably be elected by a majority ranging from 700 to 1,000 majority in the district. Whilst the facts seem to warrant us in making these figures, still our friends must remember that the Democrats are not inactive. They are in power, they are on the trail with war paint on their faces, and are endeavoring by every known device to capture the enemy and elect Henry. Our friends in all the counties must be watchful, active and wide awake. We can elect Mr. Bowen by hard work, but let no Republican believe we have a clear walk over the Congressional course.—Prog. Age.

Good Results in Eye Cases.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe "colic" that settled on his lungs, had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery. PHIPPS MILLER,

LOCAL EDITOR AND BUSINESS MANAGER.

Judge Robt. A. Richardson was in town this week.

No successful hunting has been done yet as the grass and leaves are too dry.

The partridges and pheasants are very plump as they got an unusual amount of waste wheat this summer.

Judge Jones returned home last week from Rich Valley. He was the guest of Dr. Watson and spent his time in hunting and fishing and, hence, is in excellent health.

There was no preaching in the Presbyterian church last Sunday as it was the regular appointment for Rev. McPheeters at Rural Retreat.

Rev. J. B. Greiner filled the Methodist pulpit Sunday night for Dr. Leith, the regular pastor. He preached a very able sermon and received marked attention.

Cluverius seems to be a living example of Campbell's line—Hope springs eternal in the human breast. He was sentenced last week to be hanged on the 10th of December but still shows that nerve that has been characteristic of him ever since his arrest last spring.

Monday was court day at Wytheville. Several members of the Marion bar were in attendance.

Next Monday is court day. Let everybody come as Robbins' Monster circus will be here. Court will doubtless adjourn and every one will go to see it.

It seems that goods couldn't be bought any cheaper than Levy & Davis of Richmond offer to sell them. They own the leading dry goods store of the city and sell at hard time prices. All orders from patrons not living in the city receive prompt and especial attention. Just read the advertisement and be convinced that they make the best offers of any one yet.

On next Sunday communion service will be held at the Presbyterian church. Preparatory services on Friday night and Saturday morning at usual hours. There will be no preaching in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Maj. Pendleton and wife left for Knoxville, Tenn., last Friday night on a short visit.

Married—On the 7th of Oct., 1886, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. J. Paxton and Miss Mary V. I. Kegly, both of Smyth county, Va., Rev. I. P. Hawkins officiating.

Married—On the 7th of Oct., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jno. V. Musser and Miss Adeline Goodpasture, both of Smyth county, Va., Rev. Jno. M. Scott officiating.

Aunt Bettie Burrows (col), wife of Creed Burrows, who was killed in the Pocatou mine disaster some time ago, died last week and was buried in the Roundhill cemetery.

Mr. J. M. Rice, formerly of this place, now a resident of Tennessee, was in town Tuesday visiting his daughter Mrs. Maggie Williams.

Capt. Jno. M. Dickey, of Grayson county, in company with Mr. Wm. A. Wolfe, paid us a pleasant call last Friday. Capt. Dickey was visiting his son-in-law, Mr. A. M. Dickenson.

A number of wild turkeys have been seen; so it is presumed that our sportingmen will have lots of fun this season.

Any of our readers wanting an instrument that did not get to Lynchburg's big Centennial, should write J. D. Hobbie at once and while he has his large stock of Pianos and Organs on hand. You will certainly get a bargain by so doing and save yourself money.

The one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollar band of trained elephant musicians of Frank A. Robbins' is well worth the price of admission.

Hon. Henry Bowen will be here Monday and will be pleased to meet with all the people. Call and see him for he will go to Washington about the 1st of December and will not return till Congress adjourns.

Joseph Cohn, the leading clothier of Lynchburg, has up a new ad. this week. He makes splendid offers and sells only the best of goods.

Briefs and Personals.

Mr. Ed. Jones, of Abingdon was in town Monday.

Miss McCollum, of Philadelphia is in town visiting her sister, Mrs. E. N. Sprinkle.

Mr. A. M. Dickenson is improving every day and is out of any immediate danger. We hope to see him out soon.

Miss Edith Clobber, who has been visiting in our city for some time past, left for her home in Lynchburg on Monday.

Mr. Sam. Jones and lady returned from Glade Spring Monday, after a short visit.

A number of new show papers have been put up and they are much better than the first ones.

Only a few persons from our town have gone to the Lynchburg Centennial. The scarcity of money explains it.

"For I am declined into the vale of years," she said a little sadly, "but indeed I don't much mind it since I can get Salvation Oil for 25 cents.

Dr. Leith left Sunday night for Knoxville to attend the Holston Methodist Conference that convenes there on the 28th inst. 'Tis said he will take onto himself a better half within a week or so.

The farmers are suffering very much for rain. Many people of the town are hauling water and the streets are very dusty.

WANTED—On subscription at this office, four or five bushels of nice Irish potatoes and fifty head of cabbage.

The public have never seen an exhibition of such magnitude and so perfect in detail as the Frank A. Robbins' New Show. Will exhibit at MARION, MONDAY, OCTOBER 18th.

Another lunatic was brought to jail last week from Rye Valley. This makes three now in our county jail and it is thought they will have to be kept there until the asylum is finished, as the eastern asylums have all that can be taken care of.

One of Mr. Geo. Short's little girls fell through the railroad bridge at Mr. Carmel last Friday. She was returning from school and while running over the eastern bridge stumbled and fell through on the rocks about thirty feet. She was soon picked up and medical aid summoned, but it was found that she was not seriously hurt, only scratched a little. It seems that a special Providence watches over children.

Our old dilapidated sprinkler was lying on the floor with the bottom and spout completely gone. The old stove, Ed. Wole, of the firm of Britton & Pruner, had the politeness to carry the old thing to the shop and have a new spout and bottom put in it. Ed. you're a daisy and we intend saying a good word for you out at—you know.

N. L. Lark had the misfortune to lose a very fine saddle horse on Friday night. The horse was put in the stable at night, and by some means slipped the halter, and in walking around he cut himself on the cutting knife and bled to death. Nothing was known of it till next morning, when the horse was found dead.

Miss Okey Sprinkle has just returned from her trip north and is now receiving the largest and most carefully selected stock of goods ever seen in Marion. They have all the latest patterns in ladies fine dress goods, a splendid line of ladies fine shoes, fall and winter hats elegant trimmings, ribbons, etc. Have also collars, cuffs, hambrg, &c., &c. Ladies make this their headquarters as they are waited on exclusively by ladies. Also have best brands of chewing tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, ties, scarfs etc., etc. Have the purest and best candies, citron, spices &c. Your patronage is solicited.

My Books are closed, I cannot sell any more goods on credit. I am compelled to resort to this measure, and believe to be to the best interest to those concerned. S. C. Painter.

A LARGE stock of men and boys straw, fur and wool hats at S. C. Painter's.

S. C. Painter is selling goods cheaper than ever.

Mr. G. D. Thomas gave two entertainments in our town this week. He is indeed, as advertised, a musical phenomenon. He plays with perfect ease on six instruments at the same time, namely, two guitars, violin, harp, bells and violoncello. The best musicians of our town went to hear him and were greatly surprised that he could perform on six instruments and keep perfect time. The effect was the same as if six persons were playing, each one master of the instrument in hand. Mr. Thomas also possesses a rich tenor voice and delighted his audience with several solos, playing, an accompaniment on two or three instruments.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS!

A great many of you have been approached lately and have been politely asked to pay your long-standing accounts, yet it seemed to have no effect. Now a Printing Office can't be run on wind and water and we must have the money. If you have paid bring up your receipts. A number of the accounts are nearly out of date and if not paid soon we shall give them to an officer for collection.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT.

The Home Comfort Range.

We call attention to the advertisement of this splendid cooking apparatus. They have been recently introduced into our country and are being bought by a great many of our citizens. We have seen practical tests made of their qualities and can from personal experience commend them to our readers. The "Home Comfort Range" is all that it is claimed to be. If you see it you want it, and if you want it, you will not do without it.

Delinquents, Take Notice!

On the first day of December, county court, 1886, at the front door of the court house of Smyth county, I will offer for sale all the real estate belonging to delinquent tax payers, and delinquent for the years 1884 and 1885. A description of such real estate can be seen in the county court clerk's office.

An Early Winter Predicted.

It is predicted that we will have an unusually early winter, because migratory birds are leaving for a warmer latitude fully one month earlier than ever known before. Blackbirds formed themselves into flocks over five weeks ago, and took their leave for a warmer clime. Robins that fed their young in their nests on the 3rd of August, on the 4th threw them out of their nests, dead, and left for the south. Wrens fed their young on the 3rd of August and sang their songs, and on the 4th made ready to migrate, and after the 5th not a bird was to be seen. It appears there is an instinct given to migratory birds that when cold weather approached they know the proper period to leave their breeding places for a warmer clime.

Buy the Best.

Horace Waters & Co.'s improved new scale Upright and Square Grand Pianos justly occupy the front rank among the celebrated pianos of America. They combine in an exceptional degree that sweetness and power of tone, great solidity of construction, and tasteful and elegant appearance, which always distinguish the best makes of pianos. Any one contemplating the purchase of a piano would consult their own interests by writing to Messrs. Horace Waters & Co., 124 Fifth Avenue, New York, for catalogues and terms. Their prices are extremely low for first-class pianos, and they sell them in all parts of the country on payments of $10 per month, when desired. Waters' Parlor and Chapel Organs have attained the same high grade of excellence as their pianos, and are offered on payments of only $5 per month. Your attention is called to their advt., in another column.

A Sensible Family.

A family named Johnson living in Washington county, were all taken down with flux in a very aggravated form. Having seen a notice in one of the country papers, in regard to Dr. Lytle's Elixir, the medicine was at once sent for, and although the delay in procuring it came near proving fatal in two of the cases, yet a faithful use of this well known remedy resulted in the speedy control of the disease and restoration to health of every member of the family. At a time when flux and other bowel troubles are so prevalent Lytle's Elixir ought to be kept ready for use.

VOTE for Bowen and the Blair Bill.

The Amherst "New Era," in closing an article on the debt question in Virginia, has the following plain remarks:

Things cannot stay as they are and if the Legislature in this winter's called session takes no practical steps toward a just settlement, it will become the duty of every conscientious tax-payer to force them to a proper course by determining to use coupons in payment of his taxes. The old policy of delay which originally gave occasion for trouble about the debt by allowing the over due interest to accumulate seems now to have become well established again. If the democratic party expects to remain in power it should awake to the perilous nature of its present position. A dependence on the tax payers continuing to abstain from the use of coupons in paying their taxes is a dependence on the frailest straw. Self interest will move some, sympathy with the harassed creditor will move others, but certainly the coupons now over due, will, within the year, be sensibly felt by the State Treasury.

VOTE for Bowen and good times.

NOTICE!

All persons owing past due taxes are hereby notified that if payment is not made at or before October court, I shall instruct my collectors to levy and sell at once for same. Claims are pressing for payment and I can't possibly indulge you longer.

Respectfully &c., JNO. W. RICHARDSON, Co. Treas.

Notice!

After the 1st day of July, I will POSITIVELY sell no good on credit. I will be glad to see my friends and will sell them goods at rock bottom prices, for pay down. I do this from the fact that I believe it to be to the best interest of all concerned.

Respectfully, S. C. PAINTER.

All the departments of Frank A. Robbins' New Show are of a strictly moral character—the aim of its projector being to combine healthful amusement with wholesome instruction; innocent enjoyment with food for mental study. In it will be found everything that will delight, astonish, please or instruct, and nothing will be allowed that would in any way offend, disgust or shock the most fastidious person. Will exhibit at MARION, MONDAY, OCTOBER 18th.

GOOD READING.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

A Candidate for Congress Who Stands on Two Platforms.

THE NINTH VIRGINIA.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

A friend in the Ninth Virginia district sends us a printed copy of the resolutions adopted by the Democratic Convention at Wytheville, and he asks in what it departs from the principles and purposes of the Democratic party.

The first resolution "recognizes the necessity for such revision of the tariff as may be necessary to correct its inequalities," which is well enough, but at once it adds "yet we are opposed to any reduction in the rates of duty upon foreign imports that will injuriously affect our own industries or tend to a reduction in the price of labor, and especially are we opposed to putting raw materials on the free list."

A revision of the tariff which will correct its inequalities must begin by adding to the free list those raw materials which lie at the basis of our great industries, such as iron ore, pig iron, coal, lumber, salt and dye-stuff.

The second resolution declares that "we are earnestly in favor of repealing the entire system of the internal revenue laws." This in direct conflict with the Chicago platform.

The third resolution declares it to be "both the right and duty of the General Government to aid in educating its citizens, and we are therefore in favor of the Blair bill." This is again in open conflict with the Chicago platform.

The fourth resolution favors the continued coinage of silver, which is in accord with the party, and the fifth insists that the "surplus" shall be applied to the reduction of the debt.

Robbins' Monster Show.

This establishment, which, by the way, will be the only show of the kind this year, will exhibit at Marion, Monday Oct. 18th. Mr. Robbins has the reputation of having one of the best shows now traveling, and has received the endorsement of the local press wherever he has exhibited.

"Frank A. Robbins' circus drew a large crowd to town last Saturday, and the result was two good sized audiences within the tent. The parade was creditable and was witnessed by thousands. There was a large crowd at the afternoon performance, and a still larger audience present in the evening. The ring performance was one of the cleanest and best. Mr. Robbins has got together a good show, in every way worthy of liberal patronage. His herd of performing elephants alone is worth double the price of admission. They are wonderfully intelligent and executed military movements with great precision and promptness. The riding was better than the average, the tumbling as good as seen in any show, and the special features very attractive. Mr. Robbins is justly entitled to praise for his splendid entertainment, and all hope to see him this way again another season.—Rochester Courier, June 25, '86.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desiring to testify to its virtues. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup and every affection of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Trial Bottles free at Jno. S. Penbleton's Drug Store. Large Size."

Republican Platform.

Adopted by the Marion Convention

We, the representatives of the Republican party of the 9th Congressional district of Virginia, reaffirm our devotion to the great fundamental principles of the National Republican party, and especially do we favor the following:

- 1st. A tariff that will protect American labor and industries. 2nd. The passage by Congress of the Blair Educational bill, that was twice passed by the Republican Senate and was twice defeated in a Democratic House. 3rd. The speedy repeal of the Internal Revenue laws. 4th. We endorse the financial policy of the National Republican party. 5th. The maintenance of the Biddle-berger settlement of the State debt; and an effort to procure the good will and services of the U. S. government in its consummation and aid in its payment. 6th. We oppose the importation of pauper labor.

Interesting to Ladies.

Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the "sewing machine."

As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet first of all these requirements: It should be simple in its mechanism; it should run easily; it should do a wide range of work; it should be as nearly noiseless as possible; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light Running New Home" certainly meets. It has also several very important and useful attachments and "notions" of its own.

The "New Home" especially recommends itself to purchasers on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management and reasonable price. Over half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. This unrivalled machine is manufactured by the New Home Sewing Machine Co., Orange, Mass., and 30 Union Square New York.

Miraculous Escape.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co. Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it. Free Trial Bottles at J. S. Penbleton's Drug Store."
