GROWING STRONGER DAILY.

REPUBLICANS HOLD LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETINGS AT MARION AND SALTVILLE

Last Monday was a red letter day for the Smyth County Republicans. The clouds were heavy and rain coming down but when the hour for speaking 1 o'clock came the court house auditorium was filled to overflowing.

The meeting was presided over by County Chairman R. A. Anderson, who presented the first speaker, the Hon. Barnes Gillespie, of Tazewell. For nearly one hour Mr. Gillespie delivered a most telling and effective address. He is a most forceful speaker and his earnest and convincing way in presenting facts carried conviction to his hearers. His speech was received with much enthusiasm. The next speaker was Mrs. Catherine Dickinson Mellon. Few political addresses have ever been delivered before a Smyth County audience which carried more good reason and logic. Mrs. Mellon has a most charming personality and is one of the most effective lady platform speakers in the country. She is a native of Russell County and knows the needs of the people in the Ninth District. Her address was interrupted by frequent bursts of applause. These speakers were followed by Hon. C. Henry Harmon, Republican candidate for Congress, who made a short address, stating that he was not a public speaker, but that he stood on the republican platform and was a strong believer in the policies and principles of the party. The reception given Mr. Harmon was nothing less than an ovation.

SALTVILLE

On Tuesday night Mr. Harmon, accompanied by Col. Jennings Wise, Mrs. Mellon and Col. J. O. Browning addressed, what was perhaps the largest political audience ever assembled at Saltville, the large public hall was crowded and listened with earnest attention to all the addresses for 2 hour and 30 minutes. This fine meeting stirred the Saltville Republicans to high pitch of enthusiasm. Quite a number of democrats heard the speakers at both Marion and Saltville. These meetings showed the political trend in old Smyth and are sure forecasts of an old time republican majority in the county. The Marion Band, under the leadership of Mr. Leito, furnished splendid music for these meetings. At Saltville they had more than 20 pieces and pleased the great audience very much. A Coolidge and Harmon victory is sure in Smyth County.

DEMOCRATIC "SLUSH FUND" FOR 9TH DISTRICT

Democrats all over Virginia are piling money into the Ninth District for the purpose of trying to destroy the Republican party therein.

Hon. H. F. Byrd, State Chairman of the Democratic party of Virginia is sending out a letter over the state, under date of October 15, 1924, to men of means in which he states: "I have just returned from Richmond, where I had a conference with Chairman Combs of the Ninth District and Dr. Williams (brother-in-law of the Democratic candidate) Chairman of the finance committee. If Peery is elected the backbone of the Republican party in Virginia will be broken. From my own personal knowledge, I know that the democrats of the Ninth are contributing liberally and are not asking the Democrats elsewhere in Virginia to do what they themselves are not doing in larger measure."

Is there no hope that Democrats over the entire state of Virginia will ever cease pouring money into the Ninth District in every Congressional election?

NOT A WORD FOR LABOR

Two years ago Mr. Peery pretended to be the friend of labor. In his speeches this year he is saying practically nothing in behalf of the workingman. There is good reason for his silence on this subject. He knows that every man in the Ninth Congressional District who is able and willing to work has or can get a job. And he knows the farm laborer, the common day laborer, and the skilled laborer is receiving better wages than he has ever gotten in times of peace. So, Mr. Peery is not saying anything in behalf of the wage-earner. On the contrary, he is advocating a tariff policy that would put millions of men and women out of employment and greatly reduce the wages of those who still held jobs.

When Governor Stuart is talking to his fellow farmers from a business standpoint he advocates a protective tariff on cattle and farm products; when he is talking to the dear folks as a politician he speaks in criticism of the tariff. The difference is between Stuart the statesman and Stuart the partizan politician.

Dollar and half wheat, dollar and half corn sounds good to the farmers in time of peace, but these prices worry the democratic campaign speaker and even cause their democratic auditors to give them the laugh.

The Marion Democrat says your cattle are protected by a high tariff. Has it raised their price? Yes the difference is just 2 cents per pound or $30.00 on a 1500 pound steer. The effect of the war gave you high priced cattle, high priced wheat and high priced farm products generally, just like it gave you 30 cent sugar and high prices for everything you had to buy. War conditions and no laws the democrats passed effected prices during that period.

Will Speak at the Court House.

Grand Republican Rally to be Held on Saturday Night.

Hon. P. J. Davenport, of Abingdon, and Hon. A. T. Lincoln, of Marion, will speak at the Court House, Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Davenport is clerk of the court of Washington County and one of the best campaign speakers in the 9th District. He is forceful, eloquent and convincing. Mr. Lincoln is our own popular townsman, a man of large business affairs interested in industrial plants which are Smyth County's greatest asset. He is keenly interested in the welfare of this county and wants to keep business going. Come out and hear these splendid citizens discuss the issues and talk business. We want all the ladies as well as the men to come.

McADOO MORGAN'S VICTIM.

No one can dispute the fact that William G. McAdoo was the victim of J. P. Morgan at the New York Convention. Morgan was resolved to defeat McAdoo, actuated by personal dislike, and because McAdoo was the choice of the labor vote.

The prince of Wall Street organized a conspiracy to effect his purposes. He first used Al Smith as a pawn. Smith's followers openly stated that they did not expect him to get the nomination, and that their chief purpose was to defeat McAdoo. To effect this they held their forces together until the McAdoo contingent was worn out physically and financially.

The favorite son plan was associated with the Al Smith movement; and in this scheme none played a more effective part than the Virginia delegation, with Carter Glass as the favorite son. Mr. Glass had gone to the convention as the pretended friend of McAdoo. He sent one of his managers to McAdoo's headquarters, and tried to get a promise that if McAdoo was forced to withdraw from the contest his supporters would rally to Glass. McAdoo's managers refused to give such a promise. From that time until McAdoo was forced to retire as a candidate the Virginia delegation, on every ballot, voted solidly for their favorite son, Carter Glass. Thus contributing to the success of the Wall Street Scheme. Mr. Byrd, Chairman of the Democratic party in Virginia, has boasted that he and his Virginia delegation played an important part in securing the defeat of McAdoo.

George C. Peery was one of the Virginia delegation. It is known that while the convention was in session scores of telegrams and letters were sent to Mr. Peery imploring him to support McAdoo. Mr. Peery not only made no response to the messages and letters, but continued to vote on every ballot for Carter Glass, when he knew that Glass had no possible chance to get the nomination, and that the effect of his action would bring about the defeat of McAdoo. Now Mr. Peery is appealing to the friends and supporters of McAdoo to vote for him.

What a pity that Liberty Bonds have gone from 85 cents under Wilson to $1.02 under Coolidge! What a pity that the four or five million laboring man who had lost their jobs under the last year of Wilson rule have all gone back to work at high wages. These two circumstances alone have deprived many democrats orators of texts for eloquent broad casting speeches.

The Marion Democrat always talks too much. In its effort to prejudice some voter against Harmon because he is part owner in a coal operation don't know or don't want to tell that Geo. C. Peery is interested and also part owner in the same company with Harmon. Such bosh! The fact that Harmon, the farmer, and Peery the lawyer both own interests in coal companies should disqualify them for Congress.

Hear Davenport and Lincoln at the grand republican rally in Marion Saturday night. Good music by Marion's Junior Band. It will be an off night for the laboring people. All are invited to come and to bring their wives and daughters with them.

Come to the Republican Speaking at Marion Saturday night Nov. 1st at 7:30 o'clock.

HOW TO MARK BALLOT

Be careful how you mark your ballot. Mark out all the candidates for President and Vice President except the names of Calvin Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes. Don't mark out the lines for President and Vice President nor the names of the electors. Mark out the names of Carter Glass under the Caption for United States Senate and leave the name of W. N. Doak. Under the Caption for Congress, mark out the name of George C. Peery and leave the name of C. Henry Harmon unscratched. Follow these instructions and your ballot will count for Coolidge, Dawes, Doak and Harmon.

All voters who registered since January 1st 1904 and all women who vote will be required under the law to mark their own ballots. The Judges of election are not allowed to enter the booth with any of these voters, unless blind or physically unable, to mark their own ballots. Leaving your glasses at home is no excuse for the Judge to assist you. So says the Attorney General of Virginia.

If Lou Summers had sulked in his tent after his withdrawal from the congressional race the democrats, and especially the democratic press, would have said he was a martyr. But Lou didn't sulk and now because he is active in the campaign and calling on all of his friends to support Henry Harmon they are knocking and trying to belittle his influence.

Don't trade or swap off Henry Harmon, democrats will promise to vote for Coolidge, La Follette or any of the candidates in order to get a vote for Peery. Make no mistake but see that your ballot counts for Harmon.

How did George Peery vote on the child labor amendment? He don't say in his keynote speech. Did he dodge this important issue? Come out and tell us Mr. Peery. The Ninth District won't want a dodger in Congress.

The fight in the Ninth District will not be made for Davis nor against Coolidge but for Peery and against Harmon. Peery has been criticising Coolidge all over the District in all his speeches. This being the case how would a ballot for Coolidge and Peery sound? They don't belong together, make it Coolidge and Harmon.

Prosperity has been general all over the country for the past two years. Labor is fully employed at good wages. The volume of business has been large. Conditions are getting better both at home and abroad. Do you want to turn back and wreck the country again, bring chaos and another era of hard times and unemployment? If so vote for Davis and Bryan. The hope of the people is Coolidge, Dawes and Harmon.

The democrats of the north are afraid of Bryan and the democrats of the west are afraid of Davis. As between the two dangers thousands of the more conservative will support Coolidge and Dawes Safety First.

Democrat speakers, and chief among is Geo. C. Peery, are going over the 9th District and grossly misrepresenting the Fordney McCumber Tariff law, saying that taxes the farmers and costing them millions of dollars on what they have to buy. To show the fallacy of their statements we publish a list of farm supplies which under the present tariff law come in free of duty.

"Plows, tooth or disk harrows, harvester, reapers, drills, mowers, horse rakes, cultivators, threshing machines, cotton gins, wagons, carts and all other agricultural implements."

All animals imported for breeding purposes—binding twine, fertilizers including potash, nitrate of potash, sodium nitrate, gasoline, benzine, kerosene and petroleum.

Leather, harness, saddles and also pads for horses. Boots and shoes are also free of duty. The fact is the bill discriminates in favor of the farmer and gives him more protection than any other class. His condition may not be ideal in all respects, but it is 100 per cent better that it would be under a tariff for revenue or Free Trade law such as the Democrats would give them.

There is no tariff duty on leather or boots and shoes. If your merchant, says its the tariff that causes the high price he is either ignorant or is making a wilful misrepresentation of the facts.

Go to the polls early and vote for Coolidge, Dawes and Harmon.

When the Republicans went into power in 1921 between 3 and 4 million of laboring men were without employment. Liberty Bonds were selling at 85 cents on the dollar. To-day everybody that wants a job can get one. Liberty Bonds are selling above par. Don't you think this will count? It will influence thousands of votes where the noise from the tea pot shouters will sway but few.

Calvin Coolidge preaches common sense and economy in government. Davis is shouting "privilege and corruption." The masses of the people are keeping cool with Coolidge and without excitement and much noise will elect him President on next Tuesday. Mark this prediction.

Red Cross Invites All Into Neutral Army of Service

There are 3,039 counties in the United States and more than 3,500 Chapters of the American Red Cross. The Chapter is the local unit of the national organization, formed to carry out the program, services and policies of the Red Cross. The industry of these 3,500 local units is a voluntary and steady outpouring of well-doing and sympathy which softens human suffering and distress wherever it arises. This work is absolutely neutral, for the Red Cross knows no race, no creed, no color.

The strength of the American Red Cross being in its Chapters, the organization annually invites the people to join or renew their membership during a Roll Call which always begins on Armistice Day, November 11.

"It is this annual enlistment of millions of Americans under the banner of the American Red Cross which makes possible the continued work of this great and democratic legion of mercy," says Judge John Barton Payne, head of the national organization. "Membership in the Red Cross is a privilege within the reach of everyone. The need for service grows more insistent each year. To keep pace with the demands which come from every section of our country, we must have the people's loyal support. Our capacity for service in the year to come will be limited only by the extent to which we receive support for our work in the coming Roll Call."

The invitation of the American Red Cross is unlimited. The enrollment period, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, is everyone's opportunity to join.

RED CROSS IS URGING BETTER-HEALTH BATTLE

Tireless in Services Advancing Cause of Freedom from Human Suffering.

Not alone in preparedness for emergencies, but in a tireless offensive battle for better health is the American Red Cross nurse maintaining in peace time the high tradition of her war service. As in war, the same self-sacrificing service for humanity goes on its quiet, effective way content in its accomplishments, seeking no public acclaim. Enrolled in the Red Cross Nursing Service are 40,636 of these missionaries of health, nearly 1,000 carrying the message of a finer public health to as many communities and 1,100 teaching large classes in home hygiene and care of the sick. Exactly 100 Red Cross nurses are still on duty overseas, helping the struggle forward toward the high standard of American nurse efficiency in many countries.

In the Government services 3,117 enrolled Red Cross nurses are on duty with the Army, Navy, Public Health Service and the Veterans Bureau, while the entire active enrollment is maintained as a reserve for the Army Nurse Corps and available to the Navy in a national defense emergency. Nine hundred nurses were added to the roll the last year.

Red Cross nursing, however, has perhaps its finest expression out in the places laid waste by fire, flood and storm, and in the back reaches far from the centers of population. In every disaster the Red Cross nurse is first called for, first to respond, and the last to leave her post of duty among the suffering victims. In the isolated sections of Alaska, North Carolina, Virginia, Idaho, and among the bleak islands of Peabodyscott Bay, Me., her ministrations are making hard lives easier and working for a brighter future for the children. Her part in the human drama of the time is increasingly important, although it is subdued by the very nature of her work.

The policy of the American Red Cross to establish under Chapter control public health nursing services in communities lacking such facilities has been justified and this pioneering work is everywhere endorsed by authorities who are quick to take it over as a proper municipal function and a duty of taxpayers. The Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick program has further penetrated into the schools as a definite part of curriculum. During the year 29,000 school pupils took this Red Cross course. Three telephone corporations adopted it and graduated 950 employe students.

As good health depends upon right eating the Red Cross Nutrition Service continued to promote individual and community health, particularly the health of mothers and children. This service reached nearly 150,000 persons during the year and found work to do for several thousand Red Cross volunteer workers.

Red Cross Fighting First Aid Battle To Conserve Life

Reliable records establish the fact that more than 75,000 accidental deaths occur every year in the United States. The records show that 206 American citizens are killed every day; that 34 of these deaths are due to automobiles, 35 to falls, 19 to drownings, 16 to burns.

Facing such distressing sacrifice of life in the First Aid Service of the American Red Cross, fighting through education and demonstration to instill a consciousness of safety in the public mind and teaching approved methods which assure that competent hands will care for injured persons until the arrival of doctors. Trained service in the first few minutes is vital in serious accidents and saves many precious lives.

One of the most encouraging signs of the past year is the record of the Red Cross First Aid Insurance Car No. 1 which traveled 9,700 miles along trunk lines, stopping at 137 places. The car's staff of surgeons gave 511 demonstrations to audiences composed of 42,159 railroad men, 71,000 high school and college students, 13,000 industrial workers, 2,000 members of clubs, and nearly 18,000 policemen, firemen, and other municipal employes, a total of 147,000.

Red Cross First Aid certificates were conferred upon 12,865 persons who took the course last year, an increase of 4,009 over 1923. Telephone, gas and electric companies, public service corporations and other large employers of the country adopted the Red Cross course, and their team contests everywhere were witnessed by huge crowds with as much interest as develops at popular athletic games.

In the industrial field the growth of First Aid practice to fight to reduce preventable accidents and unnecessary loss of life has received wide recognition. The promise of an unprecedented advance in this fine cause lies in the evidence of the great strides systematic instruction in First Aid has made throughout the country through the Red Cross Chapters and the work of the experts in service under direction of the national organization.

Sign the American Red Cross roll this year for humanity's sake.

A GOVERNMENT LOAN. Plenty of Money.

Farming is a business and must be conducted as such. Financing is the first essential. The Federal Land Bank was created by an Act of Congress in 1916, to supply this need for the farmer. Everyone knows that the farmer needs a long term loan in his business, also a plan by which he can gradually reduce his indebtedness and not worry about the renewal of his notes and mortgage. His experience proves to him the advantage of a co-operative system.

1. A low rate of interest. Five and one-half per cent.
2. Systematic reduction of the mortgage.
3. Long term with no renewals.
4. Farm can be sold and mortgage transferred to the purchaser.

5. The farmers receive the earnings of the Bank. (Last year The Federal Land Bank of Baltimore paid about $100,000 in dividends back to the County Associations.) Are you receiving any earnings on your present indebtedness?

If you are interested in further particulars, would advise that you come to see me. 300 other farmers of this county have taken advantage of this system. Why not you?

RED CROSS RAISES $10,000,000 IN 21 DAYS FOR RELIEF

Terrible catastrophes, such as the Japanese earthquake, prove the wisdom of the people in maintaining the American Red Cross as their national and international relief agency. The readiness of the Red Cross for duty in the greatest of emergencies was also proved by test.

The record shows: Sept. 3, President Coolidge assigns the duty of raising $5,000,000 to the American Red Cross; Sept. 4, Red Cross Chapters in over 3,500 communities given fund allotments; Sept. 12, fund totals $5,563,000; Sept. 17, fund nearly $8,000,000 and President announces formal closing of campaign; Sept. 27, fund passes $10,000,000 mark.

In 21 business days the Red Cross doubly performed the duty entrusted to it—all the while keeping a steady flow of relief supplies going out from many Pacific ports to the stricken areas in Japan. Thus was the confidence of the American people in their Red Cross justified and the wisdom of Red Cross preparedness to cope with an unprecedented relief emergency confirmed.

"My Children Just Love Liv-o-lax"

"For some time, I have been giving the children Liv-o-lax for the condition which I used to think called for calomel and castor oil," said a Charlotte mother.

"I think there is nothing more terrible than to have to give children those awful doses, which I wouldn't think of taking myself."

"Dr. Hand told me, in his drug store, how he worked up the formula of Liv-o-lax, just to do away with this unpleasant necessity, how Liv-o-lax, though a pleasant-tasting liquid remedy, acts on the liver in just the way required. Since I gave it one trial, I have been happy to have it in house, because the children just love to take it."

"And Liv-o-lax is an all-around family laxative. It is just as good for the grown-ups as it is for the children. Get Liv-o-lax at your drug store—30c. Just one trial will convince."

(Article Five.)

We left Los Angeles at 5:15 P. M. August 13th, from the Union Pacific Station on the Continental Limited of the U. P. No. 26. Our next stop-over is Yellow Stone Park. The distance from Los Angeles to Salt Lake City is 794 miles and from Salt Lake City to West Yellow Stone is 328 miles, so the entire distance from Los Angeles to Yellowstone Park via Salt Lake City is 1122 miles quite a long trip without a lay-over. The time required was from 5:15 P. M. August 13th to 7:30 A. M. August 15th, two nights and a day. We passed through a portion of Southern Calif., 58 miles south east of Los Angeles to Riverside, from this city we turned our faces north-east. We traveled 287 miles yet in the State of California before arriving at Nevada State line at a little place called Calada. We passed through first after leaving Los Angeles, the Oil District, next through the Walnut groves, the section of the State best adapted to Deciduous and Citrus fruits. At Pedley is the Santa Ana River, at Magnolia Ave., noted for its oranges, Riverside has the celebrated Mission Inn; then we arrive at Highgrove, then comes Colton which has noted cement works, then we arrive at San Bernardino a city of considerable importance.

We are now about 70 miles on our way and night has overtaken us and we are beginning our ascent of the Sierra Madre Mountain. The night is hot and dry and dusty and we are unable to sleep especially those of our party who have been used to a high altitude in the mountains of Southwest Virginia or western N. C. About 12 to 2 o'clock we pass through Death Valley divide and the region where the Joshua Trees grow.

In this region just after passing over the Cal. line into Nevada we come into a mining region, in fact Nevada is not very suitable for anything else in so far as my knowledge of the country extended.

At Las Vegas 334 miles from Los Angeles are located the L. A. and S. L. Shops. We reached this city about 4 A. M. We then come into the Las Vegas Valley and further on is the Old California trail.

Next we pass through a region known as Meadow Valley and Rainbow Canyon. It was no trouble to see that there was no valley and no difficulty at all to know that we were in a canyon.

We travel all day through one of the most barren and desolate countries it has ever been my knowledge to behold. This country dry and high is very similar to a portion of British Columbia heretofore described in Paper No. two except the surrounding mountains are not so elevated, but we ourselves in many places on these mountains are 5 and even 6000 feet above sea-level. We make two if not three ascents and descents in crossing the State of Nevada for instance at Moapo (Molon District) our altitude is only 1662 feet but 110 miles further on our way at Crestline we are 5992 altitude—4330 feet rise in 110 miles. Nearly all of this section is barren of trees and vegetation except a few oases in the desert that have been subject to running water. There are a good many little valleys and some rather wide that would blossom like the rose if these places could be subjected to moisture. We stopped once at a little station that had a few shade trees and a water tank for the R. R. and running water and I thought fresh clear water never looked quite so attractive. The R. R. Agent told us here that it was a great country for "moonshine" and that there was very little regard for the law especially the Volstead Act.

We had no desire to tarry long enough to test this gentleman's veracity, but felt like we could accept his word. At Nevada we pass out of Nevada in the State of Utah about 10 A. M. Utah has more agricultural sections along the route although the road runs through a high country all the way to Salt Lake City the altitude is from 46000 feet to 6000 feet even Salt Lake City itself is 4236 feet or twice altitude of Marion, Va. At Oasias we pass through an Alfalfa District and at Delta is a Sugar/Beet Factory.

At Tintic we are not far from the silver mining district and farther on for the next 65 or 70 miles we are crossing the Wasatch Mountains, next we come to the Ophir Mines, then at Warner are the International Smelter Works. At Garfield we see the Copper smelter, then we are passing through Salt Lake City and on our way to the Great Yellowstone National Park. We reserve the notes on Salt Lake City until our return from the Park.

We reached West Yellowstone, a little before August 15th, at 7:30 A. M. We had breakfast in the U. P. immediately after our arrival. It was the only place we were served real brook-trout, on our entire route. These were six-inch trout and tasted just like hose did back in N. C., that I had eaten 45 years ago. Well, everybody was excited to get started on our trip through the Park. Several days prior our party had divided up into smaller parties or groups of eleven persons in a group for traveling through the Park in Auto-Busses, each bus seating eleven persons. The entire party requiring 9 auto busses. We were met at the entrance gate by these busses, driver by young men some of whom were college students, earning something on expenses for their next year work.

Yellowstone National Park is the largest and probably the most famous of our National Parks. The variety of its geysers and their power to throw water and steam has no equal. I believe it is considered second in historical ranks as a park. It was created by Congress in 1872. It is a part of Idaho and Montana, but made up mostly of north western Wyoming. It is about 62 miles by 54 miles and has an area of 33348 square miles or nearly three times the size of Rhode Island. It is a broad volcanic plateau and has an average elevation of 8000 feet and is for the most part surrounded by mountain ranges 2000 to 4000 feet higher.

The Geysers of the Park make it probably the most wonder land to be found on earth to-day. They are said to be more extensive and in greater number than in Iceland or New Zealand or elsewhere in the U. S. While there is no sign of life to-day about the ancient volcanoes yet the earth hisses from thousand vents stretching from the subterranean fires underneath. Great fountains of steam and water soar into the air at irregular intervals, a few however, have an exact time to erupt, Old Faithful for example.

John Colter, a member of the Lewis and Clark expedition, an expedition of historical interest and of record, as the first white man to set foot in this wonder land. He was wounded by Blackfeet Indians in a battle between them and the Crow Indians in 1807. He journeyed across the park and carried the first accounts to civilization. So far as we know no other white man visited this section till in 1829 when Jim Bridger a famous guide and J. L. Meek a trapper and pioneer, W. A. Farris of the American Fur Co., visited the park in 1839 and wrote the first account of the Geysers. Really the place was hardly known until 1869 several years after the close of the Civil War before anything was disclosed and this was due to the explorations of Folsom, Cook and Peterson. The Yellowstone Lake in this Park has an area of 139 square miles. This Lake is nearly 8000 feet altitude. There is only one other lake in the world that has a greater altitude for its size and I think that is somewhere in Peru. This lake is about 100 miles in length and is shaped something like a hand. In our journey through the park we came first to the thumb, hence Thumb Lake.

We return now to the entrance. Our party of eleven consisted of Dr. Thomas my wife and I and eight beautiful young ladies, teachers and students from Rock Hill, S. C. From the entrance at West Yellowstone we drive through first the Christmas Tree Park, where the road crosses, it is about three miles wide. Here the government has constructed an excellent road of concrete. In fact the main highway all through the Park is an excellent road, a part of it is over heavy grades but the foundation of the road is good. This section of the park is made famous on account of the Rainbow and Loen Leven Trout that are caught here from the Madison River. We heard that it was not uncommon for an expert angler to land a six-pound rainbow trout in this vicinity. I did not witness such an event, but there was no shortage in the fisherman along Madison River I can assure you. On either side of the river were mountains Mt. Hayn's, rising several hundred feet on the southside and the National Park Mountains is situated at the junction of the Gibbon and Firehole rivers. Here we made a short stop that we might see the cascades of the Firehole river. The Firehole river owes the largest part of its waters to the immense amount of water from the geyser basins above. The water is yet warm at this time of the year coming from the geysers as it does, yet trout thrive in it.

Three and a half miles farther we come to the Fountain Ranger Station. The Lower Geyser basin to which we come now is rather a wide valley of thirty or forty square miles. In this valley Dr. Hayden in his official survey of the park has numbered 693 hot springs. The most noted of these however, are the Fountain and Great Fountain Geysers, the Mammoth Paint Pots, Firehole Lake and others. Time will not permit a description of many of these wonderful geysers even if I were equal to the task.

The Mammoth Paint Pots 40 x 60 feet is a most wonderful mass of white Carbonate or fine "white-ish" mud in a state of constant ebullition. It has around it a rim four or five feet in height. Next we come to the Old Faithful Inn, (altitude 7394 feet) said to be the most extensive log building made. It has every convenience and luxury of a modern hotel. Even the partition between the rooms are made of split logs as well as the ceilings.

Many of the braces or supports on the inside have large knots on them just as they came from the forest others have crooked places on its opposite support has a similar crook, an effort has been made throughout the building to make the parts harmonize. In the center of the building it rises eight stories. On the top are half dozen flag staffs from which float our flag with others from other nations. There is also a powerful search light by which may be seen the illumination of Old Faithful Geyser, only 2 or 300 yards away. This Hotel was first opened to the public in 1904 Old Faithful Geyser justly referred to erupts every 65 to 70 minutes with rarely a variation day and night summer and winter gives its exposition. Because of its regularity with its eruptions it is the most popular geyser in the park. Its eruptions begin with a few spasmodic spurts during this time considerable water is thrown out, then follows a column of hot water two feet or more in diameter and is thrown upward 135 to 150 feet. Just beyond the Old Faithful Inn is a group of pines, to the right of the road, and south of the Geyser is located, Old Faithful Ranger Station. The Public Automobile Camp is in the forest just behind this Station. Passing through the Automobile Camp and out to the edge of the forest where there is a dense growth of timber and underbrush we come to the feeding ground for the bears. We spent the night at Old Faithful Inn and after dinner we walked out to get a look at the bears. Here was an audience of 100 people or more on the same mission. After waiting until our patience was almost exhausted, we were rewarded by seeing two large brown bears and four black come out of the woods to eat the remains of the Hotel dinner which is carried out to this point and deposited on the ground for the express purpose of "feeding the bears." Everyone present was supposed to keep very quiet, for fear the bears would run away, but they were tame and ate until they were satisfied with little or no fear. There were two half grown cubs, that persisted in running back to the woods every now and then, and one of them would try his skill at climbing a tree, but failed to show us a respectable effort at climbing. I think it was due to the fact that he was overfed. After a night at Old Faithful Inn, which is nearly two thousand feet higher than the highest point of Mt. Mitchell in N. C. and after a splendid breakfast in the dining room, we were ready to continue our journey in our White Auto Busses, painted yellow. It was about 9 o'clock when we filed out of the hotel and boarded our car and passed up by Old Faithful Geyser. With a last long look at this great world wonder we were on our journey in the direction of West Thumb Lake. We had spent more than half a day looking over the greatest of Geyser valleys the day before and a night of dancing and music at the Hotel, in which some of our heavy weights engaged very creditably however, considering their adipose tissue. From the upper Basin, as this part of the park is called, to Yellowstone Lake the road leads up the Firestone river in the direction of the Kepler Cascade about two miles off the main road. Eight miles from our starting point is Norris Pass through which a trail leads leads to Shoshone Lake. Isa Lake is our next point and this is the Continental Pass. The waters divide here a part going to the Atlantic and another to the Pacific Oceans.

The Continental Divide altitude is 8240 feet. The Continental Divide extends through the Yellowstone from near the western entrance and passes through to the southern border and the waters of the park are separated a part flowing to Yellowstone Lake and that going west to form the Snake River. Next we come to Shoshone Point from which we see Shoshone Lake several miles away and in the distance we could see the Teton Mountains 50 miles away. Beyond this point we again cross the Continental Divide and now we are 8345 feet altitude. Shoshone Lake has an irregular boundary and is 19 miles square. It can be reached by trail only. The Teton Mountains are the boundary line between Wyoming and Idaho. As we were traveling now near Thumb Lake we stopped by the road side to feed a large black bear candy. He seemed very fond of candy and had the faculty of picking it up off the ground in a jiffy.

He was soon tired of this so he stood on his hind feet and placed his front feet on the running board of the car and took his candy from the hands of some of our party. He was fat and sleek and about as docile as a pet dog. I am telling you some wonderful bear tales, but I am able to substantiate all I have said, I mean, of course, about the bears.

At Lake View, a mile from West Thumb Lake we get our first view of the Yellowstone Lake. I want to adopt the language of C. W. Cook and David E. Folsome in my description of this body of water; "As we were about departing on our homeward trip (this was in 1869) we ascended the summit of a neighboring hill and took a final look at Yellowstone Lake."

"Nestled among the forest-crowned hills, which bounded our vision lay this inland sea, its crystal waves dancing and sparkling in the sunlight as if laughing with joy for their wild freedom. It is a scene of transcendent beauty which has been viewed by few white men, and we felt glad to have looked upon it before its primeval solitude should be broken by the crowds of pleasure seekers, which at no distant day will throng its shores."

At West Thumb Lake is the Thumb Ranger Station. Here also is one of the Hamilton Stores, where they sell supplies, souvenirs, pictures at what appeared to be about a 200 per cent profit. West Thumb Public Camp Grounds are near by also.

Some of our party went down the Lake at this point, here was a fisherman trying to catch trout from the Lake and close by the shore of the lake was a hot spring in which the trout coming from the clear cold water might be cooked. On our journey we traveled down the shores of lake in a northeasterly direction we cross the National Bridge about three miles from Lake Hotel. Lake Hotel is of Colonial architecture and is another of the four hotels operated by the Yellowstone Hotel Co., in the park. This beautiful hotel fronts the lake and is wonderfully located. In 1923 an addition has been added making it a fair competitor with the other large hotels of the park. By the way before I forget it, these hotels are all crowded to capacity. It was our intention to remain overnight at the Canyon hotel 18 miles distant but were crowded out, and so had to return to the Lake hotel for lodging.

We had luncheon at the Lake Hotel. Soon after lunch we left for Grand Canyon. We followed Yellowstone Lake for a time then the Yellowstone River which is an outlet of the lake. We first stopped at the Mud Volcano, which is a funnel shaped crater about 30 feet deep mostly filled with a rather dark colored mud which is in constant agitation, then too we have here the Dragons Mouth Spring which throws out hot clear water at short intervals. The next point of interest is the Chittenden Bridge which crosses the Yellowstone River just above the falls to the Grand Canyon Camp and Artist Point. The Grand Canyon Camp is one of the largest in the park. Really it should be for this is certainly the most attractive place in the park. The Grand Canyon Camp is near the falls opened in 1911 at a cost of over three quarters of a million dollars. It accommodates six hundred guests.

From Artist Point we have a wonderful view of the lower Falls of the Yellowstone. The brink of the lower falls is reached by a 494 foot stairway on the north, but we descended to the very bottom of the falls from the south side. In many places were crude stair ways with steps made of cement and wooden and iron rails for support. Most of our party made this trip, a few of those who suffered from an excess of adipose tissue became exhausted and needed to services of the physicians of the party, but most of us did nobly and showed much endurance notwithstanding the descent is more than 1200 feet and nearly perpendicular at that. For a description of the Great Falls of the Yellowstone I am using a quotation as follows: "In sheer compelling beauty, no single spectacle in the Park approaches the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone with the Great Falls at its head. It is in fact as declared by Gen. Chittenden "acknowledged by all beholders to stand without parallel among the natural wonders of the globe." Color glowing color spreads over its castellated walls with measureless prodigality and infinite variety is its most striking feature."

The great prismatic gorge is 1200 feet deep and 2000 feet wide at the top and 200 feet wide at the bottom. ## JUNIOR AMERICAN RED CROSS ARMY 5,596,663

Children of 29,942 Schools Now Enrolled in Movement of Service to Humanity.

The American Junior Red Cross, which was organized as a children's auxiliary during war-times especially to help the young refugees in Europe, and to exemplify in peace-time the Red Cross ideal of service, has now a membership of 5,596,663 in the schools of the United States and the insular possessions.

This Junior movement gives opportunity for the children to share in Red Cross effort parallel to that of the parent organization. Juniors are therefore identified in varying degree with the health services, disaster relief work, salvage and other suitable activities of value to the operations of the Red Cross.

It is a valiant host marching on under its "I Serve" banner in the cause of happier childhood everywhere and particularly wherever the American flag flies. The enrollment embraces 29,942 schools and 147,488 school rooms, a gain over 1923 of 6,655 schools and 22,414 school rooms. The year's gain in membership was 769,402 children, or nearly 80,000 for each month of the school year.

The educational and social values of the Junior Red Cross movement is thus evidencing the firm and cordial endorsement of school authorities. The government has added the weight of recognition by extending the Junior Red Cross in the schools for American Indian children. The American Red Cross is also planning to develop the Junior program in 600 rural schools in isolated sections.

There is no abatement of the exchange of correspondence between schools in the United States and schools in the insular possessions, and foreign lands. During the year the Junior Red Cross in part supported operations in twelve European countries. It is a potent influence for the cultivation of international goodwill and its example has been the means of stimulating the formation of Junior Red Cross societies in more than thirty countries.

The newest "Standard Six" model is a Duplex-Phaeton, and represents something entirely new in motor car production—an open car convertible into a closed car and vice versa at open car cost. This without doubt, represents the world's greatest line of six cylinder automobiles. The name has been identified with the vehicle history of the country for 72 years and with the motor car industry for 22 years. In 1923 the people paid $201,000,000 for these famous "Sixes" and that amount will be exceeded in 1924. The builders have assets of nearly $100,000,000—one-half of which is invested in plant facilities. These cars are sold in Marion by a leading dealer who handles two other popular automobiles.

PROTECTS DEALERS AND CUSTOMERS ALIKE

The policy adopted by the manufacturers of one of the most popular lines of automobiles of making constant improvements in their motor vehicles with no yearly changes of models, is a protection to dealers and customers alike. Dealers' new and used cars of this make are not periodically depreciated in value by a change in body-type and the buyers will know that his car will remain modern as to style throughout the period of its usefulness. Improvements without radical annual changes in styles of body-types are made constantly, and owners are protected from the rapid depreciation loss which invariably attends the periodic announcement of new models. The builders thus effect a considerable saving which is invariably returned to the buyer in the form of surplus value. All body-types of this popular line of motor vehicles are built on one standard chassis, again reducing the cost of manufacture. It was the first line of motor vehicles to feature the all-steel body in closed and open car models.

Name this line of motor vehicles. Give price of 6-passenger standard touring model delivered. Name the local distributors and give name of manager.

LEADING GENERAL INSURANCE FIRM

Dealing in insurance that insures—the kind every investor wants to buy, and representing all the leading insurance companies of the country, Marion's leading insurance firm would be pleased to suggest that it is better to have insurance and not need it than to need it and not have it. This firm also advises that insurance is not one of those things you can put down on the slate to "see about tomorrow," for tomorrow may be too late. The insured home destroyed by fire can be rebuilt at once if proper and adequate insurance is carried. If the Goshen, Va. merchant had carried proper automobile insurance when his delivery truck crashed into an automobile filled with people, killed one and injuring others, he would not have lost his store, his home and his savings of a life time, and been left helplessly in debt through court decrees for damages. Every owner of an automobile should carry adequate automobile insurance with full coverage for liability, collision, damage, etc. Auto accidents are now every day occurrence with damage suits usually resulting. Auto owners should investigate the policies offered by the firm that insures anything insurable.

Name this firm, give location of offices, phone number, and name the largest insurance company in the world and the American Fire Insurance Company having the largest premium income for 1923 represented.

GREATEST DISCOVERY OF AGE

About thirty years ago, the greatest scientific discovery of the age was made—the science of healing and curing disease without the use of drugs or the surgeon's knife. Today there about 25,000 successful practitioners of this science. It has been definitely determined that almost every disease is due to derangement of the nervous system. Just so long as the nervous system functions properly the individual will enjoy good health. The nerves supplying vital energy to the bodily organs branch out from the spinal cord, emitting between the vertebrae of the spinal column. Let the vertebrae become even slightly dislocated and there is an impingement of the nerve. It may be the nerve supplying the heart, the stomach or the kidneys. The impinged nerve is like a hose with kink in it. The full force of vital energy is cut off from the organ which fails to function, and soon a diseased condition results. Through spinal adjustments with the bare hands the nerve pressure is relieved, and nature does the restoring. This is why this science "gets you well."

A PROGRESSIVE PROTECTIONIST

Henry C Stuart is considered by many persons the brainiest man the Democrats have in Virginia. Several years ago he made a visit to Argentina with the possible view of making investments in that great agricultural region. But the chief purpose of Mr. Stuart's visit to the Argentina Republic was to investigate the cattle industry of that country. He travelled over the west plains in the central and southern part of Argentina, and looked upon the great herds of cattle that were roaming over those pampas. A deep-seated conviction was formed in his mind that the cattle men of the United States, and especially the graziers of Southwest Virginia could not compete successfully with South America in the production of beef cattle. Upon his return to the United States, in the press and on the rostrum, he repeatedly announced his convictions.

In the month of September, 1921, Mr. Stuart delivered a very interesting address to the Smyth County Farmers Association, two miles west of Marion, a thousand or more persons being present. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Stuart said:

"Do you know what broke the cattle market in the United States this year? It was the importation of dressed beef from Argentina. Do you know what broke the lamb market in the United States this year? It was the importation of lambs from Australia. I tell you my farmer friends, we will have to get protection against the cheap products of Argentina, Canada, and Australia, or we will have to go out of business."

The conditions that have prevailed this year in the markets where the graziers of Southwest Virginia market their cattle completely verify the expressed convictions of Mr. Stuart. Dressed carcasses of beef are selling in Argentina at 3½ cents apound, and live cattle at less than 2 cents a pound. And Canadian cattle are now competing in the eastern markets with the cattle from Southwest Virginia.

The big packers at Chicago have gotten control of the meat products of Argentina, and they practically control the meat markets of the world. They have brought enough dressed and canned meats from Argentina to the eastern parts of the United States to practically ruin the prices for cattle raised in Southwest Virginia. Our graziers need protection.

The Fordney tariff put a duty of three cents a pound on dressed meats imported into the United States. It has been demonstrated that this duty is not high enough. If Henry Harmon is elected to Congress he will work to have the duty sufficiently increased to thoroughly protect the graziers of Southwest Virginia against foreign meat products. If you want the home markets for your cattle destroyed, vote for George C. Peery.

ENTERTAINED THE TEACHERS OF MARION PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The ladies of the Womans Club of Marion entertained the teachers of the Marion Public Schools at a reception given in the home of Mrs. O. C. Sprinkle Friday night. In addition to the Marion teachers, the teachers of Marion College were guests and assisted in the program which had been arranged by the program committee.

Mrs. B. E. Copenhagen had charge of the program and made a short talk as she introduced each of the performers and paid tribute to the teachers who are teaching here and to those who have been teaching for several years and gave a very cordial greeting to the new teachers. Her speeches were responded to with impromptu speeches by Mrs. C. A. Pruner, Principal of the Grammar School and Mr. L. M. Latane, Assistant-Principal of the High School. Miss Margaret Wassum one of Marion's talented musicians and a former student of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, gave a few selections on the violin being accompanied by the head of the piano department of Marion College.

Mrs. O. C. Sprinkle the hostess and also the members of the Marion Womans Club spared no pains to make the evening one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season for the teachers.

The house was beautifully decorated and at the close of the program the teachers were invited into the large dining room where they were bountifully supplied with attractive refreshments.

Though some of the members of the club were absent and several gentlemen who had been invited were in Norfolk attending the Kiwanis Convention, all present spent a most delightful evening.

SALTVILLE WINS THREE BIG GAMES

The Saltville High School Football team made its third successive winning last Saturday on the home field by handing a jolting set-back to the much heralded big eleven from Bristol Tennessee High School. It was the closest and most enthusiastic game staged here this season, and was witnessed by a big crowd. Though Duncan and Shipp of Saltville had received injuries from the Abingdon encounter of the week before, each played effectively, Duncan executing a touch-down and Shipp a goal, the latter being Saltville's margin of victory. Saltville out-played the Bristolians both offensively and defensively, securing fourteen first-downs on straight line plunges to only two for the visitors, and keeping the ball most of the time in Tennessee territory. High credit for Saltville success is due to Mr. Garrells, the coach. Bevis of high school girls and visiting rooters inspired the boys with resounding songs yells.

A big game, with the Marion High School eleven is to be played at Saltville on Saturday, Nov. 1, at 3:30.

50,000 IN LIFE-SAVING SERVICE OF RED CROSS

Additional 50,000 Water Safety Experts Probable Gain of Summer Campaign.

A boy watched an expert give a class a lesson in the way to revive a person unconscious from water immersion. The next day the boy tried it on a bathing companion and saved his life. Such a boy justifies all the effort and the cost of the Life-Saving Service. American Red Cross officials declare. The Red Cross method of restoring partly drowned persons is so simple that the continual large sacrifice of life must decrease as an informed public insists upon general instruction in prone pressure practice to induce respiration.

The Red Cross Life-Saving Service in every part of the country, summer and winter, is engaged in teaching this method as an integral part of swimming and life-saving. This service has grown from a single expert in 1914 to a corps of almost 50,000 active life-savers. In this tenth year of the work it is predicted that fully 50,000 more experts will be eligible for membership in the corps. This large accession in a single year is confidently expected as the result of the campaign among 22,000 troops of Boy Scouts under a plan to qualify at least two life-guards in each troop. During the past year 4,746 men, 3,374 women, 9,731 boys and girls successfully passed the rigid tests of the Red Cross—an increase of 5,331 over 1923. Intensive instruction is developing hundreds of qualified examiners for the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, who supplement the teaching staff maintained by the national organization. The cause of water safety is therefore penetrating to new sections and eventually will cover all American territory.

Recognition of this Red Cross service for humanity is growing apace. At the request of the War Department every military training camp had life-saving instruction last summer. Municipalities have adopted the Red Cross course, public and private schools are offering it to students, business, civic and athletic organizations are promoting campaigns, and police departments are making it a part of the conditioning process for their recruits.

Volunteer life-savers throughout the country, the American Red Cross reports, are eagerly advancing the cause of water safety, 388 volunteers receiving medals for giving from 200 to 300 hours' service in two or three years. In addition 36 rescue bars to medals were awarded members of the Red Cross Corps who saved one or more lives during the year.

It is for the work and extension of life-saving that continued support through memberships is sought, and the American Red Cross urges all persons to join or renew membership during the enrollment campaign opening Armistice Day, November 11.
