Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Marion woman who is having backaches, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Marion woman's experience: "Mrs. B. J. Keys, 25 Lee St., says: 'I had some trouble from kidney complaint. My back was weak and lame and ached a great deal. When arising in the morning, I felt miserable and often had headaches and dizzy spells. My kidneys didn't act as they should. I had heard about Doan's and how much good they had done for other people, so I got a box and began using them. They helped me from the first. My back gradually ceased aching and I didn't have those headaches; Doan's cured me.' Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Keys had. Ladies Speak To Kiwanians

The Marion Kiwanians have started the year off with a good deal of enthusiasm and with several new and important projects to work on for the year. The meeting held Tuesday night in Greer's dining rooms, was presided over by President B. E. Copenhaver and due to the fact that the program was filled with quite a number of entertainers, a great deal of the business of the Club was attended to while the members rested between courses. The food was especially well prepared under the direction of the new caterer employed by Mr. Greer, and was served in abundance.

President Copenhaver called for a report of the Committee, and the Public Affairs committee rendered a very interesting report touching the main projects they are now working upon.

A verbal report made was upon the selection of the camp site for the Chevy Chase girls on the property of Mr. H. P. Copenhaver and this selection has been accepted by the authorities of the school and it is expected that all arrangements will be completed in a very short while.

The Club also endorses the action of getting a nurse for the Public Health Department, and suggests that Dr. Baughman and Dr. Sherrill be appointed on a committee for selecting the time and place for a clinic and the members of the club will use their cars in transporting the cripple children to the clinic. The committee also outlined the plan for co-operating with the Woman's Club in arranging for the nurse, and sees the need for employing one at an early date. This committee will hold meetings regularly every month and it is expected that much will be accomplished through the efforts of this committee.

After the report of this committee was heard and accepted a motion was then made, discussed and approved fixing a standard charge for all meals served to the Kiwanians at their meetings. After the drawing of the attendance prize, given by Jim Shanklin, and received by Robert Goolsby, and the selection of the next victim, M. M. Seaver, the undertaker, to make the next award for attendance, the members were then highly entertained by those on the program who had been asked by R. G. Goolsby to render help. This was a most delightful program and after the eloquent introduction, so carefully prepared and presented, by the Chairman of the evening Kiwanian Goolsby, the following ladies were heard. Miss Cole, of the Davis Clinic, gave a short outline of her work in the Davis Clinic under the head of Therapeutics and vocational training, which is rapidly being placed in all hospitals as a means of restoring and rehabilitating ex-soldiers. She traced, very carefully the work as it has developed and the results gained, and showed how over one hundred ex-soldiers had been restored to public life and have been returned to public life. She explained fully the object of her work and presented some very interesting and instructive features.

Mrs. D. D. Staley, Kiwanian Dent Staley's boss, then sang two very pretty solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. R. G. Goolsby. Both of these ladies are very much interested in the success of members, or at least two of the members of the club, and grant them permission every Tuesday to leave home to attend the meeting. H. P. Gills furnished the silent bust of the evening so that every detail of the meeting might be complete. Mrs. George H. Miles then gave a very interesting talk upon the position of women in the civic affairs of Marion, and made a special plea for the support of the Club in improving school conditions in Marion, and relieving the congested condition of the schools. She also presented the importance of well equipped playgrounds, and urged that this be provided for each school. Miss Cole then entertained with a very interesting reading on the subject of Jonah, and gave a pantomime showing how Jonah finally overcame the difficulties he is credited with having all through life.

Several guests were present besides the ladies named took special part on the program. Those guests attending were: Mr. W. H. Allen, of Marion who reports that he will have his new brick plant in operation the early part of next week; Rev. J. R. Edwards, pastor of the Baptist Church of Marion, Mr. Sprigg Brent, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

The club then adjourned so that all of those who had cars outside

The Book Club Library Opens

The recently organized Book Club of Marion wish to announce that they have taken over the Marion Library Association, and will have a formal opening of the library on Saturday on February the 2nd, from three to five p. m., in the Ladies' Rest Room at the Court House. The library will be open at the same hour every Saturday, with Miss Lizzie Painter engaged as permanent librarian.

The old library has been carefully looked over, some books discarded, and many new ones added, until the new library consists of about nine hundred volumes representing various subjects—travel, biography, science history, poetry and fiction. The Book Club expect to add about fifty new books every year, along different lines, including good reference books. The Club have also subscribed for several magazines; and a reading room will be opened in connection with the library, at the same hours.

The membership fee in the Library Association will be one dollar per year. This entitles the member to take out one book or magazine each week to be held two weeks, if desired, or renewed for another two weeks.

An interesting feature of the new library will be the music section, under the management of the Monday Afternoon Music Club. This section will consist of sheet music or albums of vocal, instrumental and dance music, musical histories, theory, dictionaries and reference books, with some biography, fiction, and books on any musical subject. This music section will be established according to the official list sent out by the National Federation of Music Clubs, and will be quite a forward step in club work. It is hoped that all music club members and music students of the town will take advantage of the music section, which will be governed by the regular library rules.

The Book Club, under the efficient direction of the president, Mrs. Geo. H. Miles, have made great strides in their chosen work this past year, and have high aims for the future. Besides reorganizing the library and introducing modern innovations and improvements, they plan to start a fund for the erection of a new public library. The co-operation of the public is earnestly desired and confidently expected, in order that we may have a complete, up-to-date library which shall be a real asset to our town and community.

Carried Off The Safe.

Christiansburg, Va., Jan. 13.—One of the most daring burglaries ever perpetrated was that carried off by a band of yeggmen who entered the New Wilmont Theater, rolled the iron safe out of the street and into a wagon which they attached to a waiting automobile and hauled it out on the Floyd Pike, one mile from town, where they blew it open and secured all the cash, amounting to nearly $200. They left the wagon on the road, and turned the automobile and came back towards Christiansburg.

At the same time the band of robbers broke into the large department store of Shelton & Walters, in the same block, on the corner of the public square, and stole over $500 worth of fine clothing, shoes and men's wearing apparel, consisting of ten suits, which they packed in a new trunk which they also stole from the store, and made their getaway. They damaged many other suits and goods by dripping candle paraffin over them.

The automobile was seen by several parties standing in front of the building while the robbery was going on, but no attention was paid to it, and the explosion of the safe was heard for more than a mile away, but little attention was paid to it. The local officers working on the case think that local men either perpetrated the burglary or were implicated in it and believe they will soon be apprehended. The daring and magnitude of the crime has thrown the town into a fever of excitement and indignation, and the criminals will be promptly dealt with by the authorities if arrested.

Immediately following the Stockholders meeting the Board of Directors went into session and re-elected the following officers: R. T. Greer, President; R. E. Peery, Vice-President; H. Frank Peery, Cashier and A. D. Scott, Assistant-Cashier. The Board reports a very successful year for the past year for the bank and exceptionally good prospects for the present year.

REDUCTION OF TAXES.

There should be nothing partisan in connection with the consideration of the reduction of taxes. If they are reduced the saving will be shared by all citizens and all sections, regardless of their political affiliations.

Those Democratic politicians who are endeavoring to make political capital by opposing the proposed plan of tax reduction certainly cannot be speaking for their party. One of the features of the Mellon tax plan is a reduction of surtaxes for the express purpose of inducing the wealth of the nation to invest in productive enterprises rather than tax exempt securities. This is the very thing advocated in the Democratic platform of 1920 and is the very feature which is being made the object of attack by certain Democratic politicians.

All legitimate business interests would be benefitted by the plan because it would relieve them of taxation which limits their activities, prevents their extension and discourages capital from investing in private enterprises. For Democratic politicians to oppose the reduction of this class of federal taxes upon political grounds in to assume there are no Democrats engaged in or interested in any business of any magnitude or possessed of any considerable amount of wealth. This is an assumption which needs but to be stated to be proved ridiculous.

Practically every Democratic newspaper of any consequence is on record in favor of the Mellon tax plan. Their position repudiates as spokesmen for the Democratic party those politicians who are endeavoring to defeat the program.

Neither do those politicians represent the rank and file of the party. The plan as submitted to Congress will benefit the American family of small income, particularly those incomes consisting of wages or salaries. Surely those wage earners and salaried employes who are Democrats are not opposed to a saving in federal taxes merely because the proposal is made by a Republican administration.

The problem of taxes is an economic one and should be considered from an economic standpoint, from a standpoint of what is best for the individual citizen, the business interests and the revenues of the federal government.

GREATEST PIECE OF FICTION IN 1923.

The greatest piece of fiction issued in 1923 was that put out in the closing days of the year by the Democratic national committee charging the tariff to have cost Christmas buyers $1,000,000,000.

The yarn spun by the Democratic fiction bureau is to the effect that Christmas sales amounted to six billion dollars and the tariff added another billion to the price of goods purchased by American consumers.

Of course there is this to be said, even on the theory that the absurd charges were true: The American consumer had his six billion to spend, and spent it, which is considerably more than can be said of the American consumer under any Democratic administration with free trade in effect.

Christmas time is a very sad occasion under Democratic administrations, characterized by closed factories, idle wage earners, families in want, distress and suffering instead of Christmas cheer. Under Democratic free trade the most conspicuous gift givers are charitable organizations and soup houses.

Tariff taxes on Christmas gifts do not burden the American consumer under free trade, because he as a rule has no money to spend on anything except what is necessary to keep body and soul together and clothes on the back.

Getting back to the text, the Democratic national committee's charges that the billion dollar tariff tax, which it alleges the American consumer had added to his Christmas bill, was "for the most part collected by the manufacturers and middle men." The answer to this wild allegation is found in the report of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, which shows that the average wholesale prices in 1923 were below the average for corresponding periods in 1922, before the Fordney-McCumber tariff was a law. The bureau's reports cover over 400 different commodities embracing practically every industry in the United States.

It should be plain to school children that if manufacturers and middle men added over a billion dollars to the Christmas bill of the American consumer because of the tariff that fact would immediately be shown in wholesale prices, for the wholesalers are middle men, and manufacturers as a rule sell to wholesalers rather than direct to the consumers or to retailers. That wholesale prices have been lower on the whole since the tariff went into effect than before is absolute proof that the tariff has not resulted in higher prices to the American consumer, no matter what certain interests may charge to escape the odium of profiteering.

Report of the Womans Club

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MARION WOMAN'S CLUB.

The Woman's Club, which has about one hundred members, make the following report for 1923.

The Civic Committee talked clean streets and a clean town at every opportunity. They were responsible for "Clean Up Day" in the spring. A letter was written to the Superintendent of the N. & W. R. R. in regard to the unsightly grounds around the station, and put on the play, Mrs. and Mr. Polly Tickle, realizing more than $100. This committee paid $150.00 toward the wall around the Court House square.

The Education Committee's first activity was to visit both public schools to let the faculty know they were ready to co-operate with them in every possible way for school improvement. In September they secured a list of prospective homes for the teachers and had some of the members at each school the morning of the opening to welcome the teachers. This committee took charge of the program outlined for the observance of the National Education week. Speakers were secured to address both the Grammar and the High School every morning. A large number of patrons visited the schools that week. This Committee, also, offered a prize to the High School for the best essay on the topic given for "Teachers and Pupils Day." The prize 2 1/2 dollars was won by seventh grade pupil. An education picture is planned for some time in the spring.

The Philanthropic Committee visited many homes where there was sickness, spent $36.06 for medicine, provisions, and clothing for those who were in need. More than 150 garments at least 20 pairs of shoes, flour, meat, blankets, and a mattress were given where ever needed. Most of the garments and other things were donated by persons who are interested in this work.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Committee paid the board for three patients at Sanatoria in 1923. Part of R. R. fare to Blue Ridge Sanatorium was paid for a boy sent there. A quart of milk a day, for a month, was furnished one patient. The total amount of money spent by this committee for T. B. work was $128.42. Four one-day clinics for Tuberculosis were held in Marion, by Dr. Edwards of the State Board of Health. In June, August, October and December, about 87 persons were examined. At the December clinic the throats of a large number of children were examined.

The Conservation Committee is interested in the development of the Boulevard in the residential section—the Royal Oak Addition—east of Marion on the state highway. "The Hadding Memorial Tree" was planted, November 2, 1923 on the Grammar School grounds by the Boy Scouts of the High School assisted by the pupils of the Grammar School. By the planting of this tree the Woman's Club and the Boy Scouts have become members of the American Tree Association. Certificates of membership to that organization have been received by the chairman of the Conservation Committee.

The Refreshment Committee managed the Halloween reception given by the Club to the teachers of M. H. S. and the Grammar School. The College teachers, and the husbands of Club members. This reception was given Monday October 28 at the residence of Mrs. C. C. Lincoln Sr., Pres. The Program Committee got up interesting programs for four program meetings.

The Membership Committee presented the names of about 12 ladies, who were elected members of the Club.

During the past year the Woman's Club had in the treasury about $856.00.

This report shows what has been accomplished by a few members of the club. If all the club members will co-operate and work together during this year so much more will be accomplished. The club membership includes some of the finest women in Marion.

In January, 1923 officers were elected for two years as follows:

Mrs. C. C. Lincoln, Sr., President; Mrs. G. H. Miles, Vice President; Mrs. Frank Peery, Treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Rouse, Cor. Secretary; Mrs. Z. T. Atkins, Rec. Secretary.

The President appointed chairman of Committees as follows: Civic, Mrs. R. G. Goolsby; Education, Mrs. E. H. Copenhaver; Anti-Tuberculosis, Mrs. Z. T. Atkins; Program, Mrs. B. E. Copenhaver; Philanthropic, Mrs. W. E. Hodges; Conservation, Mrs. L. E. Gordon; Refreshment, Miss Lizzie Painter; Membership, Mrs. J. B. Richardson; Publicity, Mrs. M. M. Miles.

Have You a Family? Here's Good Advice for All

South Richmond, Va.—"When my youngest daughter was around four years of age she was a frail, delicate little girl—had no appetite and was restless and feverish in the night. A neighbor who used to give Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to her children when they were ailing, recommended it to me so highly that I started giving it to my little girl. It built her up in health very quickly. She is now six years old and the picture of health as you can see by her photograph. I cannot help but feel grateful to Dr. Pierce and his Golden Medical Discovery for transforming my frail little girl into the healthy one she is today."—Mrs. Ella J. Bohannon, 1108 Semmes Ave.

This "Discovery" is equally good for old and young. It contains no harmful ingredient. All druggists, liquid or tablets. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg.

Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles . . . and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me."

CARDUI

Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Robie mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 40 years. It should help you. Sold Everywhere.

State Officers To Lose Jobs

SECOND AUDITOR AND LAND OFFICE JOBS NOT FILLED.

Revealing for the first time the full scope of the report which will be made to the General Assembly by the Commission on Simplification and Economy, Senator Julian Gunn, chairman of the commission, read to the Senate a summary of the recommendations which will be made as a result of the commission's labors. The summary does not give full details of the method by which the commission would recognize the State government, but the skeleton outline presented to the Senate yesterday divides the administrative structure of the State into twelve departments. This complete reorganization the commission does not hope to see accomplished immediately, but the legislation recommended would prepare the way for this eventual consolidation.

Abolish Two Offices.
Making public the summary of recommendations in advance of the report was made imperative by the fact that the commission will recommend abolishment of two offices—that of Second Auditor and that of Register of the Land-Office—which were to have been filled at last night's caucus. Senator Gunn asked that these two elections be deferred until the commission's report has been considered. The offices are held by Roswell Page and Colonel John W. Richardson, respectively.

The summary includes a complete list of all the statutory enactments and constitutional amendments which will be required to place the recommendations of the commission into effect.

Deals With Equalization.
One important feature of the summary is the section dealing with the equalization of taxation. The commission not only places this vitally important work under the State Tax Board, but it recommends the reorganization of that board, converting it from an ex officio body into a commission composed of the Auditor of Public Accounts and two members to be appointed by the Governor, subject to the confirmation of the Senate.

That section of the bill providing for the reorganization of the tax board follows:
"The board known as the State Tax Board is continued and shall hereafter consist of the Auditor of Public Accounts, ex officio, and two other members to be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate, for terms of six years; provided, however, that the first appointments hereunder shall be for terms of three years and six years, respectively. Vacancies occurring on the board in the appointive membership thereof shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments are made. The two appointive members shall receive such salary as may be fixed by law.

One to Be Chairman.
"Section 2214. The Governor shall designate one of such appointive members to be chairman of the board, and the board may employ such assistants as it may deem necessary. The compensation of the assistants shall be fixed by the board and paid out of the funds appointed for the expenses thereof."

Judge Kelly Has Resigned

President Of Supreme Bench Says He Must Practice Law To Make Living For Family

Judge Joseph L. Kelly, president of the Virginia supreme court of appeals tendered his resignation as a member of that body to Governor E. Lee Trinkle explaining in a letter to the executive that "my duty to my family imperatively demands that I should give up the position and return to the general practice of law."

This action by Judge Kelly, who has been a member of the court since 1915 and president since 1920, came as a distinct surprise and is expected to create considerable political stir in the general assembly which will be called upon to name his successor. The resignation is tendered to take effect January 31, next.

"I have no choice but to accept Judge Kelly's resignation," Governor Trinkle declared, in commenting on the matter, "and this I do with very deepest regret. I know it will come as a distinct shock to the bar and people of the state, in whose affection and esteem Judge Kelly occupies the highest place which his long and brilliant service on the bench richly merits."

The executive expressed satisfaction that the session of the assembly at this time relieved him of the duty of appointing Judge Kelly's successor, who will come from the southwest judicial district, from which the retiring justice was named. The term is for twelve years, expiring in 1927.

Submitting his resignation, Judge Kelly in a letter to the governor said: "I hereby respectfully tender my resignation as Judge of the supreme court of appeals of Virginia to take effect the 31st day of this month. This date has been fixed by me with due regard to the business of the court and after a conference on the subject with my associates."

"The present term will not last longer than January 31, and the next term begins early in March. There will thus be ample time after this letter reaches you for the general assembly to choose my successor before the court meets again."

"This step causes me the most sincere and painful regret. I have spent fourteen of my best working years on the bench of Virginia—five years in the corporate court of Bristol and nine years in the supreme court of appeals. The work has been a veritable labor of love, and if I could afford it and the people of my state so desired, I would like to be allowed the high privilege of remaining in this service for the residue of my days. The time has come, however, when my duty to my family imperatively demands that I should give up the position and return to the general practice of law."

Judge Kelly was born in Smyth county in 1867. He practiced law in Big Stone Gap and Bristol until 1909.

MEETING OF THE CONVENTION BIBLE CLASS.

The Convention Bible Class of the Baptist Church held its first official meeting since the election of its new officers for the year 1924.

We have an organization in Military form. It consist of four companies as follows; with a President, presiding, First General who has charge over four companies, at the head of each company a Colonel, making four Colonels. In addition each colonel has one Captain over five men which makes it very interesting to every one. Each Colonel makes a report every Sunday of what he has accomplished during the week in the way of visiting new members, the sick and so on. By doing so we can keep in touch with every member and render to each one our help, love and fellowship, that any one could wish for. We are having a great meeting every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. I hope every man in town that is not going to any Sunday School will join us, and help us work for Jesus, for we can serve him by joining the Convention Bible Class. You get a great gospel lesson that stays with you from one Sunday to the next, and at 11:00 o'clock you get a most profound gospel sermon, and at 7:30 another one. Men come, you are missing something, come out Sunday and see for yourself.

The writer is speaking from ten years experience in this class. I know what they are doing. Lets get on the roll at once, for we are going to reach the mark in numbers very soon the way we are going. Hang around the court square corner next Sunday and if you don't know where to go, we will pick you up and give you a hearty welcome at the Baptist Sunday School and also as a member of the Convention Bible Class.

News Notes From College

The College is looking forward with interest to the arrival on Thursday of Rev. Ross H. Stover, a distinguished Lutheran divine who is at present pastor of the Friendly Church of Philadelphia. Dr. Stover is famous not only as a pastor as a speaker and musician, but bears the further distinction of conducting at his church a mid-week prayer service which has the largest attendance of any similar service in the United States. Dr. Stover's voice is so unusual that it would entitle him to a place of honor in Grand Opera if he chose so to apply it. Preferring, however, to use his gift a noble purpose, he devotes it to his church, singing with his people at his own services, and often conducting the music at Lutheran Summer Assemblies in various parts of the country. On Thursday evening January 17, Dr. Stover will hold a community sing at the College to which are invited as many friends of the institution as the auditorium will accommodate. Dr. Stover will sing several solos and will also deliver an address of rare quality, his gift as a lecturer holding equal rank with his talent as a musician.

Dr. C. Brown Cox is in Roanoke attending the meeting of the Lutheran Synod of which he is president.

Miss Angie Staudemipe, of Sumter S. C., Miss Ruth Echols, of Seven Mile Ford, and Miss Stella Earle of Rural Retreat have added their names to the College roster since the Christmas holidays.

The first Y. W. C. A. meeting of the New Year was conducted by Miss Elizabeth Blackwelder. This meeting was of especial interest owing to the reports from the Students' Volunteer Convention at Indianapolis, the college having been represented at the convention by Miss Scherer, of the faculty, and Misses Ruth Jones and Elizabeth Freed, of the student body. Miss Scherer talked on "The Enthusiasm of Youth," which made a tremendous impression on her at the convention. Miss Freed's subject was the "Call to Service," while Miss Jones spoke of the mingling of the peoples of all nations, especially in religious services, and stated that many nations were represented at the great convention.

The college has added to its faculty Mrs. H. C. Scott, of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, who will have charge of the organ department, and also instruct a limited number of piano pupils. Mrs. Scott is an instructor of expert training and wide experience.

The mid-winter recital of the music department will take place in the College auditorium on Monday evening, January 21.

Miss Kerrick's ability as conductor of the violin department is attested by the number of new students she has added to her class.

The College girls are working hard in preparation for examination week which begins January 28, and closes with the end of the first semester on February 2.

Announcements have been received at the college of the marriage of Miss Ethel Derrick, of the class of 1920, and Miss Anne McMillan, of the class of 1921.

Three attractive comedies will be given by the College Dramatic Club at the court house on the evening of February 11. The fact that these plays are being coached by Miss Anglin, whose reputation as a reader and trainer is well established, assures a successful entertainment and a large audience.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING.

The good attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Saltville Civic League on January 17th shows that the League is always popular. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. Clyde Crafts. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Miss Leona Rogers, business was attended to.

The program gotten up by the Program Committee, the chairman of which is Miss Eleanor Jennings, was then given. It consisted of three numbers: vocal solo by Mrs. Burnz, and address by Rev. Bant and a "Julius Caesar" quotation contest by the Junior Class. This quotation contest, which is given every year shows the good work done by the English teacher, Miss Virgie Caspare.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The Womans Christian Temperance Union will hold a special service at the Methodist Church Sunday night 20th, inst at 7 o'clock in the interest of Allegiance to the Constitution, in which all the Pastors in town will take part, there being no service at any of the other churches.

The public is most cordially invited and urged to attend this union meeting.

Program:

EDWARD AMHERST OTT.

Edward Amherst Ott is one of the greatest lecturers on the Lyceum platform. Over a million people have heard his "Sour Grapes," and he now lectures to practically two hundred thousand people a year.

In addition to "Sour Grapes," other Ott lectures are "The Haunted House," a study in sanity; "The Spenders," Mr. Ott's contribution to the war on poverty; "Community Building," a city development address; "The Measure of a Man," a plea for definiteness in character building; and "Victory," a real-construction lecture.

The above mentioned lectures constitute a series which Mr. Ott calls the "Art of Living" lectures. "Sour

"Grapes" is the first lecture in the series and is given by Mr. Ott on his first visit to a community.

Edward Amherst Ott's treatment of vital problems makes a vivid and lasting impression on a community.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher says of Mr. Ott: "He is a crusader who fights with one of the best minds of this or any other generation of professional Lyceum celebrities."

"Mr. Ott loves the traditions of the Lyceum. He toils to preserve and exalt its standards of artistic dignity. He has the sensitive temperament of the true artist. He is making a epoch in Lyceum history."

Chiropractors Sometime are Accused of Practicing Medicine

Nothing can be further from the truth, for Chiropractic differs fundamentally, radically and absolutely from the practice of medicine. CHIROPRACTORS say disease is simply an abnormal expression of one or more of the nine primary physical functions.

CHIROPRACTIC teaches that the body does not move itself, but is moved by "power within," which they call "Innate Intelligence." It teaches that this "power within" moves the body by means of motor impulses sent over the nerves, and that when a motor nerve is impinged or pressed upon you will have an abnormal expression of the motor function in the organ or part supplied by that nerve.

This abnormal function may be expressed in minus degree, as in all species of paralysis, or in plus degree, as in the douloureux, shaking palsy, St. Vitus dance, etc. But whether it is in plus or minus degree, it is but an abnormal expression of the motor function.

To cure the disease, find where the nerve is impinged and adjust the maladjusted tissue, thus permitting a normal flow of motor impulse over the nerve.

This is Chiropractor's business. Ask Your Chiropractor for "THE LAST WORD."

LAW AND LEADERSHIP.

He who is wise in the strength of the fool, the strong is the guide to the weak,
As a man and his wife we are bound to our race and one common glory we seek.
An the law is our tie and who laughs at the bond or shrinks from the duty it asks,
Shall find, with the morning, the man of the field unwilling to go to their tasks.

For all was it written, the great and the low, for the dull and the wise, it is said,
This you must do for the good of our land and this is the path you must tread.
And the rich man, the great man, the wise man who sneers and turns to an easier way,
Shall find with the morning, the men of the field unwilling the law to obey.

High the example the great men must set, wise deeds must come from the wise,
Much must be done by the man who has much, or all of his glories are lies.
And if wise men shall scoff at the law of the land, it must follow as night follows day,
That the men of the field, seeing all that you do, shall refuse to obey.

You who are leaders must lead to what's best, or our nation goes down in despair;
If you shall venture to scorn of the law, your people will follow you there.
They see what you do and they know what you are, and if to the law you're untrue,
You shall find, with the morning, the men of the field betraying our country, as you.

A TALK WITH A MARION MAN

Mr. W. E. Johnson, proprietor of meat market of Railroad Ave., tells his experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Marion man:

"I had trouble with my kidneys not acting right and I felt miserable," says Mr. Johnson. "I heard about Doan's Pills and the timely use of this remedy helped me out in fine shape. One box of Doan's drove away every symptom of the trouble and I haven't been bothered since. I always keep Doan's on hand however, in fact, I wouldn't be without them. I am only too glad to recommend this good kidney medicine."

Base Ball For Marion.

It is announced that Marion will be in the Inter-County Base Ball League this season. The team will be under the management of Mr. H. E. Roberts, and the assistant manager will be Mr. Thomas F. Cox. Mr. Roberts has managed some of the Roanoke teams in the last few years, and knows Base Ball, and also how to use his men. The Marion people should get right behind this team and put Marion on the map in the Base Ball world, as this is a good way to advertise the town, a good base ball team.

The 1924 Base Ball Schedule has been made up and agreed on by the Inter-County League, and for the lovers of base ball we give the 1924 schedule. You may wish to cut this out and keep for your future information.

MARION COLLEGE RECITAL

The Graduation Recital at Marion College on Monday evening by Bessie Sue Bishop, pupil of Miss Rudisill, was heard by a large and appreciative audience. Her varied and well arranged program, from older classics to the modern groups, was enthusiastically received. Her technique was smooth and clear. She played with relaxation and with warmth and expression. Her touch which was light and dainty in delicate passages was even brilliant in the heavier movements. Altogether, her playing showed musical talent combined with conscientious work and careful training.

Louise Bishop, pupil of Miss Anglin, assisted in the recital with several readings. They were greatly enjoyed by the audience and received hearty applause.

Thinking of Tomorrow

To Save is commendable. To Invest wisely is the key to building a substantial income for the future. The higher the return from an investment the more quickly the principal can be built up.

For the vast majority of people, the plan must be one which permits of gradual accumulation—a step this year, another next year, and another as long as the earning power lasts or until an independent income has been provided.

But one element must never be overlooked and that is SAFETY. Untold millions of dollars have been poured into ventures that promised fabulous returns, but they were promises that never materialized.

A false step may wipe out the labor of years. DELAYS are sometimes as costly as mistakes.

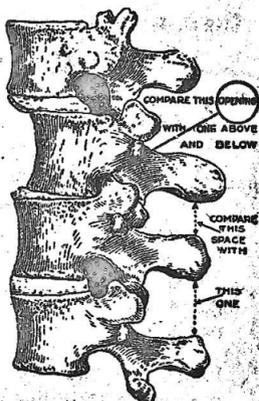

It Pays To Begin---TODAY

As a first step, for your saving plan you can put aside $10—$20 or more dollars every month and receive 6 per cent on these payments. Money you have saved can be invested at once.

It will pay you to ask for full information about this 7 percent First Preferred Stock. Inquire at our office or phone for a representative to come and tell you about it.

Question—My wife has had indigestion with gas and heart burn, and obstinate constipation for years. Will your methods get her permanently well?

Answer—Chiropractic offers a logical, safe and sufficient method for the correction of the cause of your wife's illness. An examination of her spine will reveal pressure on the middle dorsal nerves, cutting off the full transmission of vital energy over the nerves supplying the stomach. The stomach can not do its work properly without this energy. Advise your wife that results, under proper Spinal Adjustments will be positive. Her symptoms of indigestion, bloating, heart-burn and constipation can be permanently eradicated. However, she must first submit to a thorough spinal examination to locate the real cause of her trouble. Then take Adjustments regularly. You will both be gratified with improvement noted.
