In this issue will be found a page advertisement for J. K. Fisher the Jeweler. Mr. Fisher has been in business for the past 24 years and in this time has never conducted a sale of any description. To do the thing up nice and right he has secured the services of Mr. J. H. Sikes, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who is known from coast to coast as the price wizard. Kelly Sales System, this firm have sold for merchants throughout the United States and Canada during the past year $73,000,000.00 having in their employ on the road over 450 men at the present time. He fully realizes that to move his large stock he must put the knife deep into prices, and will guarantee that the prices offered during the sale are lower than the goods can be purchased at wholesale. It will pay you to come 100 miles to this slaughter. The sale will begin on Wednesday, January 30th, at 9 A. M. and will continue for 10 days only. ## Highway Safety Habits to Learn

(By Earl Tilson, of Nebo High School)

I should always keep to the right of the road when meeting any one. When I am passing any one who is fixing his car I must slow down until I get by, for there may be some children running around who may run out in front of my car. When I stop my car I should always go to the right side of road. I must be careful when walking along the road that I may not get run over. Some times a child will try to see how many times he can run across the road before a car gets to him, I must not do that. When riding with a driver who is drinking I ought to get out and not go any further with him, for I can not tell what time he will wreck his car, run off of a bridge or into a ditch and kill me. I must not ride with a careless driver. When I am in the city or a town I must keep to the right. When going to turn a corner, stop, or turn down a lane I must hold out my hand so the driver behind will not run into me. When driving along the highway I must stop at railroad crossings, and see if the train is coming; when I am along the highway and come to a bridge, I should slow down. If I am going around a turn in the road I will blow my horn. When backing out of the garage near a road I must be careful to see that there is no one coming and must blow horn. When meeting cattle, hogs or horses I must slow down or stop until they have passed to prevent crippling some of them or tearing up my car. When driving along a highway where there are many road intersections, I must be very careful for there may be some one coming out that I would not see. When driving in town I must be careful not to break the speed limit. When passing a car I should always pass on the left side. When on a highway I must notice all highway signs. When driving on country roads I must not go too fast. I must see that my car is in good running order, especially the brakes. I will try to learn the safety habits and practice them, will you?

STUDENT RECITAL AT MARION COLLEGE

Notwithstanding the fact that the thermometer was close to zero on Monday evening, January 21, the auditorium at the college was filled with friends assembled there to hear the midwinter recital given by the pupils in music and expression. The performance throughout was unusually creditable, and afforded such enjoyment to those who were present that they will look forward with increased interest to the recital which will be given in the spring. Miss Ella Sue Bishop, whose number was last on the program, will graduate in music this year.

The college is fortunate in securing expression and music instructors of extraordinary gifts, and students of marked ambition and industry.

American Legion

"Adventures of Grandpa" the laughable comedy to be presented under the auspices of the local post, will be seen in the Court Square Theater on Monday and Tuesday nights, February 18, and 19. Earlier dates had been announced, but were given up upon learning that evangelistic services would be held at that time.

Rehearsals for play have progressed wonderfully well and will be continued in a few days. We expect to put the tickets on sale at very reasonable prices and repeat the play in order that every theater goer within driving distance of Marion will be able to come either Monday or Tuesday night and enjoy this performance.

Plans are now under way to inaugurate a feature in the semi-monthly meetings of the post that will interest every member and we believe that after you come once and participate in one of these meetings you will never want to miss another one. These plans will be completed at the next regular meeting in the clubroom on Monday night, January 28 and the officers of the Post wish to see every member present that night.

A GOOD WOMAN PASSES FROM OUR MIDSOUTH

Mrs. Sarah A. Lovelace, nee Russell, was born February 15th, 1843, her four score years, plus eleven months and twenty-seven days closed January 2nd, 1924, at the home of her daughter's, Mrs. Jas. Barker, where she has made her home for several years. On December 21, 1873, she was married to Albert Lovelace, to this union four children were born, two sons and two daughters, T. L. Lovelace of Adwolve, J. C. Lovelace of Chilhowie; Mrs. Jas. Barker of Seven Mile Ford, and Little Mary which preceded her to the happy land thirty-two years ago. Also her husband preceded her to the grave twenty-eight years ago.

She leaves her children with twenty three grand-children, six great grand-children, one aged brother, Mr. Marion Russell, of Elk Creek and one step-daughter, Mrs. Malinda Murrey, of Grant, Va., and a host of friends to mourn her departure.

She professed faith in Christ and joined the Cleghorn Valley Baptist Church twenty some years ago. She was a good christian woman, and loved by all who knew her. While she has not been able to be a regular attendant at church, she gave her testimony clear, that she was ready and unafraid to go.

There can no greater eulogy be said of anyone than can truly be said of her. She possessed all the devotion and affection of a mother and grandmother. She loved truly, doing her duty and walking humbly before her deity.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. Wilson, Friday afternoon, January 4, 1924.

Her body laid to rest by the side of her husband in the Aspenvale Cemetery to await the resurrection of the dead.

Dearest mother, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrow heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life has fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farwell tear is shed.

Smyth County Bar For Dickinson. Judge Campbell Wins the Fight.

MARION BAR ENDORSES B. L. DICKINSON TO SUCCEED HON. PRESTON W. CAMPBELL AS JUDGE OF THE TWENTY-THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.

At a meeting of the Marion Bar held Thursday afternoon at the office of W. R. D. Moncure, B. L. Dickinson was unanimously endorsed to fill the vacancy in the judgeship of the twenty-third judicial circuit occasioned by the election of the Hon. Preston W. Campbell as a member of the Supreme bench.

Mr. Dickinson is a graduate of the Law School of Washington and Lee University of the class of 1917 and has been a successful practitioner at the Marion Bar ever since his graduation. He has served with distinction and efficiency as Mayor of the town of Marion for four years and is now the present incumbent of that office.

The Marion Bar and the people of the County of Smyth feel, since there are but two counties in this district, composed of Washington and Smyth, and since there has been no Judge from Smyth County for twenty years and the last two Judges who served on the bench in the twenty-third circuit have both come from Washington County, that it is fitting and appropriate that this honor should be awarded to a member of the Smyth County Bar.

This fact, coupled with Mr. Dickinson's splendid educational and legal training and combined with his sterling character should make him pre-eminently fitted for the high position.

Republican Mass-Meeting.

M., and to elect delegates to attend the Republican State Convention to be held at Roanoke, Virginia, on February 5th, 1924, at 12 M.

The purpose of the Bristol Convention is to elect two delegates and two alternates to represent the 9th Va., Con. Dist. in the Rep. Nat. Convention to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, on June 10th, 1924 to name a District Elector, five members of the State Committee and a candidate for Congress in the Ninth Virginia District. The Roanoke Convention will elect 4 delegates and 4 alternates, at large, to represent the State of Va., at the National Republican Convention, to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, on date above mentioned, and to name two electors, at large, for the State of Virginia. ## MARION GIRL ROBBED IN CHICAGO

"Chicago is a bad place," Miss Eleanor Copenhaver of Marion, Va., told the police today and substantiated her opinion with the story of a robbery committed in her first half hour in the City.

Coming to visit friends at 830 North Michigan avenue, Miss Copenhaver had proceeded from the station to No. 826 in the avenue, when a huge man whacked her on the head with his fists, she said, and snatched her handbag.

In the bag were a $500 watch, $50 and most distressing, the check and keys of her trunk, which she had left at the Palmer house. Besides capturing the police to intercede with the hotel management so she may have access to her wardrobe.—Chicago Paper.

Miss Copenhaver is a National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and was on her way to Omaha, Nebraska where she is the principal speaker at a Regional Convention. She was not injured in anyway by the attack and proceeded at once to her destination.

Marion has been a mighty lonesome place the past few days on account of almost the entire bar being in Richmond in the interest of Judge Campbell's candidacy to succeed Judge Kelly on the Supreme bench.

RENEWED TESTIMONY.

No one in Marion who suffers headache headaches or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Marion woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Marion resident can doubt.

Mrs. W. M. Brinkley, 33 E. Phipps Ave., Marion says: "I have had trouble from weak kidneys for quite a long time. Pains in my back and muscles weren't regular and that caused annoyance. I had specks before my eyes and dizzy spells. I was told how good Doan's Pills were for these troubles and found them just fine. A few have always fixed me up in fine shape.

The above statement was given February 10, 1919 and on March 26, 1923, Mrs. Brinkley added: "I think there is no medicine like Doan's Pills, for they sure did cure me when I suffered from an attack of kidney complaint.

Judge Campbell Wins the Fight.

MARION DELEGATION GOES TO RICHMOND TO AID IN THE JUDGE'S ELECTION.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 23.—Judge Preston W. Campbell, Washington County was unanimously nominated to succeed to Judge J. L. Kelly, who has resigned from the supreme court of appeals, effective February 1, by a Democratic caucus of the Virginia General Assembly late Wednesday night.

The nomination was made after the seventh ballot when H. C. Tyler, Radford, a former assemblyman, and Judge J. Turner Clement Pittsylvania county, retired from the race.

Judge Campbell lead in the voting on all but the first ballot when Judge Clement and Mr. Tyler were tied for first place with 29 votes each. On the seventh ballot the Abingdon jurist received 62 votes five less than the number required for nomination. He had increased his lead on every count and his selection on the eighth ballot appeared imminent.

E. M. Fulton, of Wise, and A. P. Staples, of Roanoke, were the other candidates voted on.

At this juncture Delegate Warren, of Pittsylvania, withdrew the name of Judge Clement, who had clung consistently to second place, and announced that his candidate's followers were free to vote as they chose. At once Delegate Norris, champion of the Tyler candidacy, announced by moving that Judge Campbell be nominated unanimously to the vacant seat in the high court.

Campbell Named

Judge Campbell was named by acclamation amid a burst of cheering.

Under the rules of the caucus the candidate receiving the lowest vote on any ballot is dropped from the succeeding ones. Results of the seven ballots were:

First: Fulton 19; Campbell 27; Staples 24; Tyler 29; Clement 29.

Second: Campbell 40; Staples 27; Tyler 32; Clement 33.

Third: Fulton 25; Campbell 44; Tyler 31; Clement 31. (Fulton having been renominated.)

Fourth: Campbell 49; Staples; Tyler 32; Clement 34. (Staples having been renominated.)

Fifth: Campbell 58; Tyler 31; Clement 43.

Sixth: Campbell 61; Clement 43; Staples 27. (Staples having been renominated a second time.)

Seventh: Campbell 62; Tyler 21; Clement 33; Fulton 16. (Fulton and Tyler having been renominated again.)

The Democratic nominee, who will be elected by the assembly at an early session, is forty eight years old. He is judge of the twenty-third judicial circuit, having held the office eleven years.

Judge Preston W. Campbell was first notified of his nomination by a telephone message his home in Abingdon where he and a party of friends had been awaiting the outcome of the caucus. Upon learning of his nomination Judge Campbell made the following statement:

"I appreciate the high honor. I am grateful for the loyalty of my friends. I am conscious of my own limitations, but by the grace of God I will discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability."

The Marion Delegation.

Tuesday almost the entire membership of the Smyth County bar went to Richmond, and at once got busy in the interest of Judge Campbell. The delegation was composed of Messrs J. D. Bowling, J. P. Collins, J. E. Bowman, R. G. Goolsby; C. H. Funk, George F. Cook, W. R. D. Moncure, and H. J. Kent, our County Clerk. They went to Richmond to work for a good man and went to work with a hearty good will that soon showed its beneficial effect on the members of the caucus. Their return to Marion Thursday morning on 41, dated at the summit of their efforts.

Those who are opposed to the operation of such devices in the city say they are told there is a "joker" in U. law which makes it impossible to keep operators of these gambling devices out of the city. If that is so the obvious thing to do is to see that a law which will keep them out is introduced in the next General Assembly and that Roanoke's representatives are not again so sound asleep as the switch as to enable some fellow to slip in another "joker."

Gambling Laws At Fairs.

(COMMUNICATED)

According to a Richmond dispatch. "A hearing on a measure by Senator Willis, of Roanoke, eliminating gambling devices entirely at fairs and shows will be held by the committee next Wednesday. It developed at the meeting today that the measure would be opposed by several fair associations."

That the anti-gambling bill would meet with opposition was anticipated. Those who have found it profitable to wink at the practice are not likely to stand by silently and allow a source of easy revenue to be closed without protest. The bill has undoubtedly merit, however, and it is sure to have strong support.

Here in Roanoke there has been plenty of occasion in the past year to reflect upon the need of such a statute. The gambling spirit has been encouraged, rather than discouraged, by organizations that one would think to be above that sort of thing. It has been distinctly discouraging to observe bodies professing standing for the very best and highest ideals of human conduct deliberately embarking upon a policy of encouraging and promoting games of chance for the sake of the revenue that was in it. The anti-gambling bill is designed to break up this sort of thing and to sweep these games of chance, so tempting to the young and irresponsible, out of the community and out of the Commonwealth. It is a good bill and it ought to pass. But those who have instigated it and those who have supported it should bestir themselves to active efforts in its behalf. The element that favors gambling is going to be heard from in Richmond and will do what it can to defeat the bill.

Shall the foes of gambling be no less determined, no less alert, no less active than its friends?—Roanoke Times.

The above clippings is from the Roanoke Times of Sept. 22, 1923, which was occasioned by the acts of Gamblers at the Roanoke Fair. One man had been "duped" and robbed of over $300.00. Robbed is about as near the correct expression as you can find for this business, for the gambler will use any and all kinds of deceptions and schemes and lies to lure the young or old moral weakling to bite at their game. Well they took this man before the officer of the law. The officer was either "afraid" to prosecute the gambler or claimed there was a special law that gave them the shadow of a license to do this. So they were not able to do more than make the gambler return the money. Hence the above editorial.

Now the ministerial union of the city of Roanoke and the Kiwanis Club (200 strong) have been fighting this evil and have their Senator to offer a bill clearing the books of the law of the jokers or sham or class enactments, in order to leave no doubt as to what the law is and to make it unlawful to have any of these games of chance at fairs or anywhere in the State. That Union of Roanoke have banished the disgraceful Carnival and "midway shows" from the City already. Now why cannot the ministerial union of Marion take a stand on this question, which is the very foundation and the heart of civilization? Everybody knows or should know the evils of gambling. Everybody should write to your Senator and Representative in Richmond to show them how you stand on this very vital question.

Read a further Editorial of the Roanoke Times of January 17, 1924. This paper does not hesitate to stand for morals as well as religion, and in winning the confidence and support of the people.—Correspondent.

Ever so often Roanoke finds itself infested with large numbers of operators of games of chance. And whenever it does so there is a great hue and cry from this quarter and that about the evil of gambling and corruption of the young. Investigations are made; resolutions are passed; statements are issued; and promises are given.

And all to what purpose? Whenever there is another occasion for the appearance of these operators of gambling devices in Roanoke, they come again. Then we have the same fit of moral horror, investigate, resolve, denounce and promise all over again.

The thing is getting to be a job.

FREE—Your First Treatment with An-uric, my Kidney-Backache Tablet.

Result of 50 years of Analyses in a Great Hospital.

Fifty years ago, my father, the late Dr. Ray V. Pierce, established the famous Invalids' Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y., surrounding himself with a staff of skilful physicians, surgeons and chemists. To this great institution comes a steady stream of patients from far and wide.

A great percentage of these patients are affected with kidney disease and many other thousands of kidney sufferers who do not come for treatment send samples for analysis.

So, here at the Invalids' Hotel, diagnosis and treatment of kidney trouble has been going on incessantly for fifty years.

Realizing the great need for an effective home remedy to correct kidney troubles in their early stages, I put our staff to work on the problem. In time they worked out an ideal formula, which, it was found, could be put up in handy tablet form.

I named this remedy "An-uric," because by strengthening the eliminative action of the kidneys, it works to free the sufferer from the evil effects of uric acid upon the nerves and joints.

I want all who suffer from weak kidneys, kidney backache and uric acid poisoning to have their first An-uric treatment at my expense.

It isn't necessary to write—just pin this advertisement to a scrap of paper bearing your full name and address and mail it to me.

This offer is intended for those who have to get up in the night, who are tired and lame every morning, who suffer with aching back, dizzy spells, mysterious headaches, darting pains, sore, swollen joints and any noticeable irregularity of the kidney action.
