

WILLIAM C. PENDLETON, Editor and Proprietor.

THURSDAY, : : NOVEMBER 6, 1884.

Entered as the Postoffice at Marion Va., Second-class matter.

THE VERY LATEST.

Special Dispatch to the Chronicle. NEW YORK, November 8, 1 a. m.—The returns claimed by the two parties, although conflicting, agree in making the result so close that nothing but the official count can decide it.

Nov. 8th 1884. We have been waiting until to-day hoping that we could give our readers some definite news as to the result of the Presidential election. At this time the result is still in doubt. New York is claimed by both parties, and an official count will have to be made to decide the contest.

BAILEY is defeated, but Triggs majority is not yet known. It will be more than one thousand.

Table with 4 columns: Precincts, Cleveland, Blaine, Triggs. Lists various precincts and their respective vote counts.

Total, 1172 1080 1161 1091. Cleveland's majority, 92. Triggs's majority, 70. For the Asylum, 1974. Against, 80. Majority for 1884.

Oysters Four Feet Long.

In the Bad Lands of the west a late expedition of geologists sent out by the Government came upon a bed of extinct oysters whose size was almost beyond belief, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. Many were four feet in length, and the animal, when alive, must have been a curious spectacle. Imagine a dozen of these on the half-shell! The shells in this locality were strewn about over the plain as if the feast of some Titanic race had suddenly been broken up. Some were partly buried and rapidly disintegrating under the influence of wind and weather. On the north-western coast a clam has recently been discovered very similar to the soft clam of the East, with the exception that the new finds weigh about six pounds apiece and are a foot or more in length. They are called geo-clams by the natives and are said to be fine eating, the meat rather resembling that of a crab or lobster than the rest of the clam family.

Weddings in the English Style.

As weddings in the "English style" are all the rage this season, it may be interesting to mention a few points regarding what is considered the correct form on the other side of the Atlantic. After the departure of the bride and bridegroom the party at once breaks up, and in London it is not customary to have any festivity in the evening. In the country there is often a dance to amuse those staying in the house. Neither cards nor cakes are sent, and people discover for themselves when the young people return from their wedding tour and call at their convenience. When the bride appears for the first time at a dinner in any house, she takes precedence of everyone; no matter how high his rank, provided such appearance is within three months of her marriage, after which time she no longer considered a bride. This custom is, however, beginning to fall in disuse, excepting in rural districts. The bridegroom does not obtain any precedence. The bride often wears her wedding dress for her first large dinners and parties. The orange blossoms must be removed, as they are only permissible on the wedding day.—New York Star.

He Saw Her.

"I hear you called on your girl last night, Earl," said a down town youth to one of Avondale. "Yes, I called," he answered in a bilious tone. "Have a nice time?" "No?" "Did you see her?" "Yes, saw her leaving the house with another fellow just as I turned the corner two squares away."

Benefits of Small Farms.

A State whose area is held by large land-owners makes progress backward. The history of California shows this. Land monopoly fostered railroad monopoly until to-day these two giants hold a firm grip on the Pacific slope. Manufacturing industries are crushed out and the monopoly of land places agricultural interests under the control of a few large proprietors. Texas suffers in a similar manner. A few men hold vast tracts of the soil to the detriment of general interests.

The land question has pauperized nearly one-third the population of Ireland, and is a great drawback to the domestic interests of England and Scotland. So crying is the evil of this landed system that indications of an upheaval are already discovered in those countries.

In France the situation is different, and vastly to the benefit of the people. There are 5,000,000 land owners in France with the average size of the farms about ten acres. The best land outside of the vineyards is worth on an average $400 per acre. This system of small farms is conducive to the wealth and prosperity of the people. The peasant farmers of that country have about $200,000,000 on deposit at Government saving banks upon which they are paid 1 per cent. interest.

France is the richest nation in Europe in proportion to population, the cause for which can be attributed to such a large body of land-owners. The rapid payment of the war indemnity to Germany was chiefly due to the farmers coming forward with their money and loaning it to the Government.

A landed monopoly is a curse to any neighborhood, State or country. It is a form of oppression cruel and exacting. It builds up an aristocracy inimical to Republican institutions, and fosters a caste supercilious and arrogant. When once established it holds on with a death grip, letting go only through revolution.

A LEGISLATIVE WHAT IS IT?

An Affidavit from Senator Asa Rogers, Jr.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 4, 1884. I, Asa Rogers, Jr., a member of the Senate of Virginia from the Twenty-ninth Senatorial district, do hereby certify that I went to the Senate chamber on November 4th, 1884, and entered the rotunda as the clock was striking twelve, and met Senator Lovenstein, who informed me that the Senate had adjourned. I then objected that it was just 12 o'clock. Senator Lovenstein and myself then went into the Senate chamber. I ask how many Senators were present, and was informed that two were present, and ordered the adjournment. I then in the presence of Senator Lovenstein and Janitor Wilson, presented to Mr. E. H. Fisher, acting clerk of the Senate, the following protest, and asked that it be spread upon the journal—which the clerk refused, upon the ground that the Senate had adjourned:

"I desire to have entered on the Journal of the Senate that there were only two members present; that five (5) are required to adjourn, while two Senators adjourn the Senate until the 5th instant."

ASA ROGERS, JR., Virginia, City of Richmond—to wit: I, William R. Smith, a notary public in and for the city of Richmond, State of Virginia, do hereby certify that on November, 1884, Asa Rogers, Jr., a member of the Senate of Virginia from the Twenty-ninth district, personally appeared before me in said city, and subscribed to and made oath to the foregoing statement.

Given under my hand in this city of Richmond, Va., this 4th day of November, 1884.

ONLY 25 CENTS ELECTION.

LEADING PAPER IN THE PARTY.

Heartily Republican in politics devoted to the protection of American interests on land and sea, and giving to the Chicago nominees a loyal and vigorous support. The New York Tribune propose now to make its own contribution to the furtherance of the Republican campaign. The Tribune throws its profits on its Weekly, and agrees to send the paper for barely enough to cover the cost of printing and wrapping paper, postage and mailing. The Weekly will be sent postage paid until after the Presidential Election, for four months, on any order received before October 1, for 25 Cents an extra copy with every club of ten. The Semi-Weekly will be sent for 50 Cents; an extra copy with every club of ten.

The election of Blaine and Logan is a public necessity. It is of the utmost importance that the voters should be well instructed in the issues of the campaign. The New York Tribune will be an effective agency for that purpose. The formation of large campaign clubs is invited in every town and county. Specimen copies and circulars will be sent free, in any quantity to all applicants. Payment for the paper strictly in advance.

BLAINE and LOGAN. The Tribune has excellent lithographic portraits of Mr. Blaine and General Logan in a style suitable for any library or parlor. The picture of Blaine receives the unqualified approval of his friends as the best likeness of him published. The portrait of General Logan is of similar excellence. The portraits are printed on heavy paper; 10 by 24 inches in size. Either one will be sent for 20 cents. Both will be sent for 25 cents.

THE WATERBURY WATCH. is offered as a premium with campaign clubs. Send for circular descriptive of terms. With a club of 75 at 25 cents each, the watch sent free. The watch and the Weekly, one year, are sent for $3.50, the price of the watch; The Semi-Weekly and the watch for $4.50.

THE TRIBUNE, New York. STREET & SMITH'S

New York Weekly SPECIMEN COPY SENT FREE

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY is undoubtedly the BEST LITERARY PAPER. It is universally appreciated, as its immense circulation attests incontestable proof.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY is in every sense an entertaining family paper, and in each household a welcome copy is taken every member of the family reads it, and the contents are discussed and criticized while the readers are gathered around the cheerful fireside.

The New York Weekly regularly presents in the "Ladies' Work-Box," plain and sensible suggestions regarding the making of garments and choice of materials. This department is invaluable to every frugal housewife.

The New York Weekly also publishes domestic recipes, tested and approved by experts.

The New York Weekly, each week, presents a number of fresh and sparkling humorous anecdotes, in the columns of "Pleasant Paragraphs."

The New York Weekly is constantly presenting the works of New contributors and now is the time to subscribe for the NEW YORK WEEKLY.

The New York Weekly will be sent to any address in the United States (postage free) 3 months for 75 cents; 4 months $1; 6 months $1.50; 1 year $2.

Any person who sends us $20 at one time for eight copies is entitled to a ninth copy free. Orders up of clubs sent at once, and a single copy at 25 cents each.

All letters should be addressed to STREET & SMITH, P. O. box 2734 31 Rose St. New York

1884. THE DAY 1884. MORNING and EVENING. ALL THE NEWS.

THE DAY FOR 1884 WILL EMBRACE A MORNING AND EVENING EDITION.

The Morning Edition will be an eight page paper, and will consist of this giving the most convenient form for personal or large news paper, and enabling a better distribution of news and other reading matter, while allowing to advertisers the most attractive display possible.

The industrial resources of Va. land and water, will be given a thorough and intelligent discussion, with a view to the promotion of whatever will tend to their healthiest development.

In its Editorial Department, THE DAY will expound Constitutional Democratic principles, promote the policy of the Democratic party, and foster the political interests of the entire people. To that end it will speak the truth fearlessly and candidly in abiding conviction that whatever is clearest and most to the benefit of the people is its duty.

NEW YORK, 1884. About sixty million copies of THE SUN have gone out of our establishment during the past twelve months.

If you were to read and sell last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense, sound doctrine, and sane wit long enough to reach from Printing House square to the top of Mount Copernicus in the morning, then back to Printing House square, and then three-quarters of the way back to the moon again.

But THE SUN is written for inhabitants of the earth; this same strip of intelligence would girdle the globe twenty-seven or twenty-eight times.

If you buy a copy of THE SUN, during the time you have spent only one hour over it, and if his wife or his grand-father has spent another hour, this paper in 1884 has afforded the human race thirteen thousand years of steady reading, night and day.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of THE SUN, and of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women.

THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no matter how much the process costs, which presents the news of the world without waste of words and all the world's readable shape, which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, in which there fore believes that the Republic party must go, and must go in this coming year of our Lord, 1884.

If you know THE SUN, you like it already, and you will read it with increased diligence and profit during what is sure to be the most interesting year in its history. If you do not yet know THE SUN, it is high time to get into the sunshine.

TERMS TO ALL SUBSCRIBERS. THE SUN are sent by mail, postpaid, as follows: MONTHLY—30 cents a month, $3 a year. SUNDAY—Eight pages. This edition furnishes the current news of the world special articles of exceptional interest to everybody, and literary reviews of new books of the highest merit. $1 a year.

WEEKLY—$1 a year. Eight pages of the best matter of the daily issues; an Agricultural Department of unequalled value, special market reports, and literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence. This WEEKLY SUN the newspaper for the farmer's household. To clubs of ten with $10 an extra copy free. Address: L. W. ENGLAND, Pub. THE SUN, N. Y. City.

Notice. CLERK'S OFFICE U. S. COURT, Abingdon Oct. 6th 1884.

To all whom it may concern - Greeting: It is ordered that all Jurors, witnesses, suitors, and other persons, summoned recognized or required to appear before the United States District and Circuit Court, to be holden at Abingdon, on the first day of the next regular Term thereof to-wit: October 28th, 1884, not to appear on that day, but to attend said Courts on Friday the 7th day of November, 1884.

By order, Hon. John Paul, Judge, Ed. T. Jones, Dep. Clerk, U. S. Courts.

Fashion Notes. The blouse dress is popular both for street and house wear.

It is said that side-laced shoes will be in great favor all this season.

Skirts are made this season so long that they barely escape touching the ground.

Velvet ribbon backed with satin or ottoman is largely used in autumn millinery.

For traveling costumes and simple walking dresses the redingote is in much favor.

Jet butterflies look well placed in the centre of large velvet bows of gay colors on hats.

Lace panthers with a ruff, and gathered and turn-down-down collars are worn with all elegant dresses.

Both plain and Terry velvet are largely used for trimming costumes and mantles.

The fashion of the epaulet or pascamenterie, is very pretty; it is added to many dresses, on one side only, of course.

Jerseys for house wear are ornamented with gold and silver braiding, which extends down the front and around the sleeves.

Hair stripes, rough looking woollens trimmed with fanciful embroidery, and small checks and plaids of various styles are equally fashionable.

Black straw hats are brightened by very rich colors both in velvet and fruit clustered, such as cherries, strawberries, crab apples and golden berries.

As a compromise between the plain bodice and the draped tunic a sort of jacket is made with pleated basques which form a kind of panier and tournure.

A unique coat of broadened wool has the back arranged in fine plaits; the front has the shape of a plain sarque, revers of velvet extending from the neck to the foot; cinchure belt, coat sleeves and velvet cuff.

Never Knew What Killed Him. "I was chopping in the woods one day last winter," said he, "when my dog, a healthy terrier, crawled into a hollow log and found a coon. He took Mr. Coon by the nose and pulled him out into my presence. When the coon saw how I was situated with a big axo and a yearning look he yanked the dog back into the hole in the log. The dog was light weight, but his staying qualities were something to contemplate. He had the coon firmly clinched, and to that gentle influence he yielded frequently, but as often withdrew from the cold world, taking the ambitious pup with him. They kept sawing it off this way for nearly an hour, and it began to look as though the coon was going to win the rubber, when an idea struck me. When the dog pulled the coon out to view I aimed my axo and struck a terrific blow at the coon's neck. Just then he gave a jerk and pulled the dog's head to the spot where his shoulder had been.

"That dog don't know to this day but that it was the coon that killed him." - The Eye.

Personal. Mr. C. T. Harris and lady, of P., are in Marion on a visit to their uncle, Mr. Geo. W. Wolfe. They will remain about a month.

Why the Southern Confederacy Failed. From the account of "The Battle of Bull Run," by General Beauregard, in the November Cent. we quote the following: "We needed for President either a military or of high order, or a politician of the first class - such as General (Cob) with our military pretensions. The South did not fall crushed by the mere weight of the North; but it was muddled away at all sides and ends because its executive head never gathered and wielded its great strength into the ready advantages that greatly enhanced or neutralized its adversary's naked physical superiority. It is but another of the many proofs that timid direction may readily go with the physical courage, and that the passive defensive policy may make a long agony, but never win a war."

Never Knew What Killed Him. "I was chopping in the woods one day last winter," said he, "when my dog, a healthy terrier, crawled into a hollow log and found a coon. He took Mr. Coon by the nose and pulled him out into my presence. When the coon saw how I was situated with a big axo and a yearning look

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF SMYTH COUNTY:

I will attend the following places on the days specified below, to receive the taxes and levies for the year 1884, thus giving all who desire to do so an opportunity to pay the same before the addition of 5 per cent, which amount will be added to all tax remaining unpaid on the 1st day of December, 1884, as per acts of 1878-'9. All taxes remaining unpaid on the day aforesaid will, as soon as the 5 per cent is added, be collected as rapidly as possible, by levy or otherwise.

VEGETINE

SCROFULA Scrofulous Humor. VEGETINE will eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula and Scrofulous Humor. It has permanently cured thousands in Europe and vicinity who had been long and painful sufferers.

Cancer, Cancerous Humor. The marvellous effect of VEGETINE in case of Cancer and Cancerous Humor challenges the most profound attention of the medical faculty. Many cases are prescribing VEGETINE to their patients.

Canker. VEGETINE has never failed to cure the most indolent cases of Canker.

Mercurial Diseases. The VEGETINE meets with wonderful success in the cure of this class of diseases.

Pain in the Bones. In this complaint the VEGETINE is the great remedy, as it removes from the system the producing cause.

Salt Rheum. Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, &c. will readily yield to the great alternative effects of VEGETINE.

Erysipelas. VEGETINE has never failed to cure the most inveterate case of Erysipelas.

Pimples and Humors on the Face. Reason should teach us that a blotchy, rough or pimply skin depends entirely upon an internal cause, and not upon an external one.

Tumors, Ulcers or Old Sores. Are caused by an impure state of the blood. Cleanse the blood thoroughly with VEGETINE, and these complaints will disappear.

Catarrh. For this complaint the only substantial benefit can be obtained through the blood. VEGETINE is the great blood purifier.

Constipation. VEGETINE does not act as a cathartic to debilitate the bowels, but cleanses all the organs, enabling them to perform the functions devolving upon them.

Filic. VEGETINE has restored thousands to health who have been long and justly sufferers.

Dyspepsia. IF VEGETINE is taken regularly, according to directions, a certain and speedy cure will follow its use.

Faintness at the Stomach. VEGETINE is not a stimulating bitter which creates a fictitious appetite, but a gentle tonic, which assists nature to restore the system to a healthy action.

Female Weakness. VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs and drives impurities from the system.

General Debility. In this complaint the good effects of the VEGETINE are realized immediately after commencing its use, as its ability to remove from the system all the impurities which result from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

VEGETINE is Sold by all Druggists.

Facts for the People. It is an undeniable fact that no article was ever placed before the public with so much indisputable evidence of its great medicinal value, as the VEGETINE.

For every complaint for which VEGETINE is recommended, many testimonials of what it has done for the human race are on hand, and it is our duty to observe that nearly all of the testimonials are from people right at home, where the VEGETINE is generally used, and the streets and numbers are given, there can be no possible doubt about the matter.

Dear Sir - May I ask the favor of you to make me a public notice? I was taken with a fever, which lasted all night. I was taken into camp and died with a fever and delirium. After that I was taken to the hospital and was taken to Newbern Hospital, and there treated by the attending physicians. I was there for four years, treating with many physicians and trying many remedies. Finally I was told by a friend that I should try VEGETINE. I bought a bottle and used it for a few days, and my fever was cured. I was then discharged from the hospital, and I have since used it for many years, and it has cured me of many other ailments. I am now perfectly well, and I am very grateful to you for the discovery of this great medicine. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours, H. R. STEVENS, Esq. Dear Sir - May I ask the favor of you to make me a public notice? I was taken with a fever, which lasted all night. I was taken into camp and died with a fever and delirium. Labor and Longevity.

Ericson, the veteran inventor, was 81 years old recently. He is in excellent health, and works, it is said, sixteen hours a day, an exception to the general rule, proving it, like many others that are received without question, a fallacy. Perhaps it might be fairly asserted that busy men live longer than idle men; that work is, after all, the true elixir of life. Many noteworthy instances where longevity coincides with remarkable mental activity will easily occur to the reader.

Was not Sophocles more than 90, when, to prove that he was not in his dotage—as his heirs claimed, in order to get his money—he wrote one of his greatest tragedies? Did not Humboldt do more work at four-score than many bright men do at forty? Goethe, as every one knows, died with pen in hand at the age of 82. Von Ranke, the foremost of living historians, has just published another volume of his Universal History; he will be 89 years old next December. Carlyle and Emerson lost none of their vigor until they reached three-score years and ten.

And to-day, who imagines that Oliver Wendell Holmes, already on the verge of 75, is old? Longfellow did some of his best work shortly before his death, at 75, and Whittier is now two years older than that. The vast energies, whose sum in many directions are known as Victor Hugo, show no signs of decrepitude, although it is now eighty-two years since Victor Hugo was born. Historians, it may be remarked, have usually been long lived.

Voltaire died at 84. Thierry and Michelet, at 76; Mignet and Guizot, at 87. George Bancroft is now 84, and George Ticknor lived to be 80. In public life we have had several recent examples of great men whose power for statesmanship did not diminish through age. Gladstone is nearly 75, and Palmerston was Prime Minister at the time of his death, two days before he had completed 81 years. Benjamin Franklin, in the last century lived to be 84.

About sixty million copies of THE SUN are sent out of this establishment during the past twelve months. It is worth to paste end to end all the columns of all THE SUNS printed and sold last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense, wisdom, sound doctrine, and sane wit long enough to reach from Printing House Square to the top of the Empire State Building, then back to Printing House Square, and then three-quarters of the way back to the moon again.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of the most popular of American newspapers or of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women.

THE SUNS, is and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no matter how much the process costs, which presents the news of all the world without waste of words and in the most readable shape, which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, and which therefore believes that the Republican party must go, and must go in this coming year of our Lord, 1884.

THE CENTURY PROGRAMME FOR 1883-'84

The programme of the fourteenth year of this magazine, and the third under the new name, is if anything more interesting and popular than ever. With every season THE CENTURY shows a decided gain in circulation. The new volume begins with November, and, when possible, subscriptions should begin with that issue. The following are some of the features of the coming year.

A New Novel by Geo. W. Cable, author of "Old Creole Days," etc., entitled "Dr. Sevier," a story of New Orleans life, the same being the eye of the late civil war. "Life in the Thirteen Colonies," by Edward Eggleston, separate illustrated papers on subjects connected with the early history of this country.

Three Stories by Henry James, of varying lengths, to appear during the year. The New Astronomy, untechnical articles, by Prof. S. P. Langley, describing the most interesting of recent discoveries in the sun and stars.

A Novellette by H. H. Boyesen, author of "Gunnar," etc. A vivid and sparkling story. The New Era in American Architecture, a series of papers descriptive of the best works of American architects in Public Buildings, City and Country Houses, etc.—To be profusely illustrated.

A Novellette by Robert Grant, author of "The Rescued," etc., entitled "An Average Man"—a story of New York. The Broad-Winners, one of the most remarkable novels of the day, to be completed in January.

"Christianity and Wealth," with other essays, by the author of "The Christian League," etc., on the application of Christian morals to the present phases of modern life. Constanting about the Gulf of St. Lawrence a series of entertaining articles, profusely illustrated.

Scenes from the Novellists, Hawthorne, George Eliot, and Cable, with authentic drawings. On the Track of Ulysses, the record of a cruise in the Mediterranean, identifying the route of Ulysses on his return from the Trojan war. "Gleanings in England," extracts from his private journal kept during a trip to Europe in 1867.

"The Silverado Squatters," by Robert Louis Stevenson, author of "New Arabian Nights." There will be papers on outdoor England by John Burroughs and others, a beautifully illustrated series on Dante, a number of papers by the eminent French novelist A. Philippe Daudet, articles on art and archeology by Charles Dudley Warner and others, and a series of papers on adventure, stories by the leading writers, essays on timely subjects, etc., etc.

Subscription price $4.00; single numbers sold everywhere, at 35 cents. All dealers receive subscriptions, or remittance may be made direct to the publishers by postal or express order, registered letter, bank check, or draft.

SPECIAL OFFERS. To enable new subscribers to begin with the first volume under THE CENTURY name, we make the following special offer: 50 cent subscribers beginning with November may obtain the remaining 10 numbers from date, and the twenty-four previous numbers, unbound, for $8.00. Regular price for the three years, $12.00. Or, if preferred, a subscription and the twenty-four numbers bound in Four Elegant Volumes will be furnished for $10.—Regular price, $16.
