More Information On The Jackson Building

Several persons have estimated that the Jackson building was begun either a few years before or a few years after 1850. Indirect confirmation is furnished in a letter recently received by Mr. Wise Johnson from Mr. George A. Lambert, son of Joseph Lambert, the man who is said to have been in charge of the bricklayers.

In the letter Mr. Lambert says that his father always had the bricks on a front wall laid alternating—one longwise, then one with the end showing. An examination of the front wall of the Jackson building shows that this method had been followed, while the side walls are arranged with one line of bricks set endwise, and six or seven lines set longwise. The letter follows:

"Rural Retreat, Va.
"May 24th, 1935.

"Mr. H. Wise Johnson,
"Marion, Va.
"Dear Sir—
"I have your letter some days ago in regard to Old Jackson building in Marion.

"I really know nothing about it. If it was built in or about 1851 my father could have built it, as he was born in 1814. As you say, and your father often worked with my father and his men. Therefore, you would know more about what was going on at the time than I do.

"The rule for laying brick in those days was every sixth row was a header. But my father in the front wall always laid every other brick a header. And he was the only man I know of who did that. This was a kind of "Trade Mark."

"You could look at the building, and see if the brick were laid that way. And if they were it is pretty good evidence that my father built it.

"Yours respectfully,
"GEORGE A. LAMBERT"

1935 Premier of Barter Theatre Here Next Tuesday

The Barter Theatre, now three years old and one of America's most widely know groups of summer players, will make its 1935 premier on next Tuesday, June 11th, in the Marion College Chapel with a presentation of Harry Wagstaff Gribble's "March Hares," a three-act comedy.

The Barter Theatre, which will number about 60 players and technicians this year, a big increase over former years, will occupy Stonewall Jackson College, Abingdon, this summer.

Rehearsal of "March Hares" has been on in New York for several weeks under the direction of Robert Porterfield, managing director. Mrs. Porterfield has been on the ground at Stonewall for a couple of weeks, getting things ready for the troupe to move in.

Next Tuesday's presentation will begin at 8 p. m. As usual, Barter Theatre will charge only a moderate admission charge and will accept eatables bartered in lieu of cash.

Floyd Henderson and Daughter

Double funeral services were held Saturday, June 1, for Floyd Henderson, 40, and his 7-year-old daughter, Betty, of McCall's Gap, who died Wednesday, May 29th, when Mr. Henderson crashed his truck between Clinchco and Glade Spring in avoiding a child who darted into the road.

Two small sons of Henderson, riding in the rear of the truck, escaped injury. The child which caused the double sacrifice was not hurt.

Mr. Henderson is survived by his widow, three sons, four brothers and three sisters.

The Rev. Wiley Johnson and the Rev. Mr. Hawthorne officiated at the services, held at the home of Mont Henderson, father of Floyd Henderson.

"WHAT GOD HAS JOINED TOGETHER—"

County Clerk Herbert Kent was nonplussed Tuesday when a woman walked in: "I want my divorce," she said.

"What divorce," says Herbert.

"My divorce," says she. "My husband told me that God had given me a divorce and I would find it at the clerk's office."

Herbert was stumped. Not so one of his bright young assistants.

"God has evidently failed to enter the decree," the b. y. a. announced, peering in a big book.

The woman went back to her Marion home in tears.

Local Man Critically Hurt In Fall

Jim Bane Peery, local business man, was found about 9 p. m. Wednesday night, June 5th, unconscious at the bottom of the elevator shaft at Peery Grocery Company—his back, one arm and collar bone broken and his skull fractured.

He is in Abingdon hospital in a critical condition.

Presumably he fell through the open shaft.

Mr. Peery went to the Peery office and warehouse about 8 p. m. An hour later his wife and Arthur Peery, head of the firm, returned to get him. They found the door locked on the inside, Jim Bane's key still in the lock.

With W. A. George, night watchman, they started a search. The party got on the elevator and started down to the basement. Only a groan which escaped from the unconscious man prevented them from running the elevator to the bottom and crushing him to death.

Jim Bane was treated by Drs. Graybeal, Boatwright and Sprinkle and hurried to Abingdon.

High School Year Book On Sale

The M. H. S. Year Book, a 20-page publication edited by V. A. Kirk, is now on sale at the City Drug Store. This is the first time since 1915 that the high school has issued a Year Book. For the last six years a school paper—first the "Wise Bird" and later the "Swamp Fox"—was published, but it was discontinued this year.

Printed on enamel finish book paper, and with an unusual and attractive cover, the year book forms a permanent record of the school events during last year, and the activities of the graduating class. In addition to lists of class officers, personality sketches, accounts of sports and social events and many other sides of school life, the book contains six large photographs—the four classes, the faculty, and a sketch of the proposed high school building. The year book is dedicated to Principal W. L. Allen.

Kleins Entertain Rotary

Lieutenant Ted Klein of Company 1249 and Mrs. Klein gave the program at the weekly dinner meeting of Rotary Tuesday, the 4th, at Hotel Marion.

Lieut. Klein spoke on the development of the OOC movement and Mrs. Klein sang several solos, accompanied by Miss Cecil Vernon Vines. Walter Johnston was named delegate to the international meeting in Mexico City.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY, JUNE 7

The Woman's Club will hold its last meeting of the year Friday, June 7, at Hotel Lincoln at 3:30 o'clock. The executive board will meet at 3:00 o'clock. Mrs. G. A. Wilson, who was delegate to the state convention at Lexington, will make her report. A full attendance is desired.

Council Asks Board To Apply For PWA Funds For High School

Marion's town council, at a special meeting Thursday night, the 27th, unanimously requested the Smyth county school board to apply for a PWA loan and grant to build a new high school in Marion.

The figure suggested for the school, which would serve both the town and the territory in the district immediately adjacent, is around $150,000 based on estimates made a year ago.

It is hoped that new estimates will lower this sum considerably as PWA labor restrictions have been considerably loosened.

Under new terms of PWA loans recently announced by the government, 45 per cent—nearly half—of all money borrowed will be an outright grant and only 3 per cent interest will be charged on the remainder, with the privilege of paying back the loan being extended over 30 years.

The extremely liberal new terms got a prompt response from citizens who have long faced the fact, as worded by one speaker before the council, that "Marion is the best town in Virginia, and has the worst high school."

Town officials were barraged last week by requests from citizens that immediate action on a new high school be asked of the school board.

Attending last Thursday's meeting were Councilmen Willard Horne, the best dressed deacon in the state, Kenneth Snider, Rich Young, Glen Groseclose, Ralph Killinger, Bill Todd. Also present were Mayor Scott, Town Attorney B. L. Dickenson, Recorder H. P. Gills, Treasurer J. B. Richardson and Dr. M. M. Brown and Jake Scott of the school board.

Visitors included John D. Lincoln, L. P. Collins and Jim Shanklin of the Kiwanis Club and Chamber of Commerce.

Strong pleas that citizens of the town should get up their efforts to obtain such a school as could never be obtained by either acting separately or made by Mr. Scott and Mr. Dickenson.

Mr. Shanklin, after some vigorous figuring with pencil and pad, pointed out that if the sum needed should be as great as $150,000, only $82,500 would be a loan and $67,500 would be an outright grant. He figured that interest and pay off charges on $150,000 would be only $4,200 a year over the 30 year period.

Council was quick to boom out a unanimous vote when the question was put after an hour's general discussion.

In other matters before the council the purchase of shades and light fixtures for the municipal building was put in the hands of the building committee with power to act and council, at the request of the committee, agreed to take up the purchase of furnishings.

Notice was given that the town will vacate the present rented offices by July 1.

Council also discussed whether there would be any liability on the town if the council should assent to the compromise grade now suggested for the low cut near the corporation limit west, but took no definite action.

Before the meeting while councilmen and officers were touring through the new building, Curtis Ham, acting for the Curtis Beauty and Barber Parlor, secured the honor of being the first to pay a tax ticket in the new building. He got Blaine Richardson to get behind the new window in his new office and shoved the ticket and check through to him in regular style.

Board of Supervisors

The board of supervisors met Monday, June 3, at the court house in the regular June meeting.

A resolution by Rush F. Taylor was adopted requesting the state highway commission to take into the system as part of route 42 under the two-and-one-half-percent clause the road from the intersection of route 81 in Saltville to the Washington County line, a distance of approximately 2.7 miles.

On resolution of Mr. Taylor, Game Warden Miles Newman's salary was increased $22.50 per month beginning July 1st.

The report of the viewers on the Goodpasture road was accepted as far as damages assessed to Johnston heirs.

Kiwanis Performs 100 Tonsilectomies In Two-Day Clinic

With Drs. Charles Baughman and Willis Sprinkle working at top speed in two four hour stretches, Marion Kiwanis Club held its second tonsil clinic Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4-5, and performed 100 operations for 100 underprivileged children.

In every case complete anaesthetic was given. Fifty operations were performed by the two doctors in four hours Tuesday morning, 50 more in four hours or less Wednesday morning. The operations were performed at the grammar school with teachers and a large medical staff assisting.

Those who helped with the big clinic were Dr. Carolyn Sherill, Dr. Margaret King, Dr. E. A. Holmes, Dr. Stuart Staley, Dr. A. B. Graybeal, Dr. D. C. Boatwright and the Misses Hattie Cassell, Juanita Ford, Elma Legard, Eva Bridges, Oussie Hutton and Blanche Troxell, nurses.

Report on the first of the two days was given Tuesday night when Kiwanis met at Hotel Lincoln by Dr. Boatwright, chairman of the work. Mayor Scott reported that the town council had asked the school board to apply for a PWA loan for a new high school.

Col. Jim Tate again brought up the matter of the need for proper detours when the Lee highway goes under construction east of Marion. The Col. heads a committee which is to make every effort to induce the state highway commission to provide them.

County Agents Meet Here

County agents of Southwest Virginia gathered Tuesday in Marion for a joint meeting in which compliance supervisors and county allotment committee members from the various counties also participated.

The principal speakers were W. J. Thomas, state compliance director, AAA; George C. Herring, of the state corn-hog board of review, and B. A. Warriner, district agent, VPI. Discussion followed the speaking.

The meeting was held preparatory to checking compliance on corn-hog contracts so that farmers who have planted more corn than permitted by the contracts may dispose of it in time to use the land for other purposes.

The afternoon was given over to practical work in field measuring, with Mr. Thomas instructing.

Counties represented were Roanoke, Botetourt, Montgomery, Carroll, Tazewell, Pulaski, Wythe, Grayson, Wise, Scott, Lee, Giles and Smyth.

Mutual Men Will Meet Here Friday

Representatives of all the farm mutual insurance companies in Virginia will gather in Marion this Friday, June 7th, for their annual meeting.

They will hold their sessions at Hotel Lincoln.

Business meeting will be held at 10 a. m. Friday. It will follow a meeting of the executive committee held Thursday night.

The delegates will be entertained at a banquet at 1 p. m. Friday by the Smyth County Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Senator B. L. Dickinson will deliver the address of welcome.

Local Eaters Back Safely From N. C.

Not long ago Colonel H. B. Staley received a letter from our former townsman, R. T. Greer, extending him an invitation to bring some friends over to Lenoir, N. C., to hear the latter's pastor preach and to visit with Mr. Greer and his family.

The youthful Colonel, always liberal in the use of gasoline for the benefit of his friends and especially so when he knows there is something worth while at the end of the trail, responded on Sunday, June 2nd, by taking Mayor Wilson Scott, Curtis Hamm, Jack Sheffey and Boyd Staley. After an early breakfast the trip was made by way of Mountain City and Blowing Rock and thence down the long winding mountain road to

Library Fund Passes $600 Mark As Drive Continues

The Marion Library Association drive for a $100 fund to gain a gift of $500 offered by John D. Lincoln on Thursday passed the $600 mark. Contributions recorded to noon Thursday were $611.60.

The drive will continue until the $1,000 mark is reached. When it is reached, Mr. Lincoln will present the association with $500 additional.

Many business firms and many individuals have not as yet had a chance to make a contribution. The drive is being continued this week and all are confident that the $1,000 mark will soon be reached and passed if contributors yet to be seen are as generous as those who have already subscribed.

The fund was swelled by $2.10 last week when Herbert Kent recalled that possibly the old Library Association, which ended its career in 1921, might still have a balance. Investigation revealed $2.10 still on deposit at one of the local banks and this amount was added to the new fund.

School Board Favorable To New High School

The Smyth County school board took steps to bring about quick action on a PWA application for a new Marion high school when it met Wednesday, the 5th.

It was decided to send a representative of the board together with a representative of the town to Richmond to find out at PWA headquarters exact technical details of the application.

It is felt that such a step paves the way for early consideration by the government and prompt action.

Galax Wants Action On Power Project

N. M. Ward, civil and electrical engineer, of Galax, Va., who spoke as the emissary of officials of that town, told directors of the Marion Chamber of Commerce and members of the Town Council Monday night that Galax must know within four days whether or not Marion will join with it in a PWA application for a joint hydro-electric plant on New River.

He detailed a possible working agreement between the two towns and use of power and splitting of operating expenses.

He stated that reliable figures indicated that Galax could cut existing power rates 10 per cent and still clear a net profit of about $40,000 a year and that he felt that Marion could do as well.

He stated that the planning boards of Grayson and Carroll counties want to purchase power for rural electrification and that if Marion does not come in Galax will close with them and go ahead.

His talk was followed by considerable general discussion, in which the advantages of a New River plant were weighed against the possibilities of a hook-up with TVA. No definite action was taken.

Southern Furniture Makers Pledge To Stay On Code

At a meeting Saturday, June 1, at Winston-Salem, southern furniture manufacturers joined in far reaching resolutions which are a pledge to maintain minimum wage provisions and the wage scales provided by the N. R. A. code for the industry.

Virginia-Lincoln, of Marion, which joined in the resolution, was represented by John D. Lincoln and "Skinny" Burke.

The resolutions, as given out by secretary J. T. Ryan, are:

"Whereas the decision of the Supreme court in the NRA case invalidates all codes of fair competition approved by the President, thus relieving industries from the legal responsibility of observing code provisions, and

"Whereas the abandonment of code provisions at this time may result in a vicious circle of wage and price cutting which would reduce consumer purchasing power, thus greatly retarding recovery, and

"Whereas the experiment of industrial control by a government bureaucracy has not been effective and has created undesirable conditions which can be avoided if industry assumes the responsibility of eliminating unfair trade practices,

"Be it resolved by furniture manufacturers present at a special meeting of the Southern Furniture Manufacturers' association at Winston-Salem, May 31, 1935, as follows:

"Believing that it is in the best interest of the country to maintain wage scales, we voluntarily pledge ourselves to observe the minimum wage provisions of the code of fair competition for the furniture manufacturing industry and to make no reduction in our wage scales.

"We pledge ourselves to observe the hours of work as provided in the code.

"Appreciating the importance of fair trade practices as a means of maintaining our ability to pay fair wages, we pledge ourselves to maintain terms of sale as provided in the furniture code.

"That we recommend to all furniture manufacturers not present at this meeting to subscribe to this resolution.

"That we earnestly appeal to the buyers of furniture to co-operate in this effort to prevent wage cutting and unfair practices by patronizing those manufacturers who subscribe to this resolution.

"That the secretary of the association be instructed to publish a list of furniture manufacturers who subscribe to this resolution.

"That as an evidence of our good faith we hereby pledge ourselves to operate in accordance with this resolution until such time as we find it impossible to do so, in which event we will immediately notify the secretary of our intention to withdraw from the provisions of this resolution in order that the other subscribers thereto may be so informed."

Vacation Bible School Postponed

On account of the Kiwanis tonsil clinic scheduled for this week, it was necessary to postpone the Daily Vacation Bible School that had been announced to begin last Monday morning. However, it is expected that the school will begin Monday morning of next week, the 10th.

Sessions will be held each morning for two weeks from nine to twelve. Mrs. Nannie Pruner will serve as principal of the school and will be assisted by an able corps of teachers who have been especially instructed in this work by Miss Elizabeth Longwell, of the Virginia Council of Religious Education.

The primary department, with Mrs. R. G. Goolsby as director, will meet in the Methodist church. This includes children from six to eight years of age. The junior department ages nine and ten will be directed by Mrs. Wythe Hull, Jr., and will meet in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. J. Edwin Wassum will be in charge of the intermediate department, including those from eleven to thirteen years of age, and this department will meet in the Baptist church. Each director will be assisted by several teachers.

The plans for the school are shaping up nicely and all signs point to a splendid enrollment and a successful session.

WHEN LIVES ARE AT STAKE

You need the same fire protection that race drivers demand

"KELLY PETILLO ON MAY 30, WON the 500-mile Indianapolis Race on Firestone Tires, breaking the track record and driving the entire distance at a rate of 106.240 miles per hour."

This record is an astounding demonstration of tire efficiency. To go 500 miles in less than five hours on this rough and bumpy 26-year-old brick track, without tire trouble of any kind, demonstrates the strength and blowout protection that Firestone builds into their Gum-Dipped Tires.

AB JENKINS ALSO RECENTLY demonstrated the stamina, efficiency, and blowout protection built into Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. He drove his 5000 pound car over the hot salt beds at Lake Bonneville, Utah, 3000 miles in 23 1/2 hours. This was an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, and although temperatures were as high as 120°, he had no blowouts or tire trouble of any kind.

There are reasons why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires give such amazing blowout protection. Every cord is soaked and every strand is insulated with pure liquid rubber, preventing internal friction and heat, the main cause of blowouts. Gum-Dipping is a patented extra process not used in any other make of tire.

Take no chances—protect your life and the lives of others by letting us equip your car today with Firestone Tires and give you the Safety and Blowout Protection that race drivers demand.

Before you buy new tires ask yourself these three questions

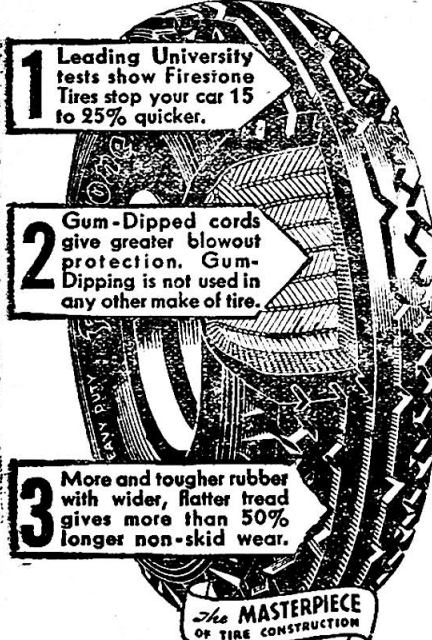

- 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"
- 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"
- 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

Answer No. 1—Leading university tests show Firestone High Speed Tires stop your car 15% quicker than the best of all popular makes of tires.

Answer No. 2—Unequaled performance records for sixteen consecutive years prove that Gum-Dipping gives you the greatest blowout protection ever known.

Answer No. 3—Thousands of car owners report unequalled mileage records—evidence of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone High Speed Tires.

Volume—Direct Purchasing—Straight Line Manufacturing and Efficient and Economical System of Distributing to our 500 Stores and to 30,000 Dealers, enables Firestone to give you greater values at lowest prices

1 Leading University tests show Firestone Tires stop your car 15 to 25% quicker.

2 Gum-Dipped cords give greater blowout protection. Gum-Dipping is not used in any other make of tire.

3 More and tougher rubber with wider, flatter tread gives more than 50% longer non-skid wear.

Sealtite LEAKPROOF TUBES

These new Sealtite Leak-Proof Tubes will give you greater mileage from your tires and are more economical. The initial cost is but little more than ordinary tubes. Firestone chemists have developed a process of sealing the inner wall of the tube, which prevents air leakage. DOCTOR TOLD HER HOW TO LOSE 17 POUNDS OF FAT

GOSSIPERS PEEVED

Mrs. Robert Hickey of Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce—envious women who don't like to see others youthfully slim. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?

Get a jar of Kruschen today (lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle) and if you don't feel years younger and healthier—money back. Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning (tastes fine with juice of half lemon added.—Sold by Marion Drug Co., and City Drug Store.—Adv.

WHY AMERICA PREFERS BUDWEISER...

Its age-old TASTE is found only in Budweiser

Hundreds of years ago, an ancient monastery in Budweis, Bohemia, brewed a beer of such distinctive and exquisite taste that connoisseurs pronounced it the finest in all the world.

Sixty years ago, Anheuser-Busch got from the Bohemian monks their age-old formula. And so BUDWEISER came to America. Its popularity swept the country and then the entire world.

Refinements of method and facilities, yes—but the ancient formula of BUDWEISER remains unchanged. And so today, as of yesterday, BUDWEISER holds an unmatched record—the biggest-selling bottled beer in history.

This Company is doing its part to bring about recovery. Our rates and service provide an incentive for industrial development. During the depression we have carried out a sustained and comprehensive construction program. Unless there should be an unwarranted interference in our business by the government, we anticipate a continuation of these policies and practices.

For years we have promoted liberal merchandising policies and have cooperated with electrical dealers so that they would enjoy equal sales advantages. Today the customer on our lines may purchase an electric range or water heater through us or through a dealer and pay for it in small installments over a period of four years. Our finance charge is about one-half of the Government's charge on appliances which it finances.

The cost of current to operate appliances is low. The customer with a fully electrified home may secure all of his electrical requirements at an average cost of about 2 1/2 cents a kilowatt-hour.

Strike a blow for recovery by full electrification of your home.

By doing so you will benefit by securing your electricity at wholesale rates and at the same time, through the purchase of equipment, you will put men to work.

The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. A. G. Riddle, father of the bride.

LOCAL EATERS BACK SAFELY FROM N. C.

Lenoir, where, after having been greeted very cordially by several citizens who came up, we found our former mayor coming from the men's class of the First Methodist Church. He introduced us to many of his Methodist brethren whose friendly manner gave us that first and always favorable impression which comes to visitors so met in almost any town.

As we walked into the church we noticed the name of the pastor, Rev. R. Excell Rozelle. The church, an imposing edifice from the exterior, has a beautiful auditorium, and the fact that it was a well attended church and that some of the members intimated that this was a committee looking for a preacher was a first indication that Mr. Greer's praise of his pastor was correct. A well ordered service, an attractive choir, lovely music, an attentive and friendly congregation, surrounding a preacher who had given real labor and thought to what he had to say made one wonder why when away from home on Sundays most of us take that opportunity not to attend church. The pastor had a most interesting and instructive sermon on "Christ, the Dreamer," with appropriate texts, developing the early history of the Saviour's life and plans and their fulfillment.

We drove out by Mr. Greer's place of business, an extensive warehouse with tons and tons of roots and herbs, convenient offices, and every evidence of the remarkable development of this business in a new locality since he left Marion, and affording an interesting story of American life from the days when he carried a few pounds of these articles out of the mountains to a country store.

Mr. Greer's daughter has devoted a great deal of her time. It is an interesting project in social betterment and education. We saw also the old ante-bellum home now occupied by Mr. Dobyns brother and his family, where we also met the elder Mrs. Dobyns, wife of the President of the school. The lawn with its ancient trees and the old home with its high ceilings, slave quarters, and stone steps hauled by mule or ox teams from far away granite quarries transferred us from this hurrying modern world back to a far different civilization.

We came back with the renewed feeling that Marion had lost good neighbors, friends and citizens in the departure of the Greer family, with pleasure in their present agreeable location, that people and not localities make or mar our happiness in this world—and yet as we drove up our valley through the green fields of old Virginia, our present mayor could not hold back the remark "North Carolina has nothing like this," to which we agreed.

Rural Retreat Items

Rural Retreat, Va., June 3—The Garden Club will hold its annual early summer Flower Show in the Ark building, June 7th and 8th. Each Garden Club member is asked to cooperate liberally, by bringing as many entries as possible. All exhibits will be taken from 10 o'clock Friday morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, as the judges will take charge promptly at 3 o'clock. A very cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the show. The doors will be open from 6 to 9 o'clock Friday evening and from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. on Saturday, and there will be no admission charge. Positively no entries accepted after 3 P. M. Friday.

Complimentary to Miss Catherine Neff, who will be married to Mr. Stuart Cassell on June 9th, Miss Nancy Frye and Mrs. Edd Dobyns entertained with eight tables of bridge and a kitchen shower, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dobyns. Mrs. J. E. Cooke was winner of the top score prize. After the game, other guests arrived and refreshments were served. Then a large basket was brought in and presented to the bride. It contained many pretty and useful gifts. Miss Elizabeth Lambert presided at the punch bowl, and she was assisted by Mrs. James Kyle.

Mr. J. L. Reynolds, instructor in vocational agriculture and the Cabbage Chapter of the FFA, went to Blacksburg, Tuesday where they presented a very interesting and enjoyable program from the V. P. I. studio over WDBJ in Roanoke. Miss Nancy Frye and Mr. Ronald Frye also had parts in the program.

Mr. G. S. Baumgardner has returned from a three week's visit to relatives in Albuquerque, N. M. Mrs. Baumgardner, who accompanied him there, will remain for several weeks longer.

Our next objective was Happy Valley and the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dobyns, where we were met by them, Mrs. Greer and the two grandchildren, Elizabeth and Charles. The home is an attractive stone structure on a two hundred acre farm with nearly a hundred acres of level bottom land located about ten miles from Lenoir. A fine old fashioned dinner was soon in evidence, to which the party did ample justice, having been warned beforehand to be prepared for some real food where Mrs. Greer and Mrs. Dobyns were concerned in its preparation.

We found Mrs. Greer as usual intensely interested in the cultivation of her garden and flowers. Her roses especially are beautiful. The only discordant note of the whole trip was the silent one of the inevitable bean beetle, which in that mild and hospitable valley had not only totally eaten up the beans, but transferred themselves to the corn and were damaging it.

A visit was made to the 1500 acre farm of the Episcopal church, with its school for poor boys, to which Mr. Greer's daughter has devoted a great deal of her time. It is an interesting project in social betterment and education. We saw also the old ante-bellum home now occupied by Mr. Dobyns brother and his family, where we also met the elder Mrs. Dobyns, wife of the President of the school. The lawn with its ancient trees and the old home with its high ceilings, slave quarters, and stone steps hauled by mule or ox teams from far away granite quarries transferred us from this hurrying modern world back to a far different civilization.
