

Second District Up Against Ring.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 5.—It developed today that throughout the Second District, except in the city of Norfolk and Norfolk county, there is a concerted and evidently well planned movement to call mass meetings, condemn the action of the district executive committee in not investigating the allegations of fraud in Norfolk and Norfolk county, and to urge Mr. Maynard to stand in the general election as an independent.

Portsmouth has called a mass-meeting for Tuesday night, and Suffolk and Nansemond county will both meet jointly in Suffolk next Saturday, the day on which nominee W. A. Young has declared that he will open his campaign in Suffolk. The counties of Isle of Wight, Northampton and Princess are expected to fall in line.

The report of these proposed meetings has caused a sensation.

DON'T BREAK DOWN
Severe strains on the vital organs like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters, the matchless tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength—satisfaction positively guaranteed—50-cents at Carson Drug Co.

Record Price for a Penny.

New York, September 6.—Henry Chapman, a numismatist, paid $340 for a one-cent piece at an auction last Friday. The price, according to dealers, is the largest ever paid for a penny. Two hundred and seventy-five dollars is the biggest previous price which could be remembered. The coin was struck in the year 1793. It is of the "Liberty cap" variety, and was formerly owned by Peter Monney, the grocer-numismatist of Cincinnati.

Why Farmers Should Be Republicans.

Forced to face the fact of the great benefit which comes to the American farmer by reason of Republican tariff legislation, the Democratic United States Senators who recently submitted their minority report on the question of wages and prices, seek to deceive that prosperous element in our population into the belief that it is Free-Trade and not Protection that this country should have.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of farm products, the farmer, they say, "has realized a small net return from his labor and investment."

The time has gone by, however, when shifty gentlemen can make the American farmer believe that sort of nonsense.

He knows that conditions were never before better for him than right now and he will not take kindly to the suggestion which the Democrats make in this campaign that he may help put them back into power. A great many of them are old enough to remember the last Democratic administration which put into force Free-Trade ideas in this country and compelled farmers to endure four years of awful adversity. Things are different now—now he is prosperous and he knows the reason why. To quote a leading authority:

"To-day there is not a farmer in the country who for a given quantity of his products can not buy and lay down at his door more of the necessities of life, more of clothing, more of everything that goes to make up a home, notwithstanding the higher prices than ever before in the history of our country."

Under these circumstances the Democratic doctrine of discontent and disaster appeals to the American farmer only as something to be spurned.

A Reliable Medicine—"Not a Narcotic." Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Couple Nears 100 Mark.

Husband is Ninety-nine Years of Age and Wife Only Two Years Younger.

Bristol, Va., September 5.—Cleveland in Russell county, Va., is the home of perhaps the oldest couple living in Virginia to-day. They are Austin Profit and his wife, Vina Profit. The husband is ninety-nine years of age, while the wife is only two years younger. They have resided in that county from childhood. They were married seventy-four years ago. For more than fifty years they have been members of the Primitive Baptist Church. Mr. Profit has used tobacco for seventy years and still smokes his pipe, extracting from its fumes what is to him much of the comfort of his existence. Following many months of failing vision, Mr. Profit is now blind, and as the mountaineers express it, Mrs. Profit, who retains her sight, finds much pleasure in "loading" her husband's pipe for his half-a-dozen or more daily smokes.

Mrs. Profit tells with relish how when a girl she walked five miles to church every Sunday carrying her shoes in her hand when nearing the church she would put her shoes on, then remove them after church and start on the tramp home barefooted. It was the custom in those days to make one pair of shoes last a year.

Imports Last Year Break the Record.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—Uncle Sam's import trade under the Payne Aldrich tariff law during the past year was a record breaker, according to the government's statistical experts.

Under this law, during the twelve months ending July 31st, last, imports aggregating $1,582,600,000 came into the United States. Of this vast total $794,600,000 was listed as dutiable while $788,000,000 entered free of duty.

Last year March showed larger customs receipts than any other month during that period, with a total of $83,700,000.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for only 25-cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest and much cheaper. Sold by all dealers.

The Roanoke Times, The Lynchburg News, The Bristol Herald Courier, Hon. H. C. Stuart and President Taft should hold a meeting and debate the question: Resolved, That President Taft declared for the tariff plank in the present republican platform before Henry Stuart did. The Times admits that both men stand on the same platform and that both are right. The News stoutly denies the statement and the Herald Courier has been on both sides of the proposition. The country at large is anxious to know who stole the others' thunder.—Abingdon Republican.

Teddy Tells Tales of Trip

How Giraffes Paralyzed an African Telegraph and Lions Devoured Men.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 5.—The people of Missouri kept up with a vim last Friday the roar of enthusiastic welcome which is following Theodore Roosevelt everywhere in the West. Crowds which blocked the streets of Kansas City cheered him whenever he made an appearance and the three speeches he made here were received with shouts of approval.

The colonel was told that he was "insurgent through and through" in a song which was sung in his honor at luncheon, but he said it would be better to call him a progressive.

It was raining hard when Colonel Roosevelt reached the city. In spite of the rain thousands of people were on hand at the station to see him. After a parade through the business section of the city and the luncheon, the colonel went to the Westport High School and talked to the pupils.

The auditorium of the High School was crowded with students when the colonel arrived and they stood on their feet and gave him the cha-tauqua salute, while at the same time they shouted at the top of their voices.

As soon as they would let him speak the colonel said he had a confession to make; that he was a little afraid of the audience, because half of it was composed of girls whom he never knew how to handle.

"I have four boys of my own," said he, "and only two girls. The girls were both in charge of their mother until they grew up, and then they took charge of me. They have treated me kindly but firmly."

Col. Roosevelt said he was going to tell them some stories of Africa. "The natives are perfectly wild savages," he said, "and their enemies accuse them of occasionally and playfully lapsing into cannibalism. That is a delicate subject and I never inquired into it."

"One day while I was riding up the railroad to Nairobi, telegraph communication was interrupted," he went on. "That was because a herd of giraffes had cantered across the tracks and pulled down the wires with their necks."

Then Colonel Roosevelt told some more stories of his experiences in Africa. He talked about the lions: "When they were building the railroad," he continued, "construction was stopped two weeks, because two lions established themselves on the tracks and ate up all the men who came to work. I think they ate about one hundred. Finally they were killed."

He said the survivor of another encounter with the lions told him a story which he would repeat:

"At one railroad station," he began, "the lions ate up the agent, and when the next train came along they ate up a brakeman. The division superintendent, an Englishman, took a German and an Italian with him and went out there to kill the lion."

"They sat up in the night, waiting for the lion, and finally the Italian went to sleep at one end of the car and the German got into one of the berths. The Englishman sat at the window with his rifle on guard. He evidently went to sleep there."

"The lion, with its queer, sinister intelligence, saw that the man was asleep. It came up on the platform, pulled the sliding door open with its paw and went in. The German was awakened by the weight of the lion's hind legs on him. The fore legs of the lion were on the Englishman, and the lion had the man head in his mouth."

"The German shouted and awakened the Italian, who leaped up and jumped on the lion's back. He jumped off again and ran to the other end of the car. The lion had a man, and only wanted to get a Circus Day Almost Here.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows Will Be With Us Before Many More Days.

In spite of the annual and sometimes more frequent occurrence of "circus day," the majority of the people of this city are always ready to welcome the white tents and red wagons. Now that the date fixed for the appearance of the Hagenbeck Wallace Combined Shows is almost here, the interest is becoming acute and hundreds of people are planning to visit the show on Monday, Sept. 12th.

There are people who really object to the coming of a circus, especially one of the magnitude of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows, because of the tendency of the average citizen and countryman to make it a holiday. Such people, however, are born pessimists and undesirable citizens and should be suppressed. They forget that, while they may be able to attend and enjoy the theatre every week, most of those who attend a circus are only able to do so about once or twice a year. The latter is the amusement of all classes of people, because it is a bargain counter of amusements.

The people of almost every country under the sun know what to expect when the name of Carl Hagenbeck is mentioned, and this is equally true of the "Great Wallace Show." With these two organizations combined, the public will welcome "circus day" in a manner which will sustain the reputation of Marion as being the cracker jack show town of the State.

Pulaski, Va., Sept. 5.—A deed has been admitted to record in the Clerk's office here which involves a very large transaction in valuable blue grass living in the lower end of this county. The deed is from J. Cloyd Kent and wife, of Richmond, Va., to J. W. and F. H. Flanagan. It conveys two bodies of land known respectively as the "Horseshoe Farms" and the "Horseshoe Springs Farm." The total area conveyed is 883.25 acres, and the consideration $88,574.55, making the price a little more than $100 per acre.

A certain remedy for such attacks. A medicine that answers every call. Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a true specific. Many Marion people rely on it. Here is Marion proof. John W. Hutton, farmer, R. F. D. No. 3, Marion, Va., says: "I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly. For many years I was annoyed by dull, heavy pains across the small of my back, often so severe as to prevent me from working. I was also bothered by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, this trouble being especially noticeable at night and disturbing my rest. A short time ago when I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at the Carson Drug Co. and after using them a short time my suffering ceased. On several occasions since then, as the result of a cold or over-work, I have noticed a lameness in my back, but Doan's Kidney Pills have always given me immediate relief."

Minister Confesses Baby as His Own Child.

Moorestville, N. C., Sept. 5.—Rev. J. A. Paisley, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church here, created a sensation when he confessed that a beautiful five-weeks-old girl baby left on his front porch Monday night by a mysterious woman is his own child.

Dr. Paisley stated further that the plan to leave the baby on his door step was arranged by himself, and that the mother of the child executed the scheme. Immediately after making his confession to the church leaders, Rev. Mr. Paisley's resignation from both church and presidency was demanded and promptly given.

He refused to divulge the name of the mother, but it is alleged, that she is a young woman of Pamplin City, Va., who had boarded in the minister's home there.

The baby was left on the doorstep of the minister's home Monday at midnight by a woman who came here from Charlotte, and after accomplishing her errand, bought a ticket for Roanoke. She is described as young and pretty, and she was traced from Roanoke, where it is said the baby was born, to Charlotte before coming here. A note pinned to the baby's dress, signed "Mother," gave its name as "Katherine Virginia," and committed the child to the minister's care.

Rev. Mr. Paisley came to Moorestville from Pamplin City, Va., three months ago.

FOR CONGRESS—NINTH VA.
DISTRICT:

C. BASCOM SLEMP,
OF WISE CO.

The Roanoke Times and The Lynchburg News can't agree on Mr.
Stuart's tariff platform; neither can the Times and The Dispatch agree as to the probable effect of Colonel Russell's speech to be made in the Ninth district. The Times seems to think it can't hurt Stuart, while the Dispatch thinks it will strengthen Slemm. We are not surprised at these Democratic doctors disagreeing. It would hardly be expected that a Richmond, a Lynchburger and a Roanoker would all see things like away out here in the Ninth district. They will all, doubtless, take up on the morning of November the ninth and find out, as they have in years past, that they knew very little about conditions in the Ninth. They will then have plenty of time to find out how Stuart was created and also to reconcile their differences.

The "dissatisfied voter" of the Ninth district will now begin to find in Stuart an object of much strenuous solicitude.—Bristol Herald Courier.

How about the "hoaters?" Has the Stuart committee found them and "who they are?"

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, says:
There is not the slightest feeling against President Taft anywhere in this country that I know of. On the contrary, we all admire and respect him. The Republicans will win this fall all along the line."

This is the patriot that Mr. Glass referred to so eloquently in his speech last Monday. This is the man whose speech Democrats are using in campaign documents. He says Republicans will win all along the line." Of course he means that the Democratic party is not worthy to be trusted and in order to "win all along the line" all Republicans will be elected by the President and the par-tomininees.

tor, for keen brain and strong body—

Slemm and Cannon.

New River, Va., Sept. 1, 1910.
Editor The Roanoke Times:

Much comment has appeared in the daily papers recently concerning Slemm's attitude toward Cannonism.
Now the rules of the House of Representatives have been in force since the days of Democratic Speaker Crisp. They have, it is true, been conducive to more or less arbitrariness on the part of all successive speakers, and it is well for our Democratic form of government that the recent changes were forced.

In justice to Congressman Slemm, it should be known that he favored and voted for each and every one of these wholesome changes. It is to his credit that he refused to vote to behead Speaker Cannon, a thing some of Cannon's bitterest enemies, both Democrats and Republicans, refused to do. Cannon's day has almost arrived and he will doubtless fall of re-election as speaker.

The edict has gone forth, inspired by the voice of the people, but he who has the milk of human kindness in his heart rebels at the idea of forcibly deposing this veteran "Watch-dog of the Treasury" from his office, dragging him from his chair in the midst of the session in a manner unprecedented in the history of our nation.

Slemm voted for the Payne-Oldrich bill, as the Congressional Record shows. Just as President Taft himself, Slemm could not personally favor every individual schedule, nor were some changes made that he earnestly hoped for.

But this bill is a decided improvement on previous tariff bills, and Slemm is not a man to sacrifice everything by a stubborn and relentless opposition rather than secure a measure of good by a cause which good sense and expediency dictate.
The tendencies of the bill are in the right direction, and when the expert tariff commission completes its task, there is no doubt but that the Republican Congress will reach a schedule which will work no injustice in any quarter, which will entirely destroy the last vestige of unjust privilege, and which will be founded upon a scientific basis.

Mr. Slemm has been an industrious and faithful representative of his people. He has been intent upon every duty of his office and has in-gratiated himself into the respect, confidence and good will of leading statesmen to the extent that his previous service only puts him in a position to better represent his people and secure the greatest possible advantages for his district.

Mr. Stuart is ambitious to be elected as a representative of the people in Congress, but the people have not forgotten the Constitutional convention, in which he voted against referring the issue back to the people, when the Hon. J. C. Wyser voted in favor of the same. Mr. Wyser might make just claims upon the people for himself, but the people will reject his good offices in favor of Mr. Stuart.

Perhaps individual districts should not be too selfish, but I happen to know that Mr. Slemm has bright hopes of much larger things for his district, and any man knows that he will be much more successful in this regard than his Democratic opponent could hope to be.

In fact I heard one of the most eminent Democrats in Southwest Virginia bemoaning a probable delay in the public building appropriation for Wytheville, Va., on the ground that "Slemm gets what he wants, but in the event of Stuart's election, it is all over!"

The claim is made that many Republicans will support Stuart. I have been traveling, now and then, in different counties, but I have not seen one such Republican. On the other hand many Democrats have remarked to me that Slemm has made a fine representative.

I am confident he will be re-elected by the usual majority.

Protection's Progress in Virginia.

There is an excellent prospect that another Protectionist from a Southern Democratic constituency will get a seat in the House of Representatives of the Sixty-second Congress. Capt. John Lamb, who has just won the re-nomination in the Third Virginia district over Judge Wickham, an uncompromising Free-Trader, conducted his campaign as a Protection Democrat. In a speech prior to the nomination Capt. Lamb said:

To charge the high cost of living on the present Tariff law is as unfair and inaccurate as any statement ever made by any public man in the history of politics.

This shows a regard for truth that is in pleasing contrast to the partisan narrowness exhibited by the Democratic minority of the Senate committee on cost of living in attrib-uting the increase of prices almost exclusively to the Protective Tariff.
It also has a bearing on results in other than Captain Lamb's district.
The Marion (Va.) News says:

Being admonished that his speeches would injure Stuart in the Ninth district, Capt. Lamb declared "that Mr. Stuart could not win on a platform of free lumber and approximate Free-Trade, and had too much sense to try it. He said he knew the people of that district, and that a Free-Trade campaign would overwhelm the Democrats there."

"Approximate Free-Trade" or "Tariff for Revenue" is what the Democratic leaders in the Ninth are clamoring for. 'This is their campaign, and, just as the Third district Congressman predicts, they will meet with overwhelming defeat.
Democrats who believe in Protection should be consistent and vote for Slemm, who stands by the party and believes in Protection.

The Ninth Virginia district is now represented by a stalwart Protectionist, C. Bascom Slemm, who is again the Republican nominee. Mr. Slemm's majority two years ago was more than 4,000, and his re-election would seem to be assured. So there will be at least two Protectionists from old Free-Trade Virginia in the next House—one a Democrat and the other a Republican.—American Economist.

Davenport and Muncy Address Smyth County Republicans.

The Republicans of Smyth county were here in great force and numbers Monday, when District Chairman P. J. Davenport and Hon. T. J.
Muncy addressed them on the issues in this campaign. The meeting was called to order at 1:30 p. m. by County Chairman R. A. Anderson, who presented the speakers. Mr.
Davenport opened with a logical address, of nearly forty minutes, in which he showed the inconsistencies of the Democrats on the tariff and how they had deceived the people when in power, and how different the prosperity of the county now as compared to Cleveland's Democratic rule. Mr. Davenport's speech was argumentative and convincing and was warmly received by his auditors. He was followed by Hon. T.
J. Muncy, considered by many as one of the most magnetic orators in the Southwest. He began by saying that he was always glad to meet the loyal Republicans of old Smyth, and from all signs he felt sure, with a free ballot and fair count, the Republicans were going to win another great victory in the Ninth district.
The mercury stood high and Mr.
Muncy laid aside his coat and collar and for one hour and a half he charged the Democratic breastworks with eloquent and logical facts that held his audience spell-bound and filled it with a high pitch of enthusiasm. He said he was not a tariff expert, but that he could demonstrate that protection was what the people of the Ninth district needed and wanted. He showed that Henry Stuart was false to his platform and party creeds when he tried to repudiate them by declaring for protection, a Republican principle. His exposure of the Democrats as to their actions in the late Constitutional convention was terrific. He reviewed their broken pledges and showed that Mr. Stuart, a member of that convention, voted to proclaim the Constitution when the solemn pledge, as offered by Hon.
Carter Glass, was that it should be submitted back to the people for ratification or rejection.

Mr. Muncy and Mr. Davenport both refuted most successfully many of the thread-bare tariff arguments made by Mr. Glass in his morning speech. They eulogized the record of Congressman Slemm and showed that he had been a faithful servant of the people and had done great service to his district during his term in Congress; that he had secured more appropriations than any of his Democratic predecessors, and was now in position, from his experience, to do much more for the district than his opponent who knows nothing of Congressional work and who necessarily could effect little or nothing for our district when his policies are opposed to the administration in power. The Republicans were well pleased with the day and are sanguine that old Smyth will roll up a splendid majority for Bascom Slemm on the 8th of November.

Congressman Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, spoke for the Democrats at eleven o'clock in the morning. He had a large crowd, many of whom were Republicans, but not a convert was made, and it seemed the Republicans left the meeting more firmly convinced that their position was correct, and that they were determined to stand by their guns—Mr. Glass' arguments to the contrary.

The Marion Concert Band, twenty-six in number, left Tuesday for Radford to spend four days and furnish music for the Great Radford Fair. Here is what the Radford correspondent to the Roanoke Times said of the Marion band: "Much interest is felt in the coming of the new Marion concert band. Conductor E. A. Barre, formerly of Victor Herbert's Pittsburg Symphony orchestra, took this band in hand some time ago and declares that he is working on fine musical material and the band, which is now one of the best in the State, is ambitious to win the distinction of being unqualifiedly first. Conductor Barre may extend his work to other towns, including Radford, and if he does it should make far distinct musical progress in this part of the country. His band is handsomely uniformed, numbering twenty-two, and recently at an expense of $960, equipped itself with an entire new set of instruments, including many possessed by no other band hereabouts."

A good many of our citizens went to Marion to day to attend the public speaking.

Mrs. Clayton Waddle is ill at her home near Atkins of typhoid fever. Mrs. P. J. Snively, we are glad to learn, is able to be out again.

Several of our young men started to Rye Valley last Saturday to play base-ball, and did not succeed in getting all the way—suppose the appearance of rain bluffed them. Try it again boys!

I think most everybody is planning to go to the show.

The stork has lately visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Atkins and left with them a fine girl baby. Mrs. Mary Leedy has been down in Washington county recently canning peaches, etc.

Wants New College.

The above is the title of an article going the rounds of the Virginia press. What college is wanted? Marion Female College. Who wants it? Christiansburg, Salem and other towns. How bad do these towns want this college? Well, Christiansburg has raised the sum of $4,500 in subscriptions, appointed committees on finance, site, etc. Just what Salem and other places have done we have not seen in public print and don't know. Now what we would like to know is Marion going to stand idle and allow our Female College to be taken from our town, from our very doors and be transplanted in a distant town? We admire the enterprise of Christiansburg and Salem, but how would it sound to Marion people—Marion College in Christiansburg or Salem? This would not sound right and should not be. Now that it is to be enlarged and better prepared to serve the public, shall Marion lose these enlarged opportunities? Marion has progressed wonderfully within the past few years. Our town has grown and we have all the modern facilities of any town of equal size. Nature has given us much; shall we lose, probably, the best asset now located in our midst? Christiansburg is not prompted by church pride, for we note the town has no Lutheran church, but the other denominations have churches there and still they want this Lutheran school planted in their midst because they know it is a fine business proposition. Such an institution is of inestimable value to the community where it is located. Marion certainly has the inside track—the school is located here. Shall we let it go without an effort? We call upon our citizens, our wide-awake Mayor and Town Council to do something before it is too late. Several of our leading citizens in the town and county are members of the Board of Trustees; surely they will not turn a deaf ear if our people will only speak and come forward with some evidence that they want the school to remain in our midst. Let's have a mass-meeting of our people at the earliest day convenient. Marion cannot afford to lose this school; if we do it will be a backward step and the greatest blow the town and county ever received.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmet, of Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Carson Drug Co.

Killed By Lightning.

Grand-father and Grand-son Meet Death While Dressing Stone Tuesday Evening.

While dressing stone under a shed at the Southwestern State Hospital, Mr. Edward Falke and his grandson, William Fisher, were instantly killed by lightning, the stroke being received about four o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The two men were working on the same stone and no one was near them except Mr. Antone Fisher, the father of the young man. He was working about twenty or thirty yards under another shed and was severely shocked but not otherwise injured. Edward Falke was one of Marion's much respected and hard working citizens. He had reached the age of sixty-nine years and was a Confederate veteran, having been a member of the celebrated Company of Smyth Blues that went out from this county. Mr. Falke was an honest upright man and well beliked by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife and two sons, George, who resides in West Va., and Gordon, who lives here, and one daughter, Mrs. Antone Fisher, the mother of the young man who was killed. William Fisher was twenty-three years old and unmarried. He was an industrious, upright and well thought of young man. The sudden taking of this grand-father and grand-son was especially sad and a severe blow to the bereft families, relatives and friends of both. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to both families.

A funeral service was conducted from Greenwood church Thursday morning by Rev. Geo. A. Maiden, assisted by Rev. R. K. Sutherland, after which the double burial took place in the church cemetery.

Wanted—10,000 bushels of Potatoes. The D. H. Mitchell Co. will pay highest market price.

Good Roads in Virginia.

The glowing report of the progress made in road building this year is good news to Virginia and Virginians. Every mile of approximately permanent road construction is a direct and valuable addition to the wealth of the State, because it facilitates transportation, reduces the cost, and saves the wear and tear on teams and vehicles that have to travel over it.

The "mud tax" has been shown to be the heaviest (unless it be the tariff tax) that our farmers have to pay, and it is one by which nobody profits.

For far too many years the attitude of the average farmer toward the roads he was condemned to use was that of the Eastern fatalist. A bad road was a decree of fate or a visitation of Providence sent upon him for his sins. About all he did for the roads was to pay his "road tax"—for the most part wasted in temporary and generally worthless repairs—and, if given to profanity, fervently to curse his supervisors when the subject of roads was mentioned.

But a change has come over the spirit of the farmer's dreams. He is beginning to realize more or less clearly that his bad roads that kill his teams, smash his vehicles and ruin his temper are due not to fate or Providence, but to foolery and negligence essentially his own. Through out the State the farmer is moving to correct both. He has accepted the fact that if he wants good roads he will have to pay for them; but he also begins to realize the difference between a perpetual drain on his resources for which he gets nothing in return, and a wise and judicious investment that pays from the beginning.

This is the secret of the great impetus that has been given to road building in the State. Good roads can only be built at a heavy cost; but the universal experience of the world has been that, however much it was necessary to expend in building them, good roads, have been worth all and more than all they cost.

It is infinitely gratifying to all who are interested in the progress and well-being of Virginia to see growth of the demand for good roads.—Richmond News Leader.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.
