During these hours parking on this part of Main street will be limited to two hours.

The move was made necessary by extreme congestion in the retail district during daylight hours caused by many persons who leave their cars parked along the street all day. Under the new system shoppers from out of town will find plenty of parking space.

Second Good Will Tour Tops First Effort

Marion's recent highly successful Good Will Tour to Grayson and Wythe counties was decisively topped Wednesday, the 9th, as 182 people, in 51 cars, visited 12 communities in Smyth and Washington counties.

With three bands sounding music, a fun wagon, and an array of speakers who were distinguished both for brevity and wit, the motorcade swept out of Marion promptly at 8:30 Wednesday morning, spent the day on the move, and swept back in to town for a grand parade at 5:30 p. m.

The local Chamber of Commerce left no stone unturned to make the second edition of the tour as good or better than the first and results were a great compliment to that organization and the people of the community.

Probably the great addition to the tour was the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, drilled by Mr. Thompson, Drum Majored by Ginger Haines and managed by Walt Huffaker. These 46 boys, in their snappy white and blue, had their own motorcade one jump ahead of the main column and delighted the folks in every community. We've got to have a corps like that too," Saltville civic and educational leaders said unanimously after the boys had put on their drill at the Saltville ball park before 800 school children.

Marion's 20-piece band did itself proud as usual and additional music was furnished at every stop by Jack Reedy and his Band of old time music makers, with the Blevins Brothers and Crobin Mathews, and on C. C. Lincoln's fun wagon Captain Errol Boyd, famed trans-Atlantic flyer now piloting the Lincoln plane, did the honors with fire helmet and glasses in an Ed Wynne impersonation. Nate Dickinson was on hand at all times to tickle the ivories on the piano mounted on the truck. "Sailor Dad" Hunt sang and

Before the tour, everyone in detail every one in Marion wanted to see—and it certainly should be said here—that never has such friendly, generous and whole hearted hospitality been given any such tour as was given by the people of Saltville and the Mathieson Alkali Works.

Saltville did itself proud. The reception for the motorcade followed a parade through town and was held at the ball park, where a special platform had been constructed for the festivities. Marion had planned to buy lunch, but Saltville wouldn't hear of it.

Heaping piles of sandwiches, unlimited coffee, table on table of plate lunches withstood the assault of more than 200 hungry visitors and home folks and when the last appetite had been quelled there was still plenty left.

Our hats are off to you, Saltville. The motorcade made its first stop at Hungry Mother Park. There CCC Companies 2388 and 2389 with their officers were drawn up before 2388 2388 mess hall to greet the visitors, headed by Sub-District Commander Major Arthur S. Bell, who made the welcome, and Captains Conrace and Woods. Doc E. M. "Cel" Copenhaver spoke for Marion and delivered a grand funny talk on wild life, including skunks.

The officers of the two companies were hosts at a "second breakfast" in the mess hall and the visitors piled in and enjoyed the treat.

At Chatham Hill Mr. H. H. Cook made the welcome and Q. A. Calhoun responded for Marion. John D. Lincoln, Chamber of Commerce president, was master of ceremonies at each stop.

A huge crowd of school children and Rich Valley folks greeted the motorcade when it reached the football field at Rich Valley high school. Here R. F. Turner made the welcome, Miss Keys led the children in two welcome songs and Robert Lane Anderson spoke briefly for Marion.

At Broadford W. W. Brickey extended the keys to the city and some of the Marion boys, learning that the school there needed funds for a library, passed the hat and raised a sizeable sum to help out. At North Holston John D. asked the school children to vote on whether they would rather hear a speech or hear Reedy's band, and the vote was unanimous for music. The school children, under Miss Margaret Buchanan, Miss Birdie Clear, Miss Gladys Clear and Mr. Brady Duncan, responded with songs

Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

One of Rye Valley's rarest occasions was celebrated on October 6th, at the Teas school building. It was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keesling, ages 70 and 73 years, respectively.

One hundred and fifty relatives and friends were present at the banquet spread in their honor. The color scheme of gold and green was effectively carried out in the decorations, cakes and presents, which were numerous.

The program beginning at noon, lasted until 3 p. m.

Mr. John Collins, of Marion, was toastmaster, and the following program was enjoyed by the visitors: Rev. S. W. Chisenhall gave the invocation, then several appropriate selections were played by Mr. Edd Blevins, Mr. Frank Blevins and Mr. Corvin Mathews, of Marion, after which the host and hostess were presented.

Mrs. Ethel Calhoun gave a poem on "Home," which was made very impressive by verses of "Home, Sweet Home," being softly played on the stringed instruments by the Marion Musicians. A vocal duet, "Silver Threads Among The Gold," was sung by Mrs. I. C. Choate and Mrs. Scott Meek, accompanied at the piano by Miss Janelle Keesling. Mr. J. L. C. Anderson, of Marion, an old schoolmate and boyhood friend of the couple, made an interesting talk, then the group joined in the singing of "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet." Mr. L. P. Collins, of Marion, made an address, then came more of the string music which was enjoyed so much by everyone present. Others appearing on the program were: Prof. Ray Rouse, E. L. Pugh, Ellis Calhoun, Hix Pugh and Lloyd Curran.

Stick Up On The Road

Smyth county officers were notified Monday that a Davis Valley resident, whose name they did not have, was robbed during the morning of about $14 by a colored man who stuck him up in the road. The colored man was accompanied by a woman and child, both also colored, the report said. He fled in a car.

Major Part of Fair Grounds Sold

A major part of the Smyth County Fair Grounds, which had been divided into small building lots, was sold Saturday at public auction conducted by the Cumbo Land Co. of Abingdon.

Of the 32 acres, everything was sold except the race track and the land inside the track, about 10 acres, divided into 79 lots.

The sale brought more than $9,600—enough, we understand, to relieve the fair association and its stockholders from every indebtedness. Returns from the balance of the property, when sold, will go to the stockholders.

The sale, if confirmed—and it is reliably reported that it will—means the end of the old Smyth county fair, in its best days the outstanding county fair in the state.

Hurricane Loses Opening Game, 6-0

Marion High's Scarlet Hurricane lost the opening game of the season, 6-0, in an encounter with the Galax Leafs before a moderately large crowd at Wright Field, Friday afternoon. Although defeated, the local team put up a closer scrap than had seemed possible to those who watched the first few days of practice. Marion's pocket size players were overbalanced by the heavy Leafs; but they partly made up for lack of size by faster footwork.

Several times Marion threatened but never scored. Once during the fourth quarter Marion reached the fouryard line, but was stopped by Galax's heavier line. Galax's touchdown came in the second quarter.

Wimpy Wright did outstanding work carrying punts. Linkous and Rex Wright played a smooth steady game and Gordon and Weddle came through surprisingly well as guards, considering the giants they had to confront.

Before halves the numerous Galax following went forth upon the field and performed a snake dance.

Below is Marion's starting lineup: Raymond Crewey, c; Josh Weddle, rg; Charles Gordon lg; James Hendricks rt; Harry Linkous lf; Rex Wright re; Stuart Sprinkle le; Wimpy Wright qb; James Reith rh; Harold Stone lb; Roger Cook fb.

Friday the 11th the Scarlet Hurricane will invade enemy territory and play Rural Retreat.

Glade Spring Wins Over Chilhowie 20-0

Glade Spring high school, victorious last Friday over Chilhowie, 20 to 0, meets Rural Retreat this coming Friday.

Other games scheduled for Coach Wiley Weaver's charges include Saltville, Oct. 19, Galax Oct. 25, Marion, Nov. 8 and Abingdon Nov. 15.

Atkins Community Fair Program Taking Form

With the date of the Atkins Community Fair rapidly approaching, plans are taking form for the entertainment features of the occasion. At 8:00 P. M. Friday, October 18, a cast of Atkins High School pupils will present "Mr. Bob," a comedy in two acts. The scene is laid in the country home of Miss Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady, who feels it her mission in life to provide a comfortable and happy home for stray cats. To do this, she is, in the opening scene, planning to build a winter home for the cats, but she must keep her scheme and the visit of the architect that day a secret from her niece, Katherine Roger, and nephew, Philip Royson, who both would have serious objections to her little humane scheme. When the architect arrives, he is mistaken for another Mr. Bob and is at once thrown into a whirlwind of funny situations.

The cast selected to present the play is composed of Randolph Hicks as Philip Royson; William Hoofnagle as Robert Brown; Marvin Williams as Jenkins, the butler; Maude Haga as Rebecca Luke; Grace Anderson as Katherine Rogers; and Jacquetta Goodpasture taking the part of the maid, Patty.

An additional feature of the evening will be the presentation by the Primary Group of the chorus with which they won first place in the County Contests last spring under the leadership of Mrs. F. D. McDonald, teacher of music in the school. Other selected songs will be presented by picked groups, and it is hoped that one or two surprise features may be secured.

Entries may be made in all classes during the day Friday, until 7:30 P. M., and it is hoped that the majority of exhibits may be on hand before the usual rush of Fair Day morning comes along. With the Judging of Exhibits and the Baby Show, announced for 10:00 A. M. Saturday, the program of The Big Day will swing into being. At 11 A. M. a series of athletic contests for boys and girls will be conducted under the supervision of Coach Cash. This will include dashes for both boys and girls, running high and broad jumps for the boys, climbing the greasy pole, open to all comers, and several other events. Ribbons will be awarded here for first, second and third places, and suitable premiums will be available for winners.

The Old Fiddlers' Contest at 2:00 P. M. promises to bring out an un-

FOR SHERIFF

Having received the nomination from my party in the regular county mass meeting, I am a candidate for re-election to the office which I now hold, that of Sheriff of Smyth County.

During my term of Sheriff I have done my utmost to be fair and impartial in all cases, and to be patient and kindly whenever it has been my unpleasant duty to make an arrest.

I have devoted all my time and energy, often at my own personal expense, to give Smyth county proper police protection and to render to the public the many small services which are expected of my office.

I sincerely hope that the past record of the office is such as will justify my election again by the voters of Smyth county. I appeal to you for support on the basis of my past record as Sheriff of Smyth county for the past 16 years.

Respectfully yours,
S. F. DILLARD.

Seek $100,000 Fund To Combat T. B.

A legislative appropriation of $100,000 with which to fight tuberculosis in Virginia was requested in a resolution adopted at a state wide conference in Richmond of Christmas Seal workers from 35 counties and cities. This resolution was unanimously indorsed by the Tuberculosis Institute, which met at Maple Shade Inn, Pulaski, October 4 and 5.

A report was given showing that Virginia has the second highest death rate in the south from this preventable and curable disease.

"We cannot expect to control T. B. in Virginia until the seven thousand hidden cases are found," said Dr. Philip R. Jacobs, secretary of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Dr. Harper head of Southwestern Health Unit located at Abingdon gave instructive address on modern chest surgery, which is furnishing an effective supplement to the old methods of providing patients with rest, fresh air, and wholesome food.

The funds from our County Christmas Seal sale will be used for tuberculosis clinics, and health giving service to our children and citizens. We are sure if the people of this county understand thoroughly the good that the Tuberculosis Association is doing, and that the funds for its work come entirely from the sale of Christmas Seals, they will be sure to buy more seals this year to help the work along.

WARNS VIOLATORS OF ELECTION LAW

Heathsville, Oct. 9—Taking cognizance of reporter violations of election laws in his district, Judge K. Hugh Smith of the 12th judicial circuit, in a public statement today warned that any future reports of law violations will be brought to the attention of the grand jury.

"I am informed," the judge said, "that the offending officials whose attention has been called to these violations have given only the convenient and usual excuse of ignorance. But this will not suffice; ignorance of the law is no excuse for crime, and it behooves those who take upon themselves the responsible positions of registrars, electoral boards, judges and clerks of election, to inform themselves of their duties, responsibilities and limitations, and they have no moral or legal right to attempt to discharge their duties without such knowledge."

The above warning should be given by judges in every Judicial District throuout the state. Election officials often take too much for granted. Many of them feel that they are a law unto themselves, that if they violate the law the courts will overlook their actions on the "usual excuse of ignorance." Many think they can and will be protected for party and purposes. Judge Smith's warning is timely and very appropriate.

Letter From Out West

Lincoln, Neb.
Oct. 1, '35

Editor of the News:

Will write a few lines in appreciation of the News. I've been away from Marion for nearly 16 years and I subscribed for the paper several years after I come west. Then for a few years I missed getting it. However, about a year ago my father, Mr. J. H. Box, sent me the paper and I have enjoyed it so much. Some two weeks ago I failed to receive the News and I was sure disappointed for I count on hearing from home always on Monday, where "the folks" are, write or not. Well, today it came. It is cool in Nebraska today, a strong wind is blowing and fall is in the air. We have had a nice summer here although part of the summer has been affected by a drought. We live on the edge of town so we are not exactly crowded for space like you might think. We own our place here and as perhaps you know, Lincoln is a beautiful city of 55,000 population. Two universities are located here and my husband is a night patrolman at the State University, which place he has held for the past seven years. And though I like Nebraska very much I shall always hold Marion very dear in my memory; and thanking you for the promptness in getting the News every Monday I am very sincerely,

GOOD WILL TOUR TOPS FIRST FIRST EFFORT

At McCready's Gap the Rev. G. A. Wilson gave a short, sparkling toast to the home folks and Mr. Erny Frye came right back with a generous welcome.

Then the party reached Saltville, and the big receptions there.

Mr. H. A. Reutschi of the M. A. W. gave a fine talk to the visitors, the 800 school children who had marched down from school under Principal Ray Buchanan, and a crowd of home folks who brought the whole gathering up to about 1500.

"The United States, indeed the whole world, is passing through a period of economic adjustment, and changes have come with such rapidity that they have found business and society unprepared and unable to cope with them.

"It is in this crises that the booster and civic clubs and chambers of commerce can do wonderful work. With the facilities at their command, and their far-sighted sighted wisdom and unquestionable influence, they can assist in solving these economic problems, in adjusting the margin between our production and our consumption and stabilizing our activities.

Mr. Reutschi closed with a peppy poem on "Keep Hustling," and a warm welcome to Saltville, "garden spot of Southwest Virginia."

C. C. Lincoln, speaking for Marion gave the thanks of the visitors for the splendid welcome, commented upon the fine friendship existing between Marion and Saltville as evidenced in such meetings, and said "it will be difficult for us to ever return the hospitality you have shown us here today."

Mr. Lincoln presented Capt. Boyd as a new citizen of Smyth county and then launched the merriest stunt of the day. "We agreed before we left on this tour that candidates could come along but that none should solicit votes. I think some of them have been handshaking and handing out cards. To penalize them we are going to call them all to the platform right now."

They were called—and came.

There were Sheriff S. F. Dillard, Bill York, John Combs Anderson, H. L. Kent, J. B. Richardson, L. P. Collins, C. Lee Richardson, E. K. Coynes, Rush Taylor, Jim Carter, Bill Hutton, Harry Groseclose, Crock Kwyn and Ralph L. Lincoln. With Nate Dickinson pounding the piano they sweetly sang, in pretty close harmony, "Sweet Adeline" to the huge delight of school kids and the equal delight of the grown ups.

In response to demands from Saltville, George A. Collins of Marion delivered his famous "Good Neighbor" speech, first given at Mouth of Wilson on the original tour.

Two programs were held simultaneously at Glade Spring, a speaking and musical program on the town square with Vice-President L. P. Collins presiding and speaking for Marion, and T. B. Porterfield presenting F. M. Crockett, who spoke for Glade. At the school athletic field the school students were entertained by the Drum and Bugle Corps and the town band.

President J. N. Hillman of Emory gave a ringing welcome at the depot square in the college town and one of the best talks of the day was the response by R. A. Anderson of Marion, who graduated from Emory in 1885 and told of old days in the college there.

Meadowview had a rare treat for the visitors when the school house was reached. Squads of beautiful young ladies swept through the crowd plying all with fresh, delicious cider and home baked cookies. Ernest Maiden made a fine talk for the home folks and Jack Sheffey for the visitors. Prexy Lincoln presented Mayor Wilson Scott, "the man who did the hard work getting the tour ready."

Chilhowie also had a treat in the way of great, big, juicy Bonham apples for all, and the motorcade stuffed its collective pockets as Meek Duncan and Mal Pierce tossed them from a truck. Mayor Beattie, in a ringing address, affirmed the close connection now existing between the two towns and C. H. "Andy" Funk rang the bell with his response.

At 7 Mile Ford still another treat was in store when the ladies of that community served all comers with coffee and cakes at special tables they had set up. Mr. Ed Copenhaver and Mr. T. B. Rector joined in making us welcome, and the Rev. W. S. Hendricks graciously responded.

Back in Marion the motorcade formed up at the head of America's fastest growing main street behind the plucky Drum Corps, which was still full of pep after making 12 parades, and stormed down the rialto with all horns blowing and all hands on deck.

During the tour 5,000 lead pencils were presented to school children, 1500 souvenir canes were given to their elders, 1500 copies of the booklet "America's Fastest Growing Main Street," were distributed and innumerable small gifts, favors and souvenirs were distributed.

It was a great day, marked by perfect weather and close co-operation by all and the state police which enable the tour to stay very close to schedule.

Those who went called it "one of the most delightful days of our lives."

Announcement

TO THE VOTERS OF SMYTH COUNTY:

If elected Sheriff of Smyth County at the November election, I will maintain at all times an open Sheriff's office at the Court House in Marion, with telephone, where either myself or one of my deputies will be constantly available to calls from every part of the county. It has, at times in the past, been difficult to get in immediate touch with the Sheriff, and I believe that an office, open all the time, should be maintained.

I will also appoint competent deputies in each district and in every political subdivisions of the County, chosen for their ability, who will be also always available.

I shall also appoint as jailor a competent deputy, with positive instructions to confine his duties to the safely securing of prisoners, rather than seeking fees at the expense of the County, thus increasing the tax burden upon the people. He will also be instructed to abolish the so called "kangaroo court" which imposes upon newly committed prisoners, and under no circumstances will he be permitted to collect any amounts from prisoners, or from those paying their fines, for the benefit of the kangaroo court.

I shall discharge my duties, as provided by law, without fear or favor, in as efficient and prompt a manner as is possible.

A FEW HINTS About Safeguarding Your Home Against Fire

This is National Fire Prevention Week and everyone is interested in learning sure ways and means of never having to call in the fire department.

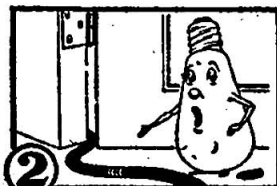

It's a bit embarrassing to realize that most fires are caused through sheer carelessness. So every so often cigarette smokers make a resolution to be sure their cigarettes are out. They swear never to put even a dead cigarette in a waste basket. Mothers teach their children again that matches are not to be played with. Oil rags are not thrown into corner closets and so on down the list of the obvious acts that cause fires.

But there is another cause of household fires that is a bit more baffling to the average householder and that is—defective wiring. When they hear of a fire caused through an electric cord or through fire in the walls they immediately jump to the conclusion that electricity must be a dangerous fire hazard. Nothing is further from the truth—electricity can be the safest thing possible IF it is correctly used. The trouble is that people do not know enough about electricity to judge for themselves when and how it is safe. They rely on the word of the manufacturer of appliances or their dealer or the contractor who installs it. That is just what they should be able to do and what the industry is trying to make sure they can do.

Take cords—for instance. Practically everything electrical that you use in your home has a cord.

And all cords look alike to the householder. But there are cords on the market—so flimsy and so poorly insulated that they can and do cause fires. However, within the last few years a definite step has been taken so that you as a householder can be sure that your electric cords are safe. A little label has been devised that is clamped on reliable cord every five feet. This label simply states that the cord has been approved by the Underwriters Laboratories. Every reputable manufacturer is using this cord on his appliances. And all reputable dealers. Department stores are refusing to handle appliances that do not carry this label. So whenever you buy a cord—a lamp or an appliance that uses a cord—make sure that the cord bears this label and you do away with fire hazard from faulty cords. Of course if you mistreat even the very best cords, naturally they will lose their safety feature.

Cords should be examined regularly.

If you take the advice of the little man illustrated in these pictures your approved cord will last much longer and it cannot be listed as a fire hazard.

Another cause of fire in connection with electricity can be from overloading a circuit which is not protected by a fuse of the right strength.

Your wires can get too "hot" if you try to take too much current over them. But if your circuit is properly fused you cannot take too much because the minute you start to get any electricity, let alone too much. A fuse has just one function and that is to prevent wires getting too hot from overload. Your electrician should be able to tell you the correct fuse for your various circuits. On the average house circuit it is wise to say—use a 15 ampere fuse. And whenever a fuse blows that is your signal that you are expecting too much from the circuit—or that you are using a defective appliance or an appliance with a defective cord.

Our recommendation for safeguarding your home against any possibility of fires caused by electricity is to list: Ask to have an electrical inspector come to your house to check over your wiring. If he tells you it is all right—it is. Next make a resolution to have only approved electricians do any work in your home. Discourage the men of the family from extending wires. And make sure that every cord in use in your home carries the Underwriters Seal of Approval.

Wheat Situation Shows Need for Further Program

The fundamental factors in the United States and world wheat situations which made the first wheat adjustment program necessary are still active and are responsible for the new wheat contract, which has been drafted after conferences of representatives of the producers and the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. These factors are carry-over prospects, crop prospects, potential wheat acreage and the need of producers for a parity income on their domestic production.

Despite abnormally low wheat yields in 1933, 1934, and 1935, the United States has ample supplies of wheat in prospect for normal domestic needs and carryover.

Approximately 50 million acres, at average yields per seed acre, will produce all the wheat the United States will need for domestic use. The World War and the unusually large world trade in wheat following the War permitted the United States to find markets for the production from more than 66 million seeded acres.

It is believed that a world market can still be found for the wheat from 6 to 8 million acres of United States' wheat land. However, from 8 to 10 million excess acres were still seeded to wheat after the export market had declined and these acres were responsible for our former surplus. Unless there is continued effective adjustment of wheat production to demand, a new burdensome surplus will appear which will drive prices down again.

The wheat adjustment program also provides adjustment payments which have been a valuable form of crop insurance in times of drought and which have assured contract signers the wheat parity price on their farm allotments.

Fire In Print Shop

A motor on one of the presses burned out in the print shop at about 8:30 p. m. Monday, the 7th, causing some smoke, some excitement—a call for the fire company—but very little damage. The blaze was soon extinguished.

J. B. RICHARDSON

(From The Marion Democrat)

When J. B. Richardson was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Clerk, it was freely predicted that he would prove one of the strongest on the Democratic ticket. As time went on, and the campaign progressed, that prediction was found to be true. Without any personal solicitation, he was assured of support from all parties and all classes. It was the general consensus of opinion that he would be elected.

Mr. Richardson is an officer of the Town, having in charge the collection of its taxes and the conduct of its finances. His duties are such that he felt he could not, in justice to the municipality which employed him, use his time to further his political campaign. Former experience, as well as the experience of the present candidates, demonstrate that any aspirant for a County office is practically compelled to give the major portion of his time to his canvass. This Blaine Richardson felt he could not do, and at the same time draw his salary from the Town of Marion, and neglect the duties of his office.

The conduct of a campaign also requires funds. Every candidate and every party knows this. Blaine Richardson did not feel that he could, in justice to himself and family, resign, as he felt in duty bound to do, his present office, lose his income, and in addition, encumber himself with debt to carry on his campaign for Clerk.

He therefore, without consultation, solely on his own accord, authorized the statement that he would withdraw from the race, and thus give the Democratic party ample time to secure another candidate. This statement appeared in the press.

However, Mr. Richardson did not understand that there was practically a universal demand that he make the race for Clerk. No sooner had his notice of withdrawal appeared, than from every part of the County and from every class he was deluged with protests. The demand was made that he continue in the race. And this demand was so great, and came from so many sources, and promises of support of which he had never dreamed were so numerous, that he finally agreed to continue on the ticket, with the understanding, however, that he could not give the time to a campaign: that he could use the time of his present employer for his own canvass, that he could not make any financial sacrifice for his election.

It is not often that a situation like this exists. But it is this kind of a man the people of this County want to serve them—a man loyal to his employer and unwilling to use time not his to further his own interests. Blaine Richardson has served the people of this County and of the Town of Marion in many capacities, and in every case, he has performed his duties ably and well. His personal integrity is unquestioned. His ability to fill the office of Clerk is also unquestioned. By experience, knowledge, character and courage, he is eminently qualified to be Clerk of this County.

He cannot make a campaign. He must depend upon his friends, and is without funds. But he is loyal, honest, and dependable. He will make one of the best Clerks Smyth County ever had, and, if the flood of protests at his withdrawal, and the tremendous promise of support he has since received, is any indication, he will be elected in November, canvass or no canvass, funds or no funds.

It is the privilege, as well as the duty, of every voter of this county, to consider the situation as it is, and give Blaine Richardson the same degree of consideration as if he could, like the other candidates, give his time, and use a car, to personally see the voters. This he cannot do, but, knowing the spirit of the men and women of this county, we believe, and confidently, that his candidacy will be given the same careful consideration as if he had personally seen every voter. Smyth County needs a change. It needs a man like Blaine Richardson for Clerk. And he will be elected.

CONGRESS DECLINED TO SPLIT PENNIES

Elec does it every hour!

APPALACHIAN ELECTRIC POWER CO.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

A bill recently introduced into Congress provided for a 1/2 cent piece to look like a washer. Presumably because it was felt that a penny was already so small, Congress refused to subdivide the coinage further.

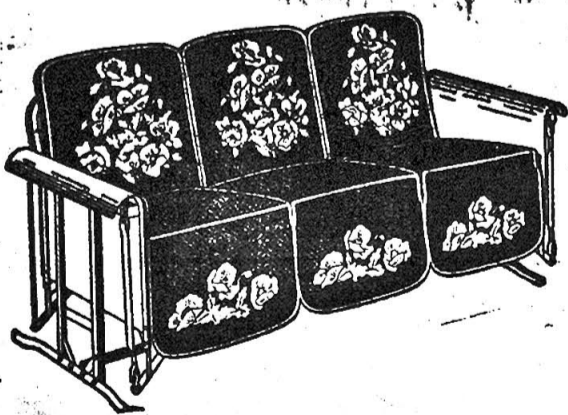

The purchasing power of the penny is almost negligible as applied to all commodities, but NOT for the purchase of electricity at our low rates. Were you to buy your current as you use it, smaller coins would be necessary — 1/2 cent to operate the toaster in the morning, 1/2 cent to clean the house with the vacuum.

HIGH LIGHTS
Of The Week's News

By R. H. T.

FLASHES: The forward march of the nation's business, says the Associated Press, continued last week, but was affected slightly by the staccato tone of African war drums. . . The Council of the League of Nations holds Italy "clearly in the wrong" in attacking Ethiopia. The world long ago reached that conclusion. . . Virginia's railroads paid approximately $2,500,000 into the State Treasury in taxes, the N. & W. leading. . . Napoleon once said that the English were a nation of shop-keepers. We seem to be a nation of salesmen. One salesman averages $15,000,000 a year and that is real selling. He is Rex Cole; and he sells electric refrigerators. . . Since October 1st the Federal Interstate Commerce Commission has been in control of interstate trucking. Here's hoping that something may be accomplished in the way of making the trucks behave on our highways. . . The government's income is slightly over a billion a quarter, the news tells us. But what does that avail if we spend more? Old Ben Franklin was right when he said "Earn $1 a day and spend 99c and the result is happiness. Earn

$1 a day and spend $1.01 and the result is misery" . . . Winter is starting early this year. Tvo snow storms have already been reported . . . The State Planning Board (did you know there was such a thing?) says there is a decline in the birth rate of the State. Mussolini said the same thing about Italy a few years ago and now he has 'em fighting a defenceless nation. . . Virginia is listed by Forbes Magazine as among the second best of the states in business during the present time. . . Since the World War, just 20 years ago, 45 nations have been swept by revolutions or uprisings of a serious nature. Now we are in a serious war. . . And now comes the Saturday Evening Post and calls our spending spree "BILLIONAIRE". Bills before Congress at the last session called for $200,000,000,000! Of course, all did not pass, or where would we be? . . . Out in Toledo they are building a windowless factory. It will be built of glass bricks. The factory will be ventilated by an air conditioning system and lighted during the day through the translucency of the glass bricks. . . Farmers' cash income for 1935 is estimated at $6,700,000,000. In 1929 it was more than ten billion, but in 1932, that darkest of dark years, it sank to $4,300,000,000. The figures look encouraging. However, local farmers do not feel optimistic. . . The modern Old Man of the Sea is TAXES! The petroleum industry, for instance, made net receipts last year of $264,000,000 but paid in taxes $772,150,000. It seems incredible. . . This is a fast age. The 20 hour train between New York and Chicago (Pennsylvania on New York Central) has been cut to 16 1/2. But the train from Chicago to St. Paul-Minneapolis is no slouch: it runs 400 miles in 400 minutes. . . Some recent writers refer to our financial system as the leaning tower of Pisa. But the Pisa tower has been leaning since 1350 A. D. . . As we go to press, Detroit has won the baseball championship of the world. It was the most profitable series in history. . . Another ship has been driven by the element to the rocks. The Rotterdam, with 450 passengers and a crew of several hundred, struck 60 miles southeast of Kingston, Jamaica. All, fortunately, were saved. . . The sewage disposal scheme for cities and towns adjoining Hampton Roads, for which the gigantic fund in the hands of the President was to provide the ways and means, has fallen through. It is a great pity that this, one of the finest bodies of water in the world should be polluted, and so far as fishing and bathing are concerned ruined because the money is to be used for less worthy purposes.

"Il Duce speaks to his subjects," says a headline. Do we Americans realize that we are not "subjects" but citizens? And being citizens implies freedom. However, freedom demands that we use our God-given minds to think and do what is right and proper, to the end that all may be helped.

Harry Hopkins' futile effort to give employment to the 3,500,000 men promised jobs out of the $4,800,000,000 relief fund has made one magazine coin a new word,—"boondoggling." It might be called anything, but the men out of work simply call it "hard luck."

The Advisory Legislative Council, reporting on criminal procedure, makes, among others, the following suggestions: require the accused to file a statement whether he will rely as a defence upon an alibi or insanity or feeble-mindedness; and if upon an alibi, at what place the accused will claim he was. Also that alternate jurors may be provided so that in cases of illness or death the trial can go on uninterrupted; and that the jury find the defendant guilty or not guilty, the Judge fixing the penalty, within the limit of the law, when a verdict of guilty is found. If adopted, these suggestions will materially assist the administration of justice.

Quick trials and adequate punishment are helping to bring a better condition of things in Virginia. In Amelia County last week Luther C. Boggs was given a life sentence for holding up the officials of a Bank. And in Fluvanna County four suspects have been arrested for another would-be bank robbery. We are not as swift and sure as the English in apprehending criminals and dealing justice but we are on our way.

Menander, an ancient philosopher (291 B. C.) said that "Nobody sees his own faults, but everyone is lynx-eyed to those of his neighbor." True today of individuals and nations alike.

Dodson-Phillippi

A wedding of much interest in Southwest Virginia and North Carolina was solemnized Sunday at high noon, when Miss Sarah Kathryn Phillippi of Rural Retreat became the bride of Mr. James Everett Dodson of Chapel Hill, N. C. The ceremony which took place at the ancestral home of the Phillippi family, now the home of Mrs. Minnie Phillippi Smith, was performed by Rev. A. K. Hewitt, who used the impressive ring ceremony of the Lutheran church.

The bride wore a lovely costume of blue velvet with accessories to match. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses and gardenias and carried a white prayer book.

After the ceremony, luncheon was served to forty guests. The bride is the only daughter of the late Daniel and Lillian Copenhaver Phillippi and is a talented musician. The groom is a civil engineer in the forestry service at Waynesville, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Dodson left immediately for a wedding trip thru the Carolinas, after which they will reside in Maynesville.

Honoring Recent Bride

Mrs. Alonzo L. Spence gave a beautiful contract party Saturday afternoon at her home in Glade Spring for Mrs. Shelburn Carmack, lovely bride of the month. The home was abloom with baskets and bowls of marigolds, zennias and purple asters, which created a very impressive effect. Miss Leona Rogers was winner of the top score prize, linen tea towels. Miss Margaret Horne, who was lucky in the cut, was presented a vile of Evening in Paris perfume. The honoree, Mrs. Carmack, captured the floating prize, linen tea towels, for being the last to make game in hearts.

A lovely shower of linens was presented to the bride, the hostesses' gift being a wide Wedgewood tea pot. Master Jerry Marshall, handsome young grandson of Mrs. Spence, presented the shower in his wagon, which was decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Carmack wore a spinner red marinet with all black accessories.
